QUESTION SANITY OF MAN WHO THREATENS CHILDREN

W. E. Meyers, 1921 South Fifty-first street, charged with abusing his wife and seven children, is being held at headquarters for an examination as to his sanity. Among other throas he is said to have threatened his children's life innumerable times with a butcher knife, beaten his wife, and when she washed the kitchen floor he would come from work and empty the contents of the coffee pot all over it.

PAWNS WATCH HAS FRIEND PINCHED FOR THE THEFT

Chester Hollister of Sloux City had his friend, Frank Quinn, of the Keystone hotel, arcested for stealing his watch. In police court Hollister reached in his pocket for a toothpick and found pawnbroker's card for the timepiece. He had pawned the watch while in his cups. Both men left the court room after Hollister had received a few remarks from the judge.
