DEMOCRATS PLAN BIG TIME AT FEAST

Many Tickets Being Sold for Celebration to Be Held Next Tuesday.

MAY IS OUT FOR DELEGATE

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
 LINCOLN, Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Tickets for the democratic editorial dinner which will be held next Tuesday evening at the Lincoln city auditorium are going rapidly and already over 60 have been disposed of. The banquet will be served by Landlord Johnson of the Lindell hotel which insures a bang up affair. Mr. Johnson has agreed to throw in an orchestra for good measure and when democratic politicians are not trying to make speeches music will enliven the occasion.
 The committee wants it distinctly understood that while the feast is given under the auspices of the democratic press association no republican will be barred provided he has the dollar to buy a ticket. They guarantee he will get his money's worth from the program and the feed will be thrown in. Candidates for state and congressional nomination on the democratic ticket will comprise the speakers with possibly one or two of the big fellows thrown in as a sort of star. The program will not be announced until the time comes to announce the batteries.
May Likely to Be Candidate.
 W. C. May of Gothenburg was in Lincoln for as long time today on his way home from a trip to Omaha. Mr. May announced that he expected to be a candidate for the republican nomination for delegate to the national convention from the Sixth district. He has been one of the leading republicans of that section for many years and feels that he is entitled to a chance to represent the district in the convention which will nominate the next president.
Pollard Making Canvass.
 E. M. Pollard of Nehawka, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, was in Lincoln a short time yesterday. He is filling several dates at farmers' institutes, speaking at Hubbard, Bruning, Culbertson and Pleasantdale already this week and in Fairmont today.

CONTRACTORS SEE COUNTY

The State Board of Irrigation has received notice that the contractors who built the state aid bridge at Scott's Bluff are suing the county for the balance due on the bridge from that county. State Engineer Johnson is sending a man to Scott's Bluff today with the plans drawn by his department to be used as evidence in the case.

Morrow Visits Lincoln.

J. C. Morrow, receiver of the Alliance land office, called at the state house today. He was appointed by President Wilson and was one of the first to get in through the political barbed wire obstructions put up by the opposing factions of the democratic party. He landed May 1 of last year.

CHERRY COUNTY DEMOCRATS ENJOYING LOVELY QUARREL

VALENTINE, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The political sensation of the hour in north Nebraska democratic politics is the withdrawal of J. C. Quigley of this place from the race for the appointment as register of the United States land office at Valentine. Judge Quigley, who is a young man active in local politics, secured an inside track on the endorsement of Senator Hitchcock by soliciting endorsements from prominent democrats even before the president was elected. He was so successful that no other prominent candidate appeared.
 Then a protest was made against his appointment on the ground that he was too much interested in the public land business to be qualified for the position. This protest was investigated by the department and it is claimed by Judge Quigley's friends that he was fully vindicated.
 In the meantime two years had elapsed since the appointment should have been made and as the earnings of the office were turning down as the result of the rapid disposal of the public lands, Judge Quigley developed a case of cold feet.
 About two weeks ago Judge Quigley, father of the applicant, quietly packed his grip and slipped away to Washington. It appears that he took with him his son's withdrawal from the race, but the matter has been kept so quiet that local dem-

RECEIVERSHIP LIKELY FOR NATIONAL CASUALTY

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
 LINCOLN, Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—It is probable that the affairs of the National Fidelity and Casualty company of Omaha, which has been in trouble for some time, will be placed in the hands of a receiver. The insurance board this afternoon considered that the best way to settle up its affairs.
 J. H. Agee of Omaha has had charge of the company's affairs for about six months and has been able to straighten out many of the difficulties the company was in, and is of the opinion that a receivership is the best thing to be done.
