

AMERICA SECURES CONSULS' RELEASE

Teuton, Turk and Bulgar Officials Arrested at Saloniki to Be Freed.

THROUGH U. S. GOOD OFFICES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Through the good offices of the United States, the German, Austrian, Turkish and Bulgarian consuls at Saloniki, who have been held under arrest by the allies on board a French warship in the harbor, are to be released.

Charles Einstein, head of the American legation at Sofia, has been instructed by cable to surrender, if Bulgaria insists upon it, the British vice consul there, who took refuge in his quarters when Bulgaria ordered the arrest of enemy consular officers in retaliation for the seizure of the consuls at Saloniki.

watch job bearing the engraving, "Ed Lehmkuhl, president, 1913, 1914 and 1915. The speech of presentation was by F. B. Sebeothal of Eau Claire, Wis. In replying to the presentation speech which expressed much appreciation for the sacrifices he has made for the good of the association, Mr. Lehmkuhl said: "I have done nothing that I would not willingly do again. I simply did my duty as I saw it, and that should be expected of any man."

Gallagher Elected President. C. E. Gallagher of Coleridge, Neb., was elected following the report of the nominating committee. Mr. Gallagher has been in the implement business at Coleridge for five years, and has always taken an active interest in the affairs of the Mid-West association.

J. B. Morrison of Shenandoah, Ia., was made vice president. Anton Hanson of Erland, Neb., and A. E. Timberg of Hooper, Neb., were elected members of the board of directors. Omaha Men Talk. J. Frank Barr of Omaha, R. W. Hubbard of Elliott, Ia., and F. R. Sebeothal of Eau Claire, Wis., were the speakers of the forenoon session. Mr. Barr is secretary of the Federation of Nebraska Retailers. This is the organization that put on the business men's chalet at Carter lake last summer. Mr. Barr discussed the work of federations and the general advantage of co-operation along the lines of the federation's plan.

R. W. Hubbard is president of the Local Club Number 6 at Elliott, Ia. He told the dealers, they would never get where they want to get except by organization. At the same time he advised them against agreeing upon prices. "In the first place, it's not legal," he said, "and in the second place, it's bad business."

"You can see the handwriting on the wall," he continued. "You must organize. Organize your local clubs everywhere, and if you don't know how to organize one get someone that does know to help you."

"If your competitor cuts prices on you, don't go and get back at him, but get to him. Have a heart to heart talk with him."

He told of the improved conditions that have resulted from the local club work in southwestern Iowa, pointing out that there is a wider acquaintance and a better feeling among the implement men there now, and that collections are much better due to a shorter system of credits that has been established.

F. B. Sebeothal of Eau Claire, Wis., secretary of the Wisconsin association, and retiring president of the National Federation, was a kind of privileged character when he got the floor. He talked along smoothly and pleasantly of every subject imaginable from the happiness of his family of twelve children, to the entertaining of farmer customers at his dinner table, from the old methods of scrubbing the floor and washing clothes to the best way to raise carrots; and from the sweet tooth of his babies for candy to the difficulty of approaching a congressional committee with an association program for legislation.

Says Word for Women. But they stayed. They all listened, for Mr. Sebeothal is really a very pleasing talker. He declared it is a shame that nothing is done to make the wives of implement dealers more welcome at the meetings. "A moment ago one woman came to the door with her husband and then went back because she saw no woman here," he said. "I see only one woman in the room. The women should be encouraged to attend these meetings. They are helping you in your business."

He declared also that the farmers' wives and daughters must be more considered in the implement business. "You should take an interest in them," he said, "and try to get them the best kind of machinery to perform their various tasks and lighten their burdens."

He pointed out to the implement men that few organizations have more power with a congressional committee than the implement associations, because the congressmen realize that back of the implement men are the millions of farmer voters.

To Fortify the System Against Grip. When grip is prevalent Laxative Bromo Quinine should be taken, as this combination of Quinine with other ingredients, destroys germs, acts as a tonic and laxative and thus keeps the system in condition to withstand colds, grip and influenza. There is only one "Bromo Quinine." E. W. Grove's signature on box. 25c.—Advertisement.

GEN. HARRIES ADVOCATES PREPAREDNESS FOR NATION (From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—General George H. Harries of Omaha has arrived in Washington to serve as a delegate to the convention and a member of the committee on resolutions of the National Security League.

General Harries said he was surprised and gratified to find so many prominent business men in Washington from all over the country to attend the convention in the interest of increased military preparedness.

He talked with a number of these men.

NEW PRESIDENT OF MID-WEST IMPLEMENT DEALERS.

General Harries said: "I found that many of them were only too glad to pay their own expenses for this trip, and to give of their time, in the interest. "Many of them thought they could not spare time from their affairs to get away, but partners, friends and others urged them to come, on the ground that this is no time to hang back, or in other ways to withhold support from the movement to put the country in a state of defense. "We must all put our shoulders to the wheel, at this time particularly. That is the view of men with whom I have talked at this convention, from New York, Boston and the middle west."

Deed Comes from Ireland.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Jan. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—All the way from Ireland came a warranty deed this week to the office of Register of Deeds Jerry Carrigan. The deed, which is worded in American phraseology and bears the acknowledgment of J. A. Dinan, American consul at Limerick, Ireland, covers eighty acres of land near Monroe. The land was formerly owned by James Gleason, who died here recently at the age of 80, leaving as his heirs four children in Ireland, who have just sold this land to a relative, J. Thomas Gleason, residing near Monroe.

News Notes of Hebron.

HEBRON, Neb., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—John W. Hughes, proprietor of the Central hotel of this city, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia and hemorrhage of the lungs, left his sick room yesterday for the first time in four weeks. Mr. Hughes is a veteran of the civil war. The operating room of the Blue Valley hospital has been equipped with new apparatus and now rivals any hospital of its size in the state. The teachers of the Hebron high school are holding their final examinations for the first semester's work this week. A petition is being circulated among the business men and citizens of Hebron, to be presented to the Rock Island railroad, requesting that the road running through Hebron be put in a safe condition. The road between Hebron and Deshar is in a poor condition. A wreck occurred between Hebron and Deshar, caused by the condition the track was in.

North Bend Man Chosen.

NORTH BEND, Jan. 21.—(Special.)—At the preliminary contests for the honor of placing on the debating team of Hastings college a veteran of the civil war, North Bend was one of the six chosen from over fifty contestants. FINAL PLANS MADE FOR WILSON'S TRIP middle west. He will keep in touch with the White House while away and plans to return Monday morning.

Leaves Friday Night.

On the middle western trip the president will leave Washington Friday night, January 23, and will return February 4, in time for the judicial dinner at the White House. He will speak at a day meeting in Pittsburgh, January 25; in Cleveland the same night; at a day meeting in Milwaukee, January 31; in Chicago the same night; at a night meeting in Des Moines, February 1; at a day meeting in Topeka, February 2, and Kansas City the same night. He will spend Sunday, January 30, in Cleveland.

In addition to the formal addresses in these seven cities, the president is expected to speak briefly at several cities and towns through which his train will pass. The national defense plans of the administration will be his principal topic, but he probably will take up other subjects, including the European and Mexican situations. The president sent to the War and Navy departments today for information concerning the army and navy to be used in the preparation of his speeches. His stenographer accompanied him on the Mayflower and he will spend much of his time dictating.

No Cabinet Members Along.

As soon as the president finally approved the itinerary tonight messages were sent the friends and organizations extending the invitations to the cities chosen and preparations were begun immediately for the series of meetings. In most of the cities business associations will arrange the meetings. If present plans are carried out no members of the cabinet will accompany the president.

On the president's second trip about the middle of February, in addition to going as far west as Denver, he is expected to visit several southern cities, including probably Birmingham and at least one point in North Carolina.

Hastings Wants Wilson.

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—The Chamber of Commerce has joined with the Adams County Young Men's Democratic association and Adams county democratic committee in an invitation to President Wilson to speak in Hastings when he comes to Omaha on his preparedness speaking tour in February.

Will Omit Omaha.

President Wilson has failed to place Omaha on the itinerary of his first swing around the circle. Congressman Lobeck had a talk with the president and urged him to add Omaha to the points that he will visit. He sent the word on to Omaha. It is announced that if President Wilson decides to make two tours of the country, he may visit Omaha on the second trip. This statement, however, does not come from the president.

GRAND ISLAND REPUBLICANS HEAR STATE CANDIDATES

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—The Young Men's Republican club was reorganized last night under the auspices of the county organization, with Hal Jarvis, who two years ago was the chairman of the democratic young men's organization as president, and Richard Goehring, jr., secretary.

Many candidates for state nominations were present and made brief addresses, among these being candidates for the gubernatorial nomination, E. M. Pollard, J. R. McKelvie, Walter George and Mayor Madgett of Hastings; W. E. Andrews, candidate for the republican nomination for congressman; C. H. Aldrich, for United States senator; H. Shunway of Wakefield, for lieutenant governor; H. L. Sand's of Scott's Bluff, for university regent, and J. V. Craig of Omaha, representing the Estabrook interests.
