

OMAHA BOOSTERS MAKE TRADE TRIP

Fifty Local Business Men Make Excursion Into Neighborly Iowa Territory.

AT LAST WEATHER IS GOOD

After four futile attempts to make a trade excursion over into neighboring Iowa territory during the summer, fifty members of the Commercial club have at last been favored with good weather and roads, and went on the trip today.

With sweaters and overcoats buttoned up tight, they started at 7 a. m., while the air was still chilly and sharp. Fourteen cars started, gaily decorated and bearing big signs reading, "Omaha the Market Town."

They will return this evening at 7 o'clock. Stops will be made at Glenwood, Malvern, Hastings, Emerson, with lunch at Red Oak, and on the return Essex, Shenandoah, Sidney and Tabor.

Among those who made the trip were: Commissioner Robert H. Manley, Commercial club; William Schellberg, Union Stock Yards company; J. O. Siford, Thomas Cusack company; Joe Kelly, M. E. Smith company; W. D. Hoarford, John Deere Plow company; Frank Hughes, H. J. Hughes company; Roy Moore and Glenn Wharton, F. P. Kirkendall company; J. J. Melick, 913 City National bank building; R. C. Peters and M. D. Cameron, Peters Trust company; Guy Liggett, the Pantorium; Henry Forster, Omaha Crockery company; Penn F. Podora and J. J. Hen, Iren Biscuit company; Carl Swanson, Jerpe Commission company; O. T. Eastman, First National bank; George Sumner, the Fairmont Creamery company; W. H. Rhoades, United States National bank; A. F. McAdams, Nebraska Telephone company; Don Lee, Heeb & Runyan Furniture company; C. H. deWaal, Omaha News company; Harry Morphy, E. E. Bruce company; Tom Austin, American Hand Sewed Shoe company; N. A. Spiesberger, Spiesberger & Sons company; F. C. Patton, Richardson Drug company; L. P. Utterbach, Byrne & Hammer company; David Cole, Cole Creamery company; F. A. Welsh, Sherman-Williams company; T. B. Coleman, Midland Glass and Paint company; E. E. Kimberley, Paxton & Gallagher company.

Recovers $100 for Death of Fine Dog

Judgment of $100 damages for death of "Sox Rex," an Airedale dog, prized as a hunter, a watchdog and companion by his owner, was recovered by James Farhead of Justice's Kubat's court. It was said to be largest sum ever recovered as damages for the death of a dog in Omaha.

The Jones Candy company, whose automobile ran over "Sox" at Twenty-fourth and Sprague streets September 22, was defendant in the suit. E. A. Smith was attorney for the plaintiff.

The plaintiff testified that the dog was so well trained as a hunter that he would gather up decoys used by his master. As a watchdog, he declared, "Sox" had been successful in keeping 200 chickens safe from thieves. The animal was kind to children and was an excellent companion, according to testimony.

Membership Teams Will Feed Tonight

The first contest dinner of the season will be enjoyed tonight at the Commercial club by the membership committees of the club. The team of N. T. Thorsen and Dean Ringer will be the guests of the other teams, having secured the most new members for the club since last summer. Other members of the team are Harry L. Keen, John G. Rosicky and F. M. Zorbaugh. Stanley Rosewater is chairman of the membership committee, which has the record of raising the club's membership to the highest point in its history, with over 1,800 enrolled.

GUARDIAN OF G. P. BEMIS SUING FOR HIS PROPERTY

That George P. Bemis, former mayor of Omaha, in 1894 was worth $50,000 and that he is now penniless is alleged by his guardian in a petition of intervention filed in a partition suit brought by C. G. Carlberg against a company bearing Mr. Bemis' name, in district court.

The petition asks for an accounting of moneys and property alleged received by Mr. Carlberg and asserts that property formerly owned by Mr. Bemis has been involved in a maze of transfers among corporations.

THREE ARE BOUND OVER TO THE DISTRICT COURT

Ed O'Connor, Curtis and William E. Lang, ironworkers, charged with assault on the person of Frank Spencera, October 20, were brought before Judge Foster and bound over to the district court with bonds fixed at $50 each.

COMMERCIAL STATE BANK SOON OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The Commercial State bank will open at the southwest corner of Eighteenth and Farnam streets. John F. Hecox, formerly cashier of the City National bank, is one of the organizers and will be vice president. J. O. Loving, an Iowa banker, will be cashier.

Mr. Hecox will shortly make an announcement of the new bank's other officers and directors. A number of Omaha business men will be stockholders.

Cured Boy of Croup

Nothing frightens a mother more than the loud, hoarse cough of croup. The labored breathing, straining, choking and gasping for breath call for instant action. Mrs. T. Neureover, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my boy of a serious attack of croup after other remedies had failed. I recommended it to every one, as we knew from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It clears air passages, soothes and heals. See everywhere.—Advertisement."

Swanson Says His Engagement is Simply Press Agent's Stuff

Roy Swanson, son of N. P. Swanson, local undertaker, denies there is any serious phase to the stories in the Chicago papers of Thursday relative to a romance between himself and Miss Kathryn McCormick and Miss Dorothy Randolph, models at the Chicago style show.

According to an account in one of the Chicago papers, Miss Randolph and Mr. Swanson were principals in an affair of the heart until Miss Randolph introduced the Omaha young man to her friend, Miss McCormick. It was further alleged that the introduction resulted in a romance between Miss McCormick and Mr. Swanson, with the possibility of an engagement.

Upon his return to Omaha Mr. Swanson made this statement:

"I met the young women referred to while stopping at the Hotel LaSalle, but I wish to state there is nothing in the report that I was or intend to be engaged to either of the Style show models."

I understood there was to be a story about this matter in the Chicago papers, but I would ask you not to mention it here."

A Chicago paper of date of Thursday shows pictures of the young women and states that Miss McCormick announced her engagement to the Omaha man. She lives at 2941 Clarendon avenue, Chicago, and is said to be a young woman of exceptional beauty.

Another alleged phase of the story is that Miss Randolph introduced Mr. Swanson to Miss McCormick and the latter won the heart of the young undertaker, the former young woman did not tear down the scenery at the Style show because her friend "cut her out." In fact, Miss Randolph is said to have conferred blessing upon the match she is said to have unwittingly made.

Mr. Swanson laughed at the whole affair and declares he is the victim of an interpreting press agent.

Art Guild to Be Open This Evening

The Omaha Art Guild will keep its exhibition open at 2609 Farnam street until 9 o'clock this evening.

Prof. Paul H. Gramann of the University of Nebraska has been in the city trying to negotiate with the Guild to hold its exhibition in Lincoln December.

South Omaha schools will also probably put a selection of the best pictures on view during the coming week.

FELLOWSHIP BANQUET AT CLIFTON HILL CHURCH

A fellowship banquet was given by the Christian Endeavor society of the Clifton Hill Presbyterian church Thursday evening in the church parlors. About eighty-five young people sat down to the sumptuous repast. The pastor, the Rev. B. R. Van Der Lippe, presided as toastmaster. The president of the society, Miss Ruth Dutcher, gave the toast, "Our Society." Miss Grace Jardine spoke on "Ideals" and Miss Helen Hicks on "Our Opportunity." A tribute to the girls of Clifton Hill was given by Mr. John Mayer. Misses Grace Reif, Wanda Darby, Mayme Jardine and Besie Watson responded with remarks on the subject, "The Boys of Clifton Hill." The program concluded with a toast by Mr. Jerome Fashner on "Push," and the happy gathering of young people arose and sang "America."

LYNN ANDERSON FORFEITS HER BOND IN POLICE COURT

Lynn Anderson, 106 South Twelfth street, arrested on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, forfeited a $50 bond by failure to appear in police court. Fifteen inmates forfeited bonds. Bertha Houston, 1421 North Twenty-first street, was fined $10 and costs for conducting a disorderly house.
