Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Larger country offerings in the northwest finally gave the advantage to the bears today in wheat after the market had passed through many more ups and downs than usual. Prices finished weak, %one to 1%c and May at $1.18%. Corn closed 4c to 46%c and provisions varying from 15c decline to a rise of 35c.

sions varying from 10c decline to a rise of 13c.

Wheat values underwent right, at the start a setback in consequence of lower quotations from Liverpool and because of bearish erop advices from Australia and Argentins. A sharp rally ensued, however, influenced to some extent by bull sh estimates regarding the decrease in the acreage of winter wheat seeded in the United States. Afterward the market fluctuated rapidly within a range of $\frac{1}{2}$c, but not for any long time favoring either the opponents or the friends of an advance as compared with yesterday's latest figures. the opponents or the triends of an advance as compared with yesterday's latest figures.

European demand for wheat assumed larger proportions than has recently been the case, the amounts purchased today aggregating 70,000 bushels, but most of the total was say to be at 3c under the Chicago May price, the widest discount so far on the 1915 crop.

Corn received good support, but failed to overcome the bearish effect of the breaks in the wheat market.

Price changes in oats appeared to be governed almost wholly by the action of other cereals. Elevator stocks here were increasing.

Provisions ranged higher all day except just at the close, when buying power seemed to have become at least temporarily exhausted.

slow and weak.

A few pretty good cows with the general run of canners sold early at prices that were about steady, but the demand on that basis was limited, and the market so far as the good grades were concerned closed about like yesterday's low and mean close.

It is almost trade opened out pretty dull, although most of the sales made during the early part of the foremoon looked pretty close to stacedy with the general narket yeaterday. That means that soothandy-weight lambs are nearly stoady with Monday, while common or beavy kinds show a Neglis decline as compared with the darly sales of desirable-weight satisfactions of the lambs were cleared at prices that while generally quoted mostly steady, undoubtedly showed an easier tendency. Sulk of the sales was attiff down to 83.5 and a few small bunches of real heavy native lambs from $3.00 down.

There was a big supply of ewes here today, compared to the size of total receipts, and prices showed a lower tong-comparist from the start. A few hunches $3.605.75 and did not look to be over 1005 to 100 to 100
