THE GIRL AND THE GAME

This is a story of railroads, of high financial trickery, of the love of a beautiful young girl and her fight for a fortune. The story was written by Frank H. Spearman, the noted author of "Whispering Smith," "Nan of Music Mountain," etc., and is now appearing in leading newspapers. The motion picture version of this story has been produced by the Signal Film Corporation. Half a million dollars have been expended to produce this photoplay. The fearless film star-Helen Holmes-is featured. Read the story! See the motion pictures! Ask the manager of your favorite theatre when "The Girl and The Game" will be shown.
