Overcoats--High Mark in Value-Giving

Established 1780

Every man that buys an overcoat Saturday is assured the very utmost of value in correctly fashioned, superbly tailored garments. Not in a long time has the giant power of this largest retail clothing organization in the country been so evident. Not in so many months has even Brandeis offered such uncommon values as these styles that accord to the latest word fashion tailoring, that measure the talents and skill of America's best clothes artisans.

We bought this splendid lot of fine overcoats at what we consider an exceptionally low price, and we propose to give our men customers full advantage of it. Their style and quality are beyond question; they are worth from $25.00 to $35.00, and all on sale Saturday at one price.

Overcoats in every desired weight and length, in Vicunas, Shetlands, Kerseys, Chinchillas and Scotch Tweeds, in single and double-breasted styles. Velvet or self-collars. The new Balmoral with velvet or self-collar. Chesterfields, double breasted Ulsters with storm collar; some full silk lined, others silk yoke and sleeves; some with Skinner satin and serge lining. Sizes for men and young men.

DORCHESTER, MASS.

STOVES COME JUST From Our Near Neighbors WHEN MOST NEEDED Springfield.

George White and family visited friends Nine Heating Stoves Given Charities Response to Request Through The Bee.

MATTRESSES ALSO SUPPLIED

Mrs. George Doane, secretary of the Associated Charities, is elated over the receipt of nine heating sloves in response to a request for one stove in The Bee Thursday. She states she has found places for all the stoves and wishes the donors might be able to see the joy that has been added to desolate homes. In most cases the charities furnished ccal.

Secretary Doane also received a supply of mattresses and clothing, for which good use has been found. "I would like to add that there are many demands for good shoes, stockings and clothing at this time. May I suggest that we would like to furnish the names of families who are worthy and who are in need of the payment of a month's rent or a ton of coal. Wouldn't a ton of coal make a nice Christmas present?" asked the secretary.

In one of the cases where a stove was sent this week the mother thad an infant and several small children. The father was away looking for work, the wife said.
