

Nebraska AERO SQUADRON AT WORK TODAY

General Hall Gives State Guard Aircraft Task of Getting Message to Omaha.

NEBRASKA FIELD OF HOSTILITIES

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The war is on. General Hall, in charge of the Nebraska National Guard, has issued today the following apportionment to be worked out by the aero corps, which will start out about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from Lincoln to make a flight to Omaha. The bombs to be used will be the new Haysel kind, invented by Major Haysel of the Nebraska National Guard. The two problems are as follows:

PROBLEM NO. 1.
The state of Nebraska is considered as a territory. Recent hostilities and uprisings among the natives has caused the president to send troops into the territory for the purpose of restoring peace and order. One division of Infantry is encamped at Omaha under Major General 'A.' Brigadier General 'B.' with one brigade of Infantry, has taken peaceful possession of the city of Lincoln and fortified it.

News has been received that a general uprising is under way and an attack will be made upon Lincoln within twelve hours. All lines of communication have been shut off. The natives are massing in all the surrounding towns for a general attack. General 'A' at Lincoln realizes that he cannot hold out long against such a force and desires to send word to Omaha for reinforcements.

Captain R. E. McMillen, commanding U-2, has been ordered to proceed to Omaha via Ashland. One regiment is encamped at Ashland. U-2 will land at Ashland, if possible, and report the news regarding the uprising, and instruct Colonel 'C' to join the reinforcements coming from Omaha. U-3 is also ordered to destroy and break up all mass meetings en route by bomb dropping, and to photograph as many of the towns as possible, in order that the reinforcements will have a complete map of the territory to be covered en route to Lincoln.

PROBLEM NO. 2.
U-3 reports at Ashland and receives information that the surrounding country is also hostile. He delivers his orders and proceeds on to Omaha, destroying all towns en route.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The Prest-O-Lite company, a corporation in Indiana, has written Labor Commissioner Coffey asking for information regarding the workmen's compensation law of Nebraska. The company does a big business in this and other states, recharging batteries, and, heretofore, the batteries have been shipped away for recharging. The contents of the letter would indicate that the company contemplates the erection of a branch plant somewhere in this state.

Nebraska IMPERIAL IS AFTER A TRAIN

West Nebraska Dwellers Complain that Service Given is Far from Satisfactory.

HALL CONDUCTS A HEARING

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Rail-Commissioner Hall has returned from Imperial, where he conducted a hearing on an application of the patrons along that branch of the Burlington for additional train service from McCook.

It appears that the train service consists of a mixed train which carries passengers, freight, a milk car, stock cars and every other kind of car, which runs to Imperial from McCook in the morning and back at night. On Wednesday and Saturday a special engine pulls all full cars of freight up and back which the regular train is unable to handle.

The company refuses to put on another train because the second shows but 44 cents earning per train mile for passenger service west and but 42 cents per train mile service east, which their claim is not adequate to warrant the expense of an extra train.

There are three sugar beet areas along the line, which adds to the inconvenience of the passengers and the reliability of the train to make time. Business men at the hearing from along the line suggested that while in a business way it would not be as well for them, that possibly a passenger train with a freight three days in the week might be a solution of the question.

Real estate men along the line testified that because of the poor service it was hard work to get people interested in land, and they went to points in the state where the service was better.

Red Cross Nurse From Seat of War Visits Broken Bow

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Miss Alice Beale, secretary of the Red Cross association of nurses at Cleveland, and who has just returned from Budapest, after fourteen months of Red Cross work in the war hospitals there, is in Broken Bow this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Beale. Miss Beale was supervisor of nurses at Budapest and during her sojourn there she wrote home many interesting letters of her experience, which were published in a number of leading papers throughout the country. At the invitation of the citizens here she will give an informal talk Sunday night on the Red Cross work and the conditions prevailing in the theater of war at the present time.

Notes from Chadron And Dawes County

CHADRON, Neb., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—C. E. Hawk has resigned his position as farm agent for Dawes county. His work has been of great benefit to the county and it is with great regret the farm management accept his resignation to take effect January 1.

The democratic party has retained the services of A. M. Wright as deputy United States marshal, he having just received his new commission.

The county court has been busy for two days hearing testimony against William T. Kusel accused of setting fire to a barn belonging to Peter Norman, which was burned at Whitney, October 8. Kusel proved an alibi and the court refused to bond him over.

William Sherman Hebbart, who came to Dawes county in 1887, died on the homestead he took at that time. He leaves a widow and one son, Scott DeForest Hebbart. Attending the funeral were his aged father, one sister, Mrs. Alta Brewer of Camp Crook, S. D., and three brothers, Harry and John of Spade, Neb., and George of Hemingford, Neb. Deceased was born at Clarinda, Ia., in 1828.

Frank Sierst, a Bohemian, committed suicide in the best of George Gregg's company in which he lived on Thursday. Mrs. Gregg went out to the barn and found him dead. He had shot himself in the heart while sitting on a stool milking a cow. He had been working for Mr. Gregg for four months and had no relatives in this country so far as can be ascertained. The body was taken to Alliance for burial.

The rules have been made and are as follows:

2. The theme should be of such a nature that it will be suitable always for Nebraska.

3. Meter suitable for music should be used.
4. Although not essential, the poem should be typewritten on paper eight and one-half inches by eleven inches and on one side of the paper only.

5. The contest is open to all residents of Nebraska.
6. The author's name and address should be placed on a card and enclosed with the poem. The name should not appear on the poem.

7. The poem should be in the hands of the committee not later than March 1, 1916.
8. A special committee will be named to judge the merit of these productions and award the prize. When the first contest is over, a second will be announced for the purpose of securing the music. A prize of $100 will be offered for this feature also. Participants in the first contest may also enter the second.

Nebraska Rural School Plan Meets With Much Favor

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—State Superintendent A. O. Thomas is much pleased with the result of his attendance upon the national conference of rural school workers, which was held in Nashville, Tenn., last week. It was accompanied on the trip by A. V. Teed, assistant superintendent under Dr. Thomas, who has charge of the rural school work of this state.

The Nebraska plan for the establishment of rural schools and the consolidation of districts meets with great favor by the delegates, many of whom were federal officials, J. L. McBrien, formerly of Nebraska, being one of the number.

Some of the Nebraska plans which seemed to meet with favor were the adequate preparation of a sufficient number of teachers for rural schools; a school term of not less than 180 days; consolidation of school districts; cottage homes for teachers, with demonstration farms and plots.

Secretary Pool Enjoys Birthday

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Secretary of State Charles Washington Pool had a birthday today and his office force reminded him of it by the presenting of a fine bouquet of flowers. Mr. Pool refuses to tell how old he is, but the oldest inhabitant of the state remembers him as far back as the signing of the declaration of independence, and while Mr. Pool's name is not on that famous document, it is not his fault, his automobile "busting" a tire, and he failed to arrive until after the thing was signed all up.

However, despite his age, Mr. Pool still retains his youthful beauty and "gritlike laughter" and is one of the officials in the state house who really works.

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—The 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mittan, who reside nine miles southeast of Beatrice, was struck by an automobile driven by O. A. Hutchinson, a neighbor, as she was returning from school, and sustained a fractured hip, a broken rib and severe cuts and bruises about the body.

He had been a sufferer for many years. He served during the war of the rebellion from October, 1863 to February, 1866, in Company K, Ninth Iowa cavalry, and was a member of Richardson Post No. 50, Grand Army of the Republic. He is survived by his wife and several grownup children.

MUNDAY GUILTY; GIVEN FIVE YEARS

Illinois Banker Convicted by Morris Jury on the Fifth Ballot.

LORIMER WILL BE TRIED NEXT

MORRIS, Ill., Nov. 20.—Charles Munday, vice president of the LaSalle Street Trust and Savings bank of Chicago, of which William Lorimer was president, last night was found guilty of conspiring to wreck the institution and his punishment was fixed by a jury at five years in prison.

The jury took five ballots. They disagreed on the penalty, nine standing at first for the maximum punishment, which would have been five years imprisonment and a fine of $2,000. Munday and his son, J. G. Munday, were in the court room.

Munday's wife, his two daughters and one son, Rev. Father Josh Munday, were not in court.

The LaSalle Street bank was organized by Munday, and, according to charges of the state's attorney in the present trial, the name "Senator" was capitalized as one of the bank's assets. When the bank failed in June, 1914, there followed the collapse of nine other banks and trust companies of the so-called Lorimer-Munday string.

Fourteen persons were indicted, Lorimer and Munday being the chief of them. The indictments charged them with looting the institution of almost $5,000,000 and with violation of practically every banking law of the state.

The state elected to try Munday first, and when he contended that his associations with Mr. Lorimer precluded a fair trial in Chicago, a charge of venue to this city was granted.

It was charged that assets of the LaSalle street concern were stolen to cooperate other banks in the chain, that checks had been "fitted" and that the parent bank had been insolvent for some time prior to the collapse.

His Rise Spectacular.
Munday's rise was spectacular. He went rapidly from manager of a small telegraph office to part ownership in eleven banks and a dozen large business concerns. He was born and raised in Litchfield, Ill., where his father was justice of the peace.

Macley Hoyne, state's attorney of Cook county, said the verdict was satisfactory. Lorimer and Henry W. Huttis of Muscatine, Ia., will go to trial after the first of next year. Hoyne said:

"I will fight this case to the last ditch." Motion for a new trial will be heard tomorrow morning.

"The jury fixed the penalty. The verdict was: 'We the jury find the defendant, Charles B. Munday, guilty in the form and manner charged in the indictment and fix the penalty at five years imprisonment in the state penitentiary.'"

The jury deliberated six hours and twenty-five minutes, after a trial of eight weeks duration.

A "For sale" ad will turn second-hand furniture into cash.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

G. W. Meldon, Found Wandering Half Demented, Put in Way of Getting Job.

CHILD IS DEAD OF DIPHTHERIA

G. W. Meldon, 1115 Cass street, North Side, is a new man now as the result of the philanthropic character of Captain John Briggs of the South Side police force. When the former was on his last step and was about to desert his wife and family because of his inability to get a job and support them, the captain secured a job for him at the Alfalfa Mills.

Officer Tom Quinn arrested Meldon as he was wandering in a half demented condition, going west at Thirty-ninth and L streets. Absent minded he told the officer that he was bound for Lincoln or almost anywhere. Quinn brought the man to the station.

He told how he had searched for months for a job in vain and of how he was unable to support his family. The man broke down and cried during the session. He was sent home happy and gratified that he would be able to work.

Change Church Name.
At a meeting of the board of trustees of the First Baptist church at Twenty-fifth and H streets Tuesday evening, Dr. A. J. Young and C. A. Burns were elected as trustees to enter at once on active service as board members. Dr. W. Bomgardner was elected as superintendent of the Sunday school.

In order to do away with the conflict with the North Side First Baptist church, originating with consolidation of Omaha and South Omaha, the name was changed to "Trinity Baptist church."

It is probable that some action will be taken to change the name of the First Presbyterian church in the South Side, as it is the only other church which conflicts with an Omaha church organization. Shortly after consolidation members of the board of trustees of the First Methodist church changed the name to the "Grace Methodist church."

Deaths from Diphtheria.
Raymond, 14 months old, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hurley, died Friday of diphtheria. Funeral will be held at the residence, 254 South Thirty-third street, this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment St. Mary's cemetery. Funeral private.

Steal Savings Bank.
A sneak thief broke into the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Filton Peoples, 253 K street, last evening between 8 and 1:30 o'clock and made away with a small savings bank containing $1.90. The bank was at work, while his wife was away shopping at the time. The police were notified.
