

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Receipts Are Good and Most of the Sales Are Made at Advanced Prices.

QUALITY OF NEW CORN POOR

The cash wheat market was strong again today and advanced about a cent. The receipts of this cereal were pretty heavy and a good percentage of it was sold at advanced prices.

Corn sold on unchanged to a cent lower. About fifty cars of corn were received today, but as most of it was from new and being very immature there was hardly any demand for it.

Oats receipts were comparatively light, and the demand for this cereal was quite fair. The receipts ranging from unchanged to a cent higher.

Barley was quoted normally unchanged. Clearances were: Wheat, 400,000 bushels; corn, 20,000 bushels; oats, 4,000 bu.
