Italy, Ireland, Sweden, Denmark and Bohemia Are Already Placed in Prince's Tug-o'-War.

WILL BE HELD IN JANUARY

Five teams have already sent in their signed entries for the big international tug-of-war which will be staged at the Auditorium January 3 to 9, inclusive, by Jack Prince, who staged a pull in Omaha twenty-five years ago at the Collseum. Sweden, Denmark, Ireland, Bohemia and Italy are the teams entered up to date. Prince expects to have the remaining three teams entered within the next three

The teams now entered have already started to practice and they will work constantly until the week of the event. Some of the teams have as many as 100 candidates and many preliminary pulls to decide the members of the teams will be held. At Fraternal hall Friday night over 100 Bohemians were out after posi-tions for the Bohemian team.

Each of the men entered must over 180 pounds. This is one of the require ments. Starting next week Prince will supervise all practices so that he will be sure the pulling crews learn how to use the slatted pulling platforms and the Prince has already scheduled his program, for the opening night, January 3. The opposing teams will be as follows:

Four Pulls Each Night. America against England. Italy against Germany Denmark against Ireland

Sweden against Bohemia.

All teams will pull each of the sever nights. Each nation will face each other once. Four matches will be staged every night. The team winning the most heats professionals, will tour America during will be declared the winner. The team winning the second greatest number of heats will get second money, and so on. Prince reports that the total prize money for the winning teams will aggregate around $5,000.

In addition the victors will get a silver cup eighteen inches high. This cup will blematic of the tug-of-war championship of the world and the team winning it must be prepared to meet all challengers. ### Two Omaha Clubs May Ask for Clay Court Tennis Play

There is a possibility that two Omaha clubs may bid for the 1916 National Clay Court Tennis tournament. The Field club has already announced it will make application for the big event and there is a report current in tennis circles that the Happy Hollow club may do the same thing. The Happy Hollow club intends to install three new courts in the spring, making a total of seven, the same number the Field club has, and as a result may ask for the national tourney.

SMITH TAKEN ILL: DATES CANCELLED

Crack Tenpin Artist Cut Out All Dates and Caused Lot of Disappointment.

MUCH DOING ON THE ALLEYS

Failure of Jimmy Smith, world's champion bowler, and his partner, Alex Dunbar, to appear on the Huntington runways Thursday was a disappointment to the local bowling enthusiasts, who were anxious to see these two stars in action. Early rumor had it that the two ten-pin artists had had a disagreement, which caused all dates to be cancelled, but later developments brought out that Smith was taken sick, and as he was the chief attraction of the pair, the remaining exhibitions were declared off.

The long series of exhibition matches had been a success throughout the journey. The pair won most of their matches. scores were good and rarge crowds witnesed their performances. They were scheduled to appear in Kansas City, St. Joseph, St. Louis, Peoria, Indianapolis, Louisville and Dayton.

Plenty of Rolling. There was plenty of excitement around the local drives to keep the pin-tumblers busy throughout the week. The Farnam and Brunswick merry-go-round tournaments are drawing lots of play and competition. Joe Berger's Christmas prize ontest is also keeping the Morrison drives busy. The big event of the week was Dad Huntington's mixed down-andout tournament Friday night. Sixteen couples entered the series and rolled elimination contests. The success of the first one was so complete that another will be staged during the week.

All the league races are exciting, especially that of the Omaha league. All the teams are bunched up in the standings and became more so last week when all the second division teams won their series from the first division squads. The Gate City, Boster and Magic City class A organizations are pulling off good races.
