Hundreds of Packages of Substantial Articles of Food Distributed Among the Poor.

HITCH IN THE WORK

Today will be observed as a holiday in Council Bluffs. All public buildings and offices will be closed and business will stores, butcher shops and provision depots will be closed all day and there will be few, if any, of the retail stores open-Every poor family in Council Bluffs should be provided with the materials for a Christmas dinner. Nover has there been a more aystematic effort made to search out the needy. There has been an abundance to relieve for the time being their necessities. Every charitable organization in the city has been at work and the private efforts have been unusually extensive and hearty. The methods followed fave indisystematic cated by the work of many of the churches. Christmas trees were proided last night for the Sunday school pupils and wagonloads of toys and pretty gifts were distributed among the children, but there were gifts of a much more substantial character.

One of the classes in the Epworth Methodist Sunday school bought fifty sacks of flour and distributed them yes REAL ESTATE-MISCELLANEOUS terday among families that required aid. Other classes purchased coffee, tea and crimination. All of the generous aid ton, Kan., today, according to a tele-given was confined to the territory gram received here. Dr. Scott as born York Giants to the Brooklyn Feds. drawn upon for the membership of the church.

The municipal Christmas tree was another huge affair. The services of a half dozen extra automobiles were required to deliver the more than 200 boxes and packages that constituted the gifts. Here are some of the articles placed in the boxes:

Five pounds of roast beef or pork, peck of potatoes, peck of apples, three pounds of beans, two cans of corn, two cans of hominy, two cans of sweet potatoes, two large cans of condensed milk, three pounds of sugar, one pound of coffee, two cans of peaches, pound of butter one dozen oranges, nuts, candy and figs. Many of the boxes contained small packages of flour, oatmeal and corn-

At 4 o'clock all but three of the packages were out and at nightfall nearly everyone engaged in the delivery had completed their work. Little difficulty was encountered in finding the addresses and getting the right packages at the proper places. The municipal Santa Claus this year set a new record, and all of the work was done with order, speed

Koehler Tells of Assault that He Made Upon Lubben

So far as his clouded brain retained the impressions connected with the drunken fight that ended in the death of John Lubben, John Koehler yesterday related to County Attorney Swanson all he could remember of the tragedy at Treynor Wednesday night and the discovery of the dead body of Lubben Thursday morning Lubben apparently withheld nothing. In addition to striking his friend and companion in the head with a hammer he admitted that he followed up the attack and beat the prostrate and helpless man with a heavy billet of wood. Assistant County Attorney Jackson and Sheriff Groneweg went to Treynor yesterday and made a survey of the situation. sketching the scene and getting all of the information known about the affray by the people of the village. It coincided and confirmed the previous published account. but established the fact that the fight had occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and that Lubben died about ? o'clock in the evening. A young woman was found who saw Lubben lying in the doorway of the house occupied by Koehler and Hintse, and that Koehler was beating Lubben over the back and shoulders with a club, telling him to get up and go home." She heard Lubben noan and cry out, "Oh. John! John!"
