PUBLICITY BUREAU DOES BIG WORK

Many Valuable Accomplishments of Last Few Months Summarized in Club Journal,

MANY THOUSANDS HEAR OF CITY

Wide and varied activities of the Omaha Bureau of Publicity during ganization ever organized in this city the last five months are reported a leading city of the middle west chairman of the bureau's governing committee.

Many valuable aids to Omaha's mercial club members and other interested persons in a two-page artimercial Club Journal.

"Stop Off at Omaha" has become a famous slogan throughout the country, as the result of efforts of the Publicity bureau and Omaha newspapers. The Side, with a membership of over 500. campaign has sought to let the people know that Omaha is a city of special interest to transients, not only as offering acceptable rest from traveling, but also because of its notable activities along commercial and municipal lines, and the interesting sights to be seen here.

Stop Off at Omaha New Famous. Eastern newspapers have carried the familiar "Stop Off at Omaha" legend, through the efforts of the bureau, and every one of the thousands of exposition visitors in California read the stogan numerous times on blotters and ticket envelopes when they went to railway agencies to have their return tickets

Thousands of people were induced to stop in the Gate City on their way east or west during the last summer as the result of the bureau's campaign.

Over 50,000 bird's-eye view books of Omaha and 20,000 folders, "Where to Go, What to See and How to Get There,' were distributed by the bureau, the former throughout the country and the latter at local rallway depots and hotels. Many important national and state conventions were also secured for Omaha during the summer and fall by the Pub-Helty bureau. In that way Omaha merchants, hotelmen and persons in all kinds of business have been directly benefited through greatly increased trade. Among the bigger conventions were those of the Travelers' Protective association, the Letter Carriers, the Farmers' National congress, the Saengerbund and many others, each of which brought from several hundred to 3,000 people to the city.

Big Attendance at Conventions. Records of convention attendance have proved that the system of promotion employed by the Bureau of Publicity is almost certain to break former attendance records of the conventions when they meet in Omaha.

All sorts of valuable publicity for the city has also been secured by the bureau through feature illustrated articles about Omaha, written by Manager Parrish and published in various papers andmagazines. Manager Parrish also has aided materially in giving publicity to on this date. many of Omaha's big enterprises, including Ak-Sar-Ben, the retailers' charity concert course, the jobbers' market week, the auto show and others. The bureau 200 guests, who were well entertained. also has assisted in entertaining the State Teachers' association.

have already been secured

During the period from June 1 to November 1 expenditures by the Bureau of Publicity, in advertising the city and promoting its business and activities, totalled $7,965.87. Money for expenses is furnished by subscriptions by prominent

Spares Bird Fatted For Thanksgiving; Ice Wagon Kills It

Police Judge Harvy Reed of the South Bide fattened a huge turkey for three nental building. weeks before Thanksgiving. When the great event in the life of the fowl came early Thursday morning the judge didn't have the heart to kill it. He saved it. planning to train it into the role of a private pet.

Yesterday morning, just the morning after Thanksgiving, remember, a South Omaha Ice company wagon ran over the fowl and killed it before the judge's residence, at Twenty-fourth and O streets. judge mourned the prize greatly and says that he is going to have it stuffed to be used as evidence in the suit he is going to start against George Gribble of the ice company.

Comptroller Again Cites Instances of Usury by the Banks

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 .- In reply to riticisms of the American Bankers' association in connection with his declaration that many national banks charge vaurious interest rates, John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, issued a statement tonight again giving in atsness of such practices.

Mr. Williams said it was true that a majority of the national banks obeyed usury laws of the various states, but that the reports rendered to him showed. as he announced in speeches and previous public statements, that this was far from being universally true.

The only states where there were no national banks which admitted under cath in their statements of September 2, 1915, that they were charging as high as 13 per cent on any of their loans were Connecticut, Delaware, Mississippi, New Lampahire, Rhode Island, Vermont and Wisconsin," said the statement. It added that reports of September 2, 1915, showed that 2.743 of the 7,613 national banks of the country were charging 10 per cent on

Mr. Williams suggested that hereafter national banks be required to print in their published statements of condition the maximum rate of interest charged. He expressed the hope that the association would work with the comptroller's
