OMAHA, January 8, 1916.

OMAHA, January 8, 1916.

Cash grain markets were generally bearish today and wheat, corn and oats were a trifle lower. Wheat receipts were not very heavy, but the demand was exceptionally good and the bulk of the samples found a ready sate.

Corn receipts are on the increase and regardless of the fact that most of the corn coming in is of peor quality, the market in general remained steady, although a few cars were sold is under yesterday's prices.

The demand for oats was pretty good and the receipts were moderate. Oats sold generally from unchanged to 'aclower.

Rye was practically unchanged and

LIBERAL BUYING AT FIRST

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Belief that the submarine controversy between Washington and Berlin had been virtually settled, contributed in a great measure to the strength and activity of today's brief session on the stock exchange, albeit some of the advances and much of the high pressure.

orief session on the stock exchange, albeit some of the advances and much of the high pressure were reduced in the final dealings.

In the first half hour, yesterday's buying movement was renewed on a liberal scale, the short interest scrambling hastily to cover. Leaders of the movement included Mexican Petroleum, American Can, American Smelting, Anaconda Chopper, Mercantile Marine, preferred, and United States Steel. The latter scored a further substantial advance, effacing more of the mid-week's decline, but was subject to pressure later, closing unchanged at $7½.

Some of the more prominent specialties were 5 to 8 points over yesterday's minimums and the railway division was firm, but comparatively quiet. Labor troubleg and riots in the middle west emboldened the professional element to further short selling in the final hour, the market closing with an irregular tone. Total sales amounted to 380,000 shares.

The usual week-end budget of news

The usual week-end budget of news bearing on financial conditions included statements from the mercantile agencies of increased extension of various forms of commercial and industrial enterprises, while the November statement of the Great Northern railroad disclosing a net gain of $2.500,000 over the corresponding month of 1914, was in keeping with recent railway exhibits. Foreign exchange markets were mainly nominal, in the sense that actual hust-Foreign exchange markets were mainly record nominal, in the sense that actual business was light. Sterling opened with some recovery from yesterday's late session, but fell back again later, while marks manufested a firmer tendency.

Forecasts of the bank statement were fully confirmed, the actual cash gain of $17,509,000 exceeding most estimates. Section 1 reserves increased by almost Sectual reserves increased by almost 68.000,000. Anglo-French Wonds, which rose to 95%, featured the broad trading in those securities. Total sales of bonds, par value, were $4.45,000.

Coffee Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—COFFEE—The market for coffee futures showed continued activity and strength today with Wall street and cotton exchange houses reported to be buying freely. Rumors that certain steamers running between this country and South America had been requisitioned for use in the Liverpool cotton trade appeared to stimulate the early demand and after opening unchanged to 15 points higher, active menths sold 15 to 19 points above last night's closing fluures with July touching 7.50c and September, 7.51c.

CATTLE—Receipts have been very large this week, not only as compared with recent weeks, but also as compared with recent weeks, but also as compared with a year ago. Fortunately there has been a very good demand, so that prices have made a very substantial advance even in the face of large receipts.

Beef steers, which have been in large supply with the quality on an average rather common are larges in higher than the close of last week.

Cows and heifers have had a broad outlet all the week and have steadily firmed up until they are right around 25 higher than a week at 0.

While the demand for stockers and feeders has not been overly large the supply of such cattle has been moderate, and the market in a good strong position every day. Prices have steadily firmed up and they are 25c higher than last week.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice become to such cattle.

Fat lamb prices have shown the bigglest change during the past week that has been registered during any six days in a long time. The market opened with a sharp advance Monday, and with the exception of a slight setback Tuesday, when receipts were very heavy, continued strong all week, closing quotations yesterday being fully 75c higher than a week ago. Prices touched the highest levels ever reached in January yesterday when the top reached $10.00, the highest paid here since June.

Aged sheep and yearlings sold on a higher basis throughout the week, and while the advance was not so great as that on lambs, the week closed with prices fully 50c above last Friday. No wethers were offered, but they are nominally quoted as high as $7.25. No light yearlings have been offered since early in the week, when they sold at $8.25, and in view of the general advance in prices best are nominally quoted as high as $8.50.
