

Council Bluffs Social Activities For the Week

The N. O. N. club will give a dance at the Grand hotel on Monday evening, December 7.

Mr. Charles Denn and Miss Mabel Nuzum were married Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of St. John's Lutheran church by Rev. C. J. Ringer.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Shaw, 40 Gould avenue, Morningside, left Monday for Houston, Tex., where they will spend the winter. They expect to remain south until April 1.

Miss Ruth Wickham went to Lincoln, Neb., Friday and is the guest of Mrs. M. Davitt Harrett. A number of social events are being planned in honor of Miss Wickham during her stay in Lincoln.

Friday afternoon the members of the Council Bluffs Woman's club held a reception at the home of Mrs. F. W. Miller on Oakland avenue. Members of the history and literature department were the hostesses and Mrs. Wallace Wheeler gave a most delightful musical program.

The November meeting of St. Paul's guild was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Green. The meeting was largely attended and the time was devoted to the various business matters. Two of the chapters are planning a bazaar. After the business meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. E. Cunningham, a prominent ranchman of Idaho Falls, Idaho, and Miss Rose M. Kramer of Sioux City, were married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock by the Rev. C. J. Ringer at the parsonage of St. John's English Lutheran church. Mr. Cunningham is a well known ranchman of Idaho Falls and an old time friend of Mr. Ringer.

Mrs. Paul Anders entertained the members of the Sorosis club at 509 Wednesday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. Mrs. Anders won the club prize for high score. Mrs. William Seymour won the second prize and Mrs. L. R. Trotter the "out-for-all." Mrs. Fred Rupencamp, Mrs. A. B. Wright, Mrs. A. Leffingwell and Mrs. J. H. Mayfield, were club guests.

The Rockford College association met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hale Bixby in Omaha. Mrs. Bixby was assisted by her sister and Miss Redwick and Miss Buck. Representatives were present from Omaha, Council Bluffs and Blair. In January a luncheon will be given at the University club, when a large number of present Rockford college students will be present.

Dr. and Mrs. George A. Ray of the Second Presbyterian church entertained the members of the season and their wives at a 6 o'clock dinner Saturday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Albaugh of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan, Mr. W. H. Green, Dr. and Mrs. Arvid and the Misses Anna and Myra Hutchinson.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance union was held Wednesday afternoon at the public library. The organization decided to emphasize the plan for non-traffic prayer which was adopted at present by the white ribboners. Plans for furthering the suffrage campaign were also discussed. Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Evans were appointed members of a committee to assist Mrs. Pelton, who has charge of the medical contest.

The sons and daughters of Emanuel Kline helped him celebrate his eighty-fourth birthday Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. Grote, 317 Benton street. In the family of eleven children, seven of whom are daughters, there have been but two deaths. All of the children were unable to be present Sunday, as some live in California and others in Illinois. The family party Sunday was a most delightful one, the reunion being especially enjoyed by the guest of honor.

Morningside chapter of St. Paul's guild met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Read on Frank street. The time was spent completing the work for the annual bazaar. Central chapter, which combines with Morningside chapter in the Christmas sale, met Tuesday afternoon for work at the home of Mrs. W. L. Douglas. At both meetings an afternoon of sewing and planning was followed by dainty refreshments served by the hostess.

The three Endeavor societies of the First Christian church, united in a party held Monday evening in the church parlors. The event is to be made an annual affair. The party was largely attended and interesting games and stunts had been arranged for the evening. A newspaper containing jokes involving a number of those present furnished much amusement and various other games were greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served after the program.

Members of the Ideal club formed a matinee party at the Orpheum theater Tuesday afternoon, the affair being planned to take the place of the monthly social meeting. The hostesses were: Mrs. T. E. Cavin, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. A. O. Goodman, Mrs. George F. Spooner, Mrs. C. E. Swanson and Mrs. W. B. Richards. The next meeting of the club will be held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. S. Terwilliger, the last meeting before the holidays.

The Atlas club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. T. True. The program opened with a discussion of current events led by Mrs. O. D. Wheeler. In connection with the study of Australia, Mrs. J. T. Hamilton told of the aborigines, and also outlined political and economical conditions in that country. The next meeting of the club will be held December 7 at the home of Mrs. Lyman Shugart and will be the last meeting until after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Trotter entertained the members of the East End Card club at their home on Wednesday evening. The time was devoted to cards and the prizes for high scores were won by Mrs. Grover DeBar and Mr. Leslie Kirkpatrick. Consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. G. Williams and Mr. Arlington H. Wright. Mrs. Wright won the cut-for-all. Supper was served after the game. The next meeting of the club will be held December 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

The Christmaseven class of the Second Presbyterian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. George A. Ray on Monday evening. Mrs. Ray was assisted by Miss Jennie Thrush, Miss Nellie Ingraham and Miss Christine Borenson. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Miss Mabel Senor; vice president, M. Maude Williams; secretary, Miss Frances Flood; treasurer, Miss Marguerite Flecher. The time was most pleasantly spent with fancy work and conversation and refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. C. F. Mewer entertained the members of the Fortnightly Table club at 1:30 luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her home on Harrison street. Sixteen members and several guests were present and a delightful three-course luncheon was served in buffet style. The afternoon hours were spent in sewing and visiting, nearly all of the women being busy with Christmas work. The club will be entertained December 15, at the home of Mrs. Joseph, at which time the members will have their annual exchange of gifts and enjoy a Christmas party.

Miss Hazel Wild entertained at luncheon Saturday afternoon, at which time the announcement was made of the engagement of her sister, Miss Iva Wild, to Mr. Ray Barnett, who lives near Weston. The table was most attractive with decorations of roses and cupid made appropriate place cards. The guests were Miss Helen Grote, Miss Ethel Stupfel, Miss Marion Stupfel, Miss Ruth Sharpe, Miss Virgie Wild, Miss Carolyn Thomas, Miss Abbie Wild, Miss Etiele Wild, Miss Kathryn Bell, Miss Theresa Jensen, Miss Katherine Barnett, Miss Dora Anderson, Miss Grace Starnam and Miss Iva Wild.

The members of the McPherson Avenue improvement club were entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. McPherson. The affair was a luncheon planned in honor of two of the members, Mrs. P. E. Dunbar, who moves to Omaha to spend the winter, and Mrs. A. B. Payton, who plans to spend the cold months in California. The table was most prettily decorated with red roses, red favors and red-ribbed candies. Covers were laid for ten. After luncheon a few matters of business were discussed, the club having several plans in view for future work. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Askwith, after which the club will take a recess until after the holidays.

The Booklovers met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. F. Whitehead and continued the study of George Eliot. The club has been studying "Middlemarch," completing the book Wednesday afternoon. Miss Rice gave a most interesting paper discussing the character of Ladislaw and the manner in which it was influenced by England's political conditions and also took up the ethical teachings contained in "Middlemarch." Mrs. A. M. Jackson followed with a criticism of the Rolle episode and an analysis of George Eliot's use of mystery. The program closed with a reading by Mrs. D. W. Otis of a selection from "Adam Bede." The club will meet with Mrs. Whitehead again next Wednesday afternoon and will finish the course on George Eliot with "Mill on the Floss."

A large number of people attended the reception given Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. F. Wilcox, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Nethercut of the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church. A general invitation was extended to the congregation and their friends to come and meet the new pastor and his wife and the occasion was a most enjoyable one. An informal musical program was given under the direction of Dr. Claude P. Lewis. Dr. Lewis and Mrs. J. E. McCarger sang several duets and other numbers were given by members of the choir. Mrs. Dollie Burgess gave a most enjoyable reading and responded to an enthusiastic encore. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers. Punch was served throughout the evening, a number of young women of the church presiding.

The home economics department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Arrighi. The meeting was well attended and in response to roll

Furs Cleaned

White or colored, fur collars, muffs or coats, we clean and make them soft and bright as new.

We guarantee perfect work, and are responsible in case of loss by fire or theft. Repeated cleaning does not injure white furs—send them often; also send us your Seal or Mink garments; you probably do not realize how much soil and germs they contain.

PRICES: White Muff and Collar, $1.25 to $1.50. Colored Muff and Collar, $1.00 to $1.50. Children's Muff and Collar, 50c to 75c. Seal or Mink Coats, $2.50 to $3.50. White Coats, $2.50 to $3.00.

You can't get better work than we do anywhere or at any price. Send us a trial order along with your other cleaning.

call each member gave a suggestive menu for a Christmas dinner. Mrs. J. Sullivan gave a most interesting paper on an article from the Civic magazine, entitled, "The Relation of the Woman's club to the American City." Mrs. Paul Kodwela read an article from the current number of Good Housekeeping, on "Woolens," and Mrs. H. W. Clark gave a review of the latest Mothers' magazine. Miss Fern Baker gave two piano solos. Miss Mary McMillan gave a demonstration of Christmas candy. An interesting guessing contest had been arranged by the hostess and provided much entertainment, after which luncheon was served. Mrs. Arrighi was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. V. Mallory, Mrs. W. A. Johnson and Miss McMillan. Miss Marjorie Mayne, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mayne, celebrated her third birthday Wednesday. A number of her little friends were invited from 4 to 6 o'clock to assist in the celebration. All sorts of delightful amusements were provided for the children, one of the most popular being the big card table in the library. A fish pond aided in the distribution of fascinating mechanical toys and snappers furnished quaint and pretty caps which the small folks wore when they marched into the dining room for a tasty tea. The guests were seated at small tables, gay with red candles and yellow chrysanthemums. Miniature Santa Claus made popular favors and each child proudly bore home a big balloon. The menu had been carefully planned with regard to the preference of the young guests and the permission of their mothers and the supper hour was one of the keener enjoyment to the children. The invited guests were Jean Van Brunt, Barbara Van Brunt, Janet Emplke, Patricia Voland, Dorothy Wadsworth, Mary Jane Heiser, Helen Gerner, Tyler O'Connor, Winifred Tinley, Mary Wallace, Janet Schoentgen, Frances Riker, Elizabeth Cutler, Arne Woodward, Bernard Wickham, Wilson Wallace, Jack Everett, Franklin Wilcox, Billy Brainerd, Charles Finney, Burton Hadley, Warren Filbert, Jack Cutler, Frederick Damon, Robert Tinley and Richard Holst. The regular meeting of the art department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club was held Monday evening at the public library. Miss Mittie Pile acted as leader and the evening was devoted to the study of the Canterbury cathedral which proved most interesting. Mrs. Burgess gave the history of the famous cathedral, known also as St. Augustine's church and as Idestone to the pilgrims on account of the shrine of Thomas a Becket, in which Gothic and perpendicular predominate.

Dresher Bros.' New Plant Now Going Up, Is Concrete Gem of Architectural Ingenuity.

Built to Meet the Exact Demands of the Workers Who Are to Occupy It. Finest Cleaning Plant in America.

Get your ideas of contrast together! Contrast the establishments of the ordinary "Cleaners and Dyers" of a few years ago, with those of today! Remember, don't you, when most of them did business in a single store room, a room, we will say, about the size of your usual corner grocery.

Then, came the really ambitious cleaners who would occupy a sort of a one or two-story building of their own—and—then came "Dreshers." Dresher Brothers' first building was larger by far than any other cleaning establishment in Omaha, and now—

But, why bring up history? Dresher Brothers, however, would appreciate it if you were to stop and look at their latest building as you ride by. It's certainly worth while. Tall, roomy, built entirely of concrete; replete with every device and comfort suggested by years of "dry cleaning" experience.

Just wait. Wait and see it completed. Then the surprises will come.

To make a long story short Dresher's new Cleaning building, directly west of their present quarters at 211-213 Farnam St., is the largest, finest equipped and latest designed of any in the United States devoted exclusively to the Cleaning and Dyeing art. And Dresher's new building to the south is the only one of the sort in Omaha devoted exclusively to Rug Cleaning, Curtain Renovating, etc. You'll hear more of both of these buildings in a short time when all is complete.

In the meantime get in your holiday and winter work. Phone Tylor 345 for one of those hustling Dresher Delivery wagons. Or, leave your work at the plant, 211-213 Farnam St., at the Dresher Branches in Burgess-Nash Co. Store, or Brandeis Store, or at the Dresher Tailor establishment, 1515 Farnam St.

And oh, yes! The out of town folks. Dreshers cater for them and take care of them as well as though they were right here in Omaha; in fact Dreshers pay express or parcel post charges one way on any sized bundle to any point in America.
