HAYWARD WILL GET JOB M'CALL LOST

Whitman to Name Him as Temporary Head of Public Service Board.

REMOVAL ORDER IS IN EFFECT

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Tammany's last candidate for mayor of New York, Edward E. McCall, a former justice of the supreme court of New York, was tonight removed from office as chairman of the Downstate Public Service commission by Governor Whitman, who sustained, in part, the charges preferred against the commissioner by the Thompson Investigating committee of the legislature. The governor's decision was that McCall, in violation of the Public Service commission law, owned stock of a corporation under the supervision of his commission. Other charges alleging neglect of duty and inefficiency, were dismissed.

The order removing McCall was signed by Governor Whitman at 7 o'clock tonight and became effective at once.

The governor said that tomorrow he would designate Commissioner William Hayward of New York as the temporary chairman and that at the same time he probably would appoint a commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by McCall's removal. McCall had two more years to serve.

Nebraska friends of William Hayward have been watching the progress of events in New York with decided interest. In scarcely more than five years since he left Nebraska he has held several important positions under Governor Whitman, the present place being one at the very front of the firing line.

Welfare Board to Kansas City to Get Information

J. S. Walters, T. F. Sturgess and J. A. Rine of the Welfare board will leave Thursday evening for Kansas City, where they will investigate the operations of the Welfare board of that city and will report back at a meeting to be held in the city hall next Monday evening.

At a meeting of the board in the city attorney's office last evening discussion was had on various features of the work upon which the board will enter, particular thought being given to employment bureau, legal aid and a loan agency.

It was proposed to co-operate with the Associated Charities by establishing a clearing house through which a check may be maintained on all cases of aid.

The work test was approved in connection with an employment bureau which will be established. In a few weeks the board will decide on the amount to be asked when the city council makes up the 1916 budget.

Omaha Contractors Bid for Bank Job

Six Omaha building contractors were among those who yesterday submitted their bids to the architects, Graham & Burnham of Chicago, for the construction of the proposed fourteen-story First National bank building. Contractors from St. Louis, Kansas City and Memphis, Tenn., also submitted bids.

The sub-basement is omitted in the revised specifications. Bids were received once before, and because most of them were considered quite high, or at least reached a higher figure than it had been believed necessary to expend on the structure, the plans were sent back for revision.

The award of the contract will probably be announced some time this week. The Omaha contractors bidding are: John Harte, J. C. Mardis, E. O. Hamilton, Walter Peterson, F. P. Gould & Son, and Robert Butke.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Receipts Are Heavy and Prices Range from Unchanged to Cent Higher.

YELLOW CORN AT A PREMIUM

OMAHA, December 7, 1915.

The wheat receipts were quite heavy today and the demand for this cereal continued quite active, the market ranging from unchanged to 1c higher.

The corn market continued strong today and although the receipts were pretty good, the demand was sufficient to take care of the offerings. Corn sold from ½c to 1½c higher, the yellow selling at a substantial premium over the white and mixed varieties.

Oats were firm, selling from ½c to ¾c higher. Receipts of this cereal were light and there was a fair demand.

The demand for rye was pretty good, but the market was weak and sold from ½c to 1c lower.

There were no sales of barley reported, but the market was quoted nominally 2c higher.

Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 1,104,000 bushels; oats, 5,000 bushels.

Wheat at Liverpool closed 1@2¼d higher; corn, 1½d higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 2,645,000 bushels and shipments 2,181,000 bushels, against receipts of 1,621,000 bushels and shipments of 1,359,000 bushels last year.

Primary corn receipts were 862,000 bushels and shipments 436,000 bushels, against receipts of 2,155,000 bushels and shipments of 916,000 bushels last year.

Primary oats receipts were 897,000 bushels and shipments 529,000 bushels, against receipts of 1,062,000 bushels and shipments of 832,000 bushels last year.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Bearish estimates in regard to the amount of domestic wheat of sufficient quality for milling did a good deal today to bring about a setback in prices. The market closed unsettled, but 2@2½c to 2¾c net lower, with December at $1.16¾ and May at $1.17¾@1.17⅞. In corn the outcome varied from ⅛@¾c decline to ⅜@½c advance, oats finishing ⅛@¼c to ¼c off and provisions showing a rise of 30c to 55c.

Wheat had been weak and strong by turns until late in the session. One of the largest houses on change made public elaborate figures indicating that the millable crop of the United States aggregated 963,000,000 bushels. News of the further requisitioning of steamers by the Italian government tended also to act in favor of the bears. The final setback, however, was not brought about until for the third day in succession the market had reached above all previous high price records of the 1915 crop.

Falling off in the world's available supply aggregate, with the decrease almost wholly in Europe, was the chief news on which the wheat market ascended to the top point of the day.

Corn, as well as wheat, advanced to new high prices for this season. Receipts were not as plentiful as had been expected.

Oats followed the course of other cereals. A large increase of stocks attracted some notice.

Provisions were sharply affected by reports that Germany was buying lard and pork. Big receipts of hogs were ignored, and the market ascended to about the highest prices yet this season.
