Amateur Champ Is Taken Under Gene Melady's Wing and He Challenges 'Em All.

ISSUES DEFI TO ADOLPH ERNST

Earl Caddock, champion amateur wres tier of the United States, was in Omaha yesterday and made arrangements with Gene Melady to handle his matches for him. He says that he is now in the professional ranks and will meet anybody of his size in the country, bar none. He is a light heavyweight.

Ernst is the recognized leader in that section of the ladder, and Caddock says he will meet Ernst as soon as a match can be arranged.

Melady says that he will find no trouble in arranging matches for Caddock, as the lad is always in condition and does not bar anyone. He does not claim to be in the class of Frank Gotch or Joe Stecher, but outside of these two he will

They Say Amateur Is Man Who Sports Just for Love of It

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.-The conference elegates from sport-governing bodies agreed that an amateur sportsman is one who engages in sport solely for the pleasure and physical, mental, moral and so-tial benefits that he derives therefrom and to whom sport is nothing more than an avocation. By competing or giving an exhibition in any of these sports un-der an assumed name, or by being guilty of any fraud or any other grossly un-aportamanlike conduct in connection therewith it was decided the penalty should be disbarment for life from amateur eligibility of any person guilty of any infringement of the rule,

For other infractions of the rules such as receiving pay or pecuniary benefits consideration of, or as a reward for participating in any public athletic com-petition or exhibition or deposing of prizes personal gain? the offender shall never thereafter be permitted to compete or exhibit as an amateur in the space or sports in which such act was com

Asked if he objected to the prayers of the Catholic clergy being sought for the success of the Sunday campaign, the cardinal replied that he had no objection. It was the inference drawn from Dr. Peck's public statement that permission had been given to send letters to Catholic clergy, to which the cardinal said he objected. The Catholic church, he said, could not in any way recognize Mr. Sunday as a divinely commi teacher of revelation.
