reference to filling the pulpit. There is considerable talk among Con-gregationalists of a consolidation by which the First Congregational and the the first Congregational and the side of the study Weinesday even ng the study Weinesday even ng on a campaign in Greater Omaha to raise a fund of $10,000 for carrying |St. Mary's Avenue church will become on the work of the charities for this one organization, intsead of two. It is argued that business has encroached upon the territory of the First Congregational church and that the members have moved so far into the residential sections of the city that a good many members have been lost by joining other churches. As to the talked of consolidation, the project has not taken on any definite form, though it is in the air and the consummation of the plan would not be a surprise to church people.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 15-(Special Telegram.)-Nebraska drew tirst blood in the first of the annual basket ball contests with the Kansas Jayhawkers and carried off the game, $1 to 21.

It was a nip and tuck affair from start to finish, the Combuskers taking the lead in the first half, 16 to 13, and forging ahead. Four more points were added in the second half before the Jayhawkers got started.

Then a series of classy baskets by Gibben, the Kanzas right forward, put the team almost neck and neck. The Cornhuskers a kied a point on a free throw and then another basket while Gibben shot another basket just before the eye by a bullet fired at Tweifth and the final whistle blew.
