Wedding Plans.

TOUCH of merry old England is brought to Brownell Hall this afternoon in the celebration of Twelfth Night.

Twelfth Night is often called "Little Christmas," and commemorates the adoration of the Magi. One of the old customs attaching to the feast is the burning of all the Christmas greens and decorations.

The Brownell Hall celebration is conducted in strict observance to all the old tradition and usages of the Middle Ages in the British Isles.

After Epiphany service in the chapel, and the serving of luncheon, the party followed in the gymnasium of the Hall. The king and queen of the ending year, Miss Jeanette Johnson and Miss Rowena Pixley, are deposed by the new royal pair for the coming year. The Twelfth Night cake was brought in by the younger students of the school, dressed as medieval cooks, and the one getting the slice of cake containing the ring becomes king and chooses his (her) queen.

One of the interesting things of the program are the old English carols, sung by the students, including "The First Noel," "Good King Wencelas," "We Three Kings of the Orient Are."

Mogy Bernstein is the first member of Ak-Sar-Ben for the year 1916. Is that nothing to be proud of? Well, just try it some year, and see how hard it is to get this number. You have got to get up in the wee, chilly hours of the morn to be the first to pay your annual dues.

No. 1 of the 1914 membership was sold, No. 1 of the 1915 membership was already sold, and No. 1 of the 1916 membership was forthwith reserved for Mogy. For one year, two months and seventeen days that check lay in the safe at Samson's office. The other day it was fished out and cashed, with the result that Bernstein has his bright, shining membership certificate, with the great seal of Samson upon it. Immediately other memberships becan

Succumbs to Illness By Dr. Miles, the Great Specialist, Who sends a New $2.75 Treatment Free. Many Cured After Others Failed.

DROPSY TREATED FREE

At first no disease is apparently more harmless than dropsy; a little swelling of the eyelids, hands, feet, ankles or abdomen. Finally there is great shortness of breath, cough, faint spells, sometimes nauses and vomiting, even bursting of the limbs and a lingering and wretched death if the dropsy is not removed.

Dr. Miles has been I hown as a leading specialist in these diseases for 30 years. His liberal offer of a $3.75 treatment free to all sufferers is cortainly worthy of serious consideration. You may never have such an opportunity again.

The Grand Dropsy Treatment consists of four dropsy remedies in one, also Tonic Tablets and Furs-Laxa for removing the water. This treatment is specially prepared for each patient and is three times as successful as that of most physicians. It usually relieves the first day, and removes swelling in six days in most cases. #### Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good ondition, be careful what you wash it

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much aikali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified coccanut oil (which is pure and entirely grease-less), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves t fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut off at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.-Ad-

St. Distaff's Day at Kilpatrick's

"Yule's come and Yule's gane, And we hae feasted weel: Sae Jock mun to his flail again, And Jenny to her wheel."

Our forbears when they feasted, feasted right heartily, but when the jollity was over, they were ever ready to take up the daily cares and responsibilities of life with a vim. The church was wise in its day and generation, for it realized that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." But none the less the need was felt for a limit to fun and feasting—and so the twelfth day came as the end of the Christmas season of joy. And Saint Distaff's day was originated to mark the return to routine again.

We would celebrate ST. DISTAFF'S DAY with many special offerings, so that you may feel repaid for visiting us on that date.
