Farming Colony

Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

PANAMA, Dec. 10 .- A start in the colonization of the San Blas or forbidden cast of Panama has been made in conformity with recent agreements made between the San Blas Indians and the government of the republic. President Porras had granted a concession to James M.

Hyatt, an American of Colon, to establish a large farming colony on the shores of Mandinga bay, about fifty miles east

The contract grants Mr. Hyatt thirty hectares of land on which the new town is to be built. Immediately adjacent to the town site there are 5,000 hectares, or 13.500 acres, of good agricultural lands that will be sold to the colonists at very reasonable rates. This is to be sold in ten and twenty-hectare tracts at prices fixed by the government. The town lots are to be sold under the same conditions.

The land is located on the western edge of the forbidden coast and lies along the shores of Mandinga bay where the San Blas Indians are the most friendly to foreigners. The farm lands are in the valley of Navandi river and are said to be very

This will be the first serious effort to open this coast to settlement by foreigners. It has been closed since the early at $1.20%. Corn wound up with a Sain of $4 to $46% c and cats of 146% to $4c. In provisions the outcome ranged from 2% decline to a rise of 15017%. Unexpected strength at Liverpool gave the wheat market here an upward swing right at the outset. British cables, in-stead of reflecting to any extent the previous day's break on this side of the Atlantic showed a tightening of values, and told of increasing scarcity and of a prospect that world shipments this woek other than from America would be dis-appointingly small. Estimates of export business in wheat generally ran above 1,00,000 bushels, chiefly hard winter grades to go by way of the Guif of Mexico. Corn rose with wheat, and touched a new high price record for this season's crop. French Censor Puts the Ban on All Green Envelopes (Correspondence of the Associated Press. LONDON, Nov. 30 .- The heartlessness of the red tape system is shown in a letter written by a mother to one of the London papers, who instead of a letter from her soldier son, now in the trenches, received the following typewritten notice from the military censor: "Letter dostroyed. This patern tof envelope is obsolete, and its use is forbidden." Lately is was decided that the green
