

REBS STAND MAY BE ON OLD FIELD

Remaining Armies of Balkan State Probably Will Face Foes Where Conquered Years Ago.

CONDITIONS ARE VERY GRAVE

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The position of the Serbian army and the attitude of Greece toward the entente powers are still the outstanding questions of interest in Europe. Reliable information on both situations is so meager that the public is unable to judge what changes, if any, have taken place.

It is thought possible that the Serbians will make a stand on the historic plain of Kosovo, east of the Montenegrin frontier, where over 500 years ago they lost their independence to Turkey.

They must either do this or retire into the mountains of Montenegro or northern Albania, where, although they would be nearer help from the Adriatic it would be difficult to keep them supplied, owing to the absence of roads.

The Austro-Germans on the north are now within thirty miles of the Mitrovitsa-Prishtina line of the Serbians while the Bulgarians in the south are said already to have passed Monastir.

Have Passed Monastir. As to the position of Greece, there have been no developments, although a more hopeful feeling prevails in Paris and London since Denys Cochin's visit to King Constantine and the Greek ministers.

There have been lively artillery engagements in Alsace and at some other points on the west. In the east, the German report there is no change in the situation while Petrograd claims repulses of the Germans on the Dvina and Svir rivers.

The Italians are still hammering away at the Austrians' positions on the Isonzo, but while they are gaining a little from day to day, they have not yet succeeded in the capture of Gorizia which has again been under heavy shell fire for several days.

Act as if They Owned Place.

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—(By Wireless to Tuckerton.)—"According to advices from Constantinople to the Frankfurter Zeitung," says the Overseas News agency, "serious measures are being considered in Athens in connection with the existing situation. It is declared that the British and French are behaving at Saloniki as if that port were their property and that instructions have been made regarding the overthrow of the dynasty."

It is noted that a corps of gendarmes stationed in New Greece, a body formed principally of Cretans, has been openly negotiating in favor of former Premier Venizelos.

It is pointed out that a state of siege can be proclaimed in all Greece without the action of Parliament, if a sufficient emergency arises."

Hundreds Worth of Jewelry Stolen Out of Woman's Room

Mrs. Ella Green of the Woodland apartments, Thirty-first street and Dewey avenue, reported to the police that jewelry and diamonds valued at several hundred dollars were stolen from her apartment.

The Blake Drug company, Sixteenth and Locust, was entered Friday night by burglars, who bored holes in a rear door, turned the key on the inside of the lock and carried away $100 in cash and stamps, taken from several airone books secreted in various parts of the store. It is believed some one familiar with the store accomplished the robbery. A brace and bit was found near the rear door.

After breaking through a glass window of V. Vackel & Co.'s establishment, 1302 Garfield street, $1 was taken by burglars. C. H. Weir & Co., 402 Cuming street, was also visited by thieves, who took $1 in stamps.

Church Women to Have Tea Room for Holiday Shoppers

The unique methods for raising money devised by women of the First Methodist church last year for the new church fund will be repeated this year. Their latest venture is a society tea room, to be known as the "Yuletide Tea room," which will be opened on the fifth floor of the Orchard-Wilhelm store, December 1. The tea room will be opened between the hours of 11 a. m. and 6 p. m. each day, luncheon and tea being served, and will be maintained until Christmas.

There will be music and every convenience for the Christmas shopper. Mrs. W. F. Milroy is president of the church organization. Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm, Mrs. Charles Offutt and Mrs. A. D. Peters are assisting in the work.

Gained Eighteen Pounds After Using Three Bottles Of Peruna

Mrs. Hattie Hamilton, No. 918 Glen Ave., Latonia, Ky., writes: "I have taken two bottles of Peruna and commenced on the third one. I did not really need the third one, but thought it best to take another bottle. I have always weighed 102 pounds, but since I began taking Peruna, I weigh 120, for the first time in all of my life, and I am now 32 years old. Your medicine has surely done me a great deal of good, and I have recommended it to several others who have begun taking it. My mother, who is 76 years old, had grown so weak she could scarcely walk. She took two bottles of Peruna and is fatter and looking well."

GREAT betterments often come through the simplest deductions. The elimination of subterfuge, mystery and chance from the dealings between store and customer cannot help but result in mutual profit to both, whether the commodity being dealt in is silks, or carpets, or pictures, or pianos, and

The economic methods of a department store—this one at least—applied to the buying and selling of pianos, must result to the advantage of the purchaser.

These two logical deductions have been brought to the point of unequivocal facts by our own experience in every line of merchandise we have handled up to this date.

Just how our business methods have been applied to the piano business is shown by our adherence to the following principles:

- (1) Burgess-Nash methods eliminate all mystery.
- (2) Pianos are offered on a strictly one-price basis—that price being the lowest possible price the piano can be handled for, through the small margin of profit methods of this store.
- (3) The paying of unearned commissions, the buying of "influence," the purchasing of indorsements, In other words, this is a piano store founded upon integrity, upright dealing, mutuality and the square, straightforward, above-board business principles that have been responsible for the success of this store in its other branches.

As an introductory feature for opening the holiday buying season and to befittingly acquaint intending purchasers with the completeness and elegance of this department, we announce

A Quality Sale of High-Grade Pianos

THERE are several kinds of pianos included in this great clearing event. Quality pianos that have been taken in exchange as part payment on Chickering and Behning Player Pianos and new pianos that are discontinued styles and lines on which we have obtained permission from the manufacturers to make a special price.

These used pianos are not discarded instruments in any sense. They are excellent pianos that have seen hardly any use at all. This is because they were given up by people who could not play them, and who exchanged them for player-pianos—the instruments everyone can play.

Others have been used a little longer, but whether they have been used six weeks or six months they will be sold way below their actual worth.

The following well known makes are included in this big selling event—the names alone guarantee their quality:

- Kurtzman
- H. P. Nelson
- Harvard
- De Rivas & Harris
- Weaver
- Behning
- Stults and Baner
- A. B. Cameron
- Wurtliser
- Huntington
- Segerstrom
- Haines Brothers
- Ivers & Pond
- Packard
- Schaff
- Knabe Brothers
- Armstrong
- Autopiano

You must not let possible prejudice against "used" pianos prevent you from attending this great sale.

Before you consider the prices you must judge the pianos themselves—judge them as you would new instruments, by their tone, their action, their exterior finish.

These pianos have all been vigorously overhauled. Adjusters, tuners and polishers have made each one practically a new instrument—inside and out.

Our knowledge and confidence in them is such that, each one, despite its bargain price, is sold with the same guarantee that goes with a new instrument.

Come as musicians, as piano experts or as shoppers if you will—but come tomorrow if possible, or surely on some day this week without fail.

And remember each instrument is plainly tagged with the price—and the only price for which it can be bought.
