What Women Are Doing in the World

The drama section of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, headed by Miss Mary Irene Wallace, will have charge of the open meeting to be held Saturday afternoon in the auditorium of the Central High school. Members of the Omaha center of the National Drama league and friends of the assocation will be guests. Tea will follow the program. Two short contrasting plays will be given, a unique feature of which is that the casts will be made up entirely of women. The plays will be presented simply, merely suggesting the costumes

William Butler Yeats' "The Hour Glass," a morality play, based on an ancient Irish legend will be presented

Wise Man. ...Miss Blanche CoffmanMiss Olive Coffman ...Mrs. C. Roby Maxwell ...Miss Elizabeth Klewit

"Spreading the News," by Lady Gregory, the Irishwoman who addressed the Drama League recently, is a delightful farce, in which the reciting of an errand of helpfulness is turned by quick imagination into a story of murder. The lightly sketched characters are very true o Ireland. The cast is as follows:

to Ireland. The cast is as follows:

Mrs. Pappey Miss Mae Somers
Bartley Fallon Miss E. Mitchell
Mrs. Fallon Mrs. W. H. Abbott
Jack Smith Mrs. Anan Raymond
Mrs. Tully Miss Juliet Griffin
Magistrate Miss Josephine Huse
Policeman Miss Agnes Russeit
Shawn Early Miss Thereas Hoye
Tim Casey Mrs. H. E. Newbranch
Dave Ryan Miss Ruth McDonald

The City Federation of Child Conservation Leagues will hold its January meeting Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Schmoller & Mueller auditorium. After the business meeting, P. S. MacAuley, South Side truant officer, will talk on truant and juvenile work, and Mrs. Frank Mouer will sing. Representatives from each of the federated circles will be pres-

The January meeting of Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Reynolds, 2137 South Thirty-

Three Cid stories and an animal story will be told by members of the Wyche Story Tellers' league Thursday afternoon at the public library. Miss Abigail Manning, the president, leads the program and will be assisted by Misses Florence Smith, Annette Sherry and Margaret

Miss Jessie Towns of the Central High school faculty, will review Anne Douglas Sedgwick's "Tante" for the Business Women's club, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association. The program is given under the auspices of the literature section and will be preceded by a supper at 6:15

The annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian association will be held Monday evening, January 24. Supper will be served in the cafe to those purchasing tickets beforehand. The business meeting will be held in the dining room, and will consist of brief reports by chairmen of committees and by the general secretary, and the election of board members. The terms of one-third of the members of the board, or seven, expire each year, and this year there are also three vacancies to be filled. The nominating committee is Mrs. Sam Rees, Mrs. Edward Johnson, Mrs. J. J. Dodds, Miss Glen Sleeper and Miss Helen Buck.

Temperance union meets Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. D. J. Burden, 4745 Capitel avenue. The program, which will be given under the leadership of Mrs. E. H. Longstreth, includes a paper on "Peace" by Mrs. C. W. Hayes and a report of the national temperance convention by Mrs. E. H. Shinrock, who was a delegate to that

The parliamentary law class of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday at 2 o'clock, the subject for consideration being motions. The current topics de-partment will meet at 2:30 o'clock under the leadership of Mrs. Mary I. Cerish.

George A. Custer Woman's Relief Corps meets Tuesday at 2 o'clock promptly in Memorial hall. Mrs. Frank Alvord has been named to represent this corps at the state convention. Tuesday eventng the Custer post and Woman's Relief Corps will hold a joint installation of officers with Mrs. Elizabeth Peironnet as installing officer for the corps. Miss Amanda Tebbins will be in charge of the program to be given that evening.

The North Side Mothers' club wil Imeet Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock with Mrs. H. W. Dorst, 2407 Camden street. Roll call response will be thoughts from Bert Harte. Mrs. Frank Russell will read a short biography of Harte and Mrs. S. F. Miller will give readings from Harte. Current events will be lead by Mrs. George Crocker and the letter box will contain humorous clippings.

The board of directors of the General Federation of Women's clubs will meet at the Chamberlain hotel, Old Point Comfort, Va., January 10. This will be an important meeting, it being the first since the one at Portland, Ore., immediately following the council in June, and the last before the New York blennial. Every phase of general federation activitles will receive careful attention.

The social science department of the Omaha Woman's club will be entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. Thomas Brown, active in woman's club affairs. Local civic conditions will be discussed during the business meeting by Mrs. C. W. Hayes, Mrs. F. J. Birss and Mrs. D. G. Craighead and others.

Following this meeting there will be a tes, to which all members of the club have been invited. The hostess will be assisted by Mesdames C. B. Coon, F. A. Foliansbee, R. E. McKelvy and T. L.

The two daughters of the hostess, Miss Derothy and Miss Myrtle Brown, will give a musical program during the social Mour. Miss Dorothy Brown, who recently returned from England, will sing a group of songs, "Slumber Boat," "Pleading," "Swallows," "Somewhere I Hear Voices Calling," "Face to Face" and "Cara Mio Ben." Miss Myrtle Brown will give plano soles, including "Humoreake," "Consolation" and "La Piccola."

Mrs. Wagner Thomas will lead the program on Mascagni's "Cavelleria Rusticana," which will be given by the music BRIDE WHOSE FRIENDS WERE at $20 o'clock. The reception committee BRIDE'S ATTENDANT AT THE WILL ENTERTAIN CURRENT TOP- each member will name a German comincludes Mesdames Ernest Sweet, George TAKEN BY SURPRISE. Platner and T. I. Combs. The refreshments committee includes Mesdames John Stine, James Stine, E. B. Gessman, H. B.

Crouch and Fred Fero. Tennyson chapter of the Chautauqua circle will meet Monday with Mrs. E. G. Hampton, when roll call response will be quotations from Edgar Allen Poe and N. P. Willis. Mrs. Hampton will have charge of the history lesson and Mrs. W. B. Smith will read the Gettysburg address. Mrs. A. E. Mack will rend a paper on "Horace Mann." Stories of the reigns of Henry IV, V and VI will be tald by Mrs. J. M. Richards, Miss Eunice Friend and Mrs. W. E. Rhoades.

It will be fifty years March 3, next, since the Young Women's Christian assolation was founded, and 916 organizations, all over the country, will have a jublice, which will begin February I and last until March 3. New York is to have a big pageant with the girl of 1865 and the girl of 1916 side by side, emphasizing the difference in dress and other nonessentials, but with the same high ideal of womanhood.

February, the "Jubilee Month," is divided into four divisions in Omaha. Mrs. W. A. Willard is jubilee chairman. and has arranged a series of interesting events.

Miss Lydia McCague is chairman of the committee having in charge the first week, membership week. A series of booster banquets, one for mothers and daughters, one for pioneer and charter nembers of the association and a general banquet will be given.

Mrs. D. W. Merrow is chairman of the committee in charge of publicity Loomis; secretary, Mrs. John P. Mann week, when the association activities will Crawford: treasurer, Mrs. J. D. Ream, be discussed through various women's Broken Bow. clubs and oranizations. The pageant, which will call for a of "Historical Week." Mrs. G. W. Garloch, chairman of "Givpledges and aid in planning the closing ceremony, which will be of a religious L. Fernald will tell the story of the character, on March 3, the birthday of opera and Mrs. J. E. Haarmann, the the association. ing part in the program are: Mr. M. The Baptist Missionary circle met at "Darkest Africa" was taken up for ter Woodrow. "Serenade," an opera by study. musicians. Miss Helen Sadilek, Miss

The eleventh annual meeting of the Nora Pred. Miss Grace Wieden and Mrs. Nebraska Home Economics association hold a reception and installation of officers at the cathedral, Priday afternoon. Reed Davidson, Lincoln; vice president, o'clock at the Young Men's Christian "Parsifal." For the roll call response Boswell, chairman of the educational de-

KLOPP-BURKE WEDDING.

Mrs. Lula Kortz Hudson, Simeon; vice

Mrs. J. J. Melick will lead the procostume, will be under the direction of Omaha Woman's club Thursday morning afternoon at 4 o'clock in the assembly Mrs. C. A. Sherwood, who is chairman at 10 o'clock, at the Young Women's C. Hammond, as previously announced. ing Week," is the last of the committee- The cathedrals and monasteries of Kief women and will work for financial and the monastery or lavra of Troitsa will be studied under "Russian Art."

> J. P. Palmer will address the vocaand Bureaus in Omaha."

ICS THIS WEEK

Illrs Thomas Brown

organization are open to the public.

"Life After Death" will be the subject of Miss Claudia Gallaway's discourse for the philosophy and ethics department Mrs. Charles Wright, who will be in cast of about 150 girls and women in gram for the art department of the of the Omaha Woman's club Tuesday charge of the music for a short term, room of the Young Women's Christian Mrs. W. H. Underwood will be speaker Christian association, instead of Mrs. J. association. Miss Gallaway is the department instructor.

tional guidance section of the Associa- noon in the school auditorium. There fort, beginning Monday. While in the tion of Collegiate Alumnae on "Educa- will be an election of officers also. Ac- city Mrs. Keefe spent most of her time tional and Vocational Legislation in Ne- cording to the custom established in this with Mrs. F. H. Cole, chairman of the Angelo Vita, Misses Elizabeth Stephen, the home of Mrs. J. Faris Thursday brasks. Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock club a committee of the older girls in afternoon, when the second chapter of at the Young Women's Christian assothe school will have charge of the nurclation. Miss Ione C. Duffy will give a sery in the kindergarten so that the C. H. McMahon of Sait Lake City, the talk on 'Laws for Employment Bureaus mothers may attend the club meeting.

over and tell something about him.

be taken during the business meeting of the South Omaha Woman's club at Library hall Tuesday afternoon, the South Side club meets with Mrs. A. J. Randall. Verdia "Il Travatore" will ! be the program, given under the leadership of Miss Louise Bratton,

The oratory department of the Omaha Woman's club has changed its meeting place from the Metropolitan building to the Young Women's Christian association, where all other departments of the club hold their meetings, "Bodily Expression," carried out in pantomime work, will be the lesson for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, under the direction of Miss

The Foreign Missionary society of Benon will meet at the home of Mrs. P. A. Legge Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. Whistler will be the leader.

The Benson Woman's club will hold its first meeting since a month ago, Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. Vernor, when Mrs. E. Parker will lead the topic of 'Tolstoy," and the roll call will be answered by quotations from his life.

Mrs. J. Y. Hooper will give a review of paper on "Tulstay on Modern Socialism," by Mrs. N. H. Tyson.

Business Women's council met for the first time in their new rooms of the court house Tuesday. Mrs. C. H. Wilon was speaker in charge January 4, her topic being "What's in a Name" Miss Marie Andreesen gave a solo, while sang selections from "Songs for Service.

Miss Sena Peterson, professional nurse, eral days in Omaha last week enroute to employed by the Board of Education, will the board meeting of the General Federspeak on the care of the child before the ation of Women's clubs, of which she is Central Park Mothers' club Priday after- recording secretary, at Old Point Comauditor, passed through Omaha enroute to the same meeting, and these women A program on German opera will be and Mrs. M. D. Cameron spent a pleas-

President Taft's administration to organize women's clubs there. Mrz. George Zimmerman of Fremont, O., chairman of the civics department of the General Federation, one just been elected president of the Ohlo federation, On Saturday the music department of according to word received by Mrs. F. H.

Mrs. W. J. Burgess of Chicago, formerly secretary of the Weman's auxiliary to the rallway mail service and well known to Omaha women, has been elected corresponding secretary of the Illinois

Mrs. N. H. Nelson, president of the Omaha Weman's club, who is confined to her room at Clarkson hospital, is doing nicely, having spent a very comfortable day yesterday. Her room is a bower of blossoms, the token of good wishes from just a few of the many friends of the efficient, warm-hearted executive of the club.

The club women are hoping Mrs. Nelson will soon be able to resume charge of the meetings, but in her absence the vice president, Mrs. E. M. Syfert, will be in charge of the club business.

The Clic Study club resumes meetings this afternoon at the home of Miss Irma Gross. A program on the European war will be presented.

The Business Girls' council will give an entertalnment at the Young Women's Tolstoy's life and Mrs. E. Mead of his Christian association Thursday evening A discussion will follow a at 8 o'clock. There will be reports of the council, followed by a social hour.

> Dr. Hugh O. Rowlands of the First Baptist church will lead the Sunday Baptist church will lead the Sunday afternoon vesper service at the Young Women's Christian association. There will be special music during the program. At the social hour, which follows the regular service, Miss Elizabeth Doud will be hostess, and she is planning to have some special features during that hour. All young women are invited to both of these services. Refreshments are served at the social hour.
>
> The Many Centers club of the extension department will meet Tuesday evening for its regular business seasion. The club classes will begin this week on Monday night, when the following will be offered: Good English, manicuring and fancy work. On Wednesday evening there will be sewing and gymnasjum.

will be sewing and gymnasium.
On Friday night the students of Boyles Businese college will be entertained at the Young Women's Christian association building by the Young Women's Christian association and Young Men's Christian association, and both the men and women students are invited.

Haarmann will be the accompanists.

Victor Herbert, will be given by the same

Mrs. J.E. Fitzgerald

department of the Omaha Woman's club

Thursday afternoon at the Young

Women's Christian association. Mrs. A.

leader, will play the prelude. Those takpresident, ex-officio, Prof. Alice M. association. The regular meetings of this

Rev. E. D. Hull of the Hanscom Park given by the West Omaha Mothers' Cul- ant time at the station, Mrs. Keefe joinwill be held at the state university Methodist Episcopal church will speak on ture club Friday afternoon at the home ing Mrs. McMahon for the eastern trip. farm Tuesday, Wednesday and Thurs- "Constitutional Prohibition" before the of Mrs. W. W. Carmichael. Mrs. W. N. Mrs. Percy Pennybacker, the president, The Scottish Rite Woman's club will day, January 18, 19 and 20, The officers Omaha Women's Christian Temperance Baker will read a paper on Wagner and leaves directly after the board meeting

Mrs. H. L. Keefe of Walthill spent sev-

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

association, and both the men and women students are invited.

Miss Clara Brewster will give the last of a series of health talks which she has been giving to her symnasium girls during the fall. This will be on the subject of "posture." Only symnasium members are expected to attend these lectures.

Miss Kate McHugh's class in modern novels has had one lecture and will continue for ten more weeks. Those lectures do not depend upon one another so that any who might wish to do so could enter for one class at a time. The entire course is $2, but the individual lessons are 25 cents each.

On display Monday-an interesting lot of New Silk Dresses-advance style features-worth pausing to look

We Are Going to Give a Lot of Attention to the

BABIES MONDAY

We have a lot of hand embroidered Dresses, sold from $6.75 to $35.00, at ONE-HALF PRICE.

Other Baby Dresses, at 98¢. $1.98

Dresses for those up to 6 years,

Girls' Drawers, 10c. 12%c. 25c

Girls' Night Gowns, 39¢ and 59¢.

Girls' Princess Slips, 50c. 79c.

Girls' Petticoats, 29c. 79c. 98c.

Angora Yarn Scarfs—So very popular, 98¢ instead of $1.50.

IN THE JUNIOR SECTION

Practical Skirts, $3.95, were $5.00; $5.00 were $6.50.

Ultra Radical will be the pricing of

Junior Suits, too, on Monday-Just-rite

for growing girls and for little women.

Suits which sold up to $15.00, on

Skirts at 39¢ and 69¢. Gowns at 49¢ and 69¢.

at 69¢. 98¢ and $1.49.

and $2.98.

and 39c.

98¢ and $1.98.

Monday, $5.00.

Slap! Bang! Here We Are Again!

We are now digging down, getting to the bottom of things, beginning to see daylight as it were. When we started this wonderful sale our stocks were so large--that in the very nature of things--there were many items which we did not have space to mention. NOT NECESSARY TO REFER TO THE MARVELOUS SUCCESS OF THIS SALE for it has been TOWN TALK. Naturally and inevitably small lots will be left over-Goods will be soiled and some completely overlooked.

NOW MONDAY AT KILPATRICK'S will be devoted to a sort of GOOD RIDDANCE SALE

Good for us for it will mean the absolute cleaning out of odd and small lots, and unusually good for you for the pricings will Be So Low As To Mean Very Substantial Savings. Without Circumlocution, Then, Here Goes for Particulars.

BED SPREADS

Just a few English Spreads, slightly soiled, were formerly $12.50 and $15, at $8.75 each.

"Real English"

Embroidered Pillow Cases, were $1, at 69¢ the pair. $1.25 Long Cloth, 10 yards, 89¢ on Monday.

> TABLE DAMASKS ALL Linen Note Emphasis Please.

79¢. was$1.00 was$1.25 linens have advanced amazingly and prices are still soaring.

MADEIRA NAPKINS

$5.95 dozen for what was$7.50 $6.25 dozen for what was ...$12.50 $10.75 dozen for what was ..$15.00 $13.25 dozen for what was ..$17.50 $14.50 dozen for what was ..$20.00

MADEIRA CLOTHS

	1	Round
$25,00	formerly.	Monday	$17	7
			$37
			Mon. 814
$30.00	formerly,	Monday	822	.5
$35,00	formerly,	Monday	$26	2
$30.00	formerly,	Monday	821	.7
			845	Ö.
$75.00	formerly,	Monday	847	.5
	Just 2 o	r 3 of a	price.
For	the first t	ime_we	anote en	int

prices on just a few WHITE GOODS.

All we have space to mention for Monday: 20c 36-inch Plisse 13 2 c will be in order and you'll get better

The keen weather and Alfred Noyes re-minded us of a wintry rhyme which seems to us so fitting that we are going to quote it. It isn't by Noyes, but we don't think it is altogether unworthy of him. This was written so long ago that we'll credit, it to Palimpsest, until we get the author's name. But-Curtains down and an elbow hug; A Maid, that comes to a look; A boy to carry a rimy log From over the frozen brook-

And-a fig for the cawing rook,

Or Ghosts in the ruddy gloam

For the kettle sings on the blackened And hey! for the Sweets of home.

> SUPPOSE WE TALK BLANKETS NOW

Proper sequence we think. The finer grades, we want to touch upon - not mentioned previously. It isn't every store, indeed, that carries in stock such Superior grades.

THE RESERVE WAS ASSESSED.
$4.00 Blankets for $2.98	pair
$6.50 Nebraska	pair
$12.50 Queen	pair
$17.50 Avondale$13.75	pair
$5.50 Morning Glory $3.95	pair
$8.50 Talpa, at	pair
$17.50 Zamora, at $13.75	pair
$20.00 Ventura, at $13.75	pair
$6.00 T. K. Special, at $5.00	pair
$10.00 Chilcot, at $8.25	pair
$17.50 Exmoor, at $13.75	pair
$25.00 Favona, at $17.75	pair

COMFORTS-Cotton Filled

1,000,00
$1.50	formerly,	Monday	NO.	$1.29
$2,00	formerly,	Monday		$1.59
$2.50	formerly,	Monday	224	82.15
	formerly,			$2.45
$5.00	formerly,	Monday		$3.95
				100000000000000000000000000000000000000

COMFORTS-Wool Filled

$5.00 grade, Monday $4.25 $6.00 grade, Monday $4.75 $6.50 grade, Monday $5.25 $12.50 Silk Covered, filled with down,

SAMPLE BLANKETS Slightly Soiled $6.00 and $6.50 Wool will be sold at $3.95 pair

SHEETS

Torn before hemming so that they will launder properly-Saranac, 72x99, formerly 45c, at 29c Hotel, 81x99, formerly 75c, at . 65c Acorn, 72x99, formerly $1.00. 89c Rugby, $1x99, formerly $5c, at ... 39c Am. Beauty, $1x99 Am. Beauty, 81x99, form'y $1,20, 98c Note the dimensions, please, keep crowding in we will be compelled to decline further orders before the end of the week. Our special sale of wool Dress Goods alone keeps us busy-and if you care for good service you must come in the morning. Measure taken by one who knows how-Skirts tailored by men-Fitted by experts. No fit! No take! $2.00 is the price for making. You pay for the exact goods required-No More-No Less.

IF SKIRT ORDERS

MONDAY THE LAST DAY

Of the Special Silk Sale at 59¢ per yd. This lot includes Japanese Ponge from loading-as well as a lot of beautiful Stripes and Fancies-$1.00 is the usual price-and the goods are worth it. Favorably bought-We sell on the same basis. Another case of "MORE FOR LESS,"

THERE IS A PENALTY FOR PROCRASTINATION

IF YOU NEED A SUIT. The cases are thinning out -the racks are getting bare-not so easy now to just grab and be sure of a fit-And yet there are some splendid suits left. It's a funny thing—passing strange, indeed, that every now and again people will pass the best by and pick out one not nearly so good-But as was said of the one who kissed the cow-"No account-ing for taste." New groupings and new pricings for Monday-

THE DRESSES, TOO, ARE NEARING THE END

All the $25, $30, $35 Suits at $12.50 All the $50, $65, $75 Suits, at $25.00

Still we have Voiles, Chiffons and Ginghams, white and colors. Here's how we are going to handle Those which sold up to $10.00 will be $2.98 Monday.

Silks and Serges, sold up to $20.00, at $5.00 Monday. What does it matter if they are not the very latest kink-You'll get more than your money's worth of wear.

NOW FOR SOMETHING DIFFERENT

A few individual Garments-several the very late effects-One Evening Gown, French bouquet effect, crystal trimming, at $65.00 instead of $95.00. One Evening Gown, net and velvet, gold lace trimming, at $37.59 instead of One Evening Gown, black net and black velvet, jet trimming, at $50.00 instead of $125.00. Party Coat of Copper Broadcloth, wide Seal collar, at $39.50 instead of Party Coat of Green Panne Velvet, Seal trimmed, $43.50 instead of $65.00. Party Coat of Red Broadcloth, $29.50 instead of $50.00. Quite a range of Winter Coats, sold to $22.50, for $10.00 each, A few choice Velours at Sale Prices. Splendid Fur Trimmed Flare Plushes, at $23.75.

SEPARATE SKIRTS

Of Broadcloth, of Serge, of Chuddah, of $3.98 for what were $5.00 to $6.50. $7.95 for what were $10 to $12.50, $5.00 for what were $7.50 to $8.50. more costly similarly reduced.

JUST TO TEMPT YOU

We quote a few fool prices on FURS. One group Black, Real Lynx Muffs, sold up to $50.00, at $25.00 each. One group Matched Sets, Fox, Seal, Leopard, etc., were sold up to $50.00, at $25.00 Monday,

Mink Scarfs Monday-$6.25, formerly $12.50 $7.50, formerly $15.00 $12.50, formerly $25.00 $13.75, formerly $27.50 $17.50, formerly $35.00 $23.75, formerly $47.50 Mink Muffs MondayJUNIOR COATS

Suits which sold up to $25.00, on Monday, $10.00.

if these prices are not sufficient to take, as the saying is, "the ducks of the water," Coats are not wanted— A hig assortment, sold up to $15.00, Monday, $5.00.

Another lot-Splendid-Sold up to $22.50, Monday, $10.00. A few exclusive ones were sold up to $35.00, at $19.00. Here Endeth the Story for Today-Oh, how we wish you would come in the morning-As much for your sake

From $55.00 to $27.50 From $65.00 to $32.50 From $85.00 to $42.50 as ours. Thomas/Rubalruelly