DAIRYMEN HEAR PEACE ADDRESS

Former Congressman Hainer Says Americans Want to Get Over Attack of Hysteria.

ASSOCIATION MEETING AT END

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 21.-(Special.)-Toe cessful in its history.

The banquet last night at the Lindell and L. E. Porter, York, hotel was well attended and those in attendance were treated to something no expected. E. J. Hainer forgot about butter and cream and those things and branched out on a speech against preparedness and the policy of President Wilson along that line. Mr. Hainer declared that what we needed most just now was an antidote against hysteria. two young people met here by appoint-He thought there was nothing to worry ment Wednesday afternoon and were about from the war standpoint. The oceans on either side, the friendly nation on the north and the weak one groom, Mr. William E. Kaufman, came to the south are insurances against war, are engaged in the greatest war of history; they are already becoming tired of it, and will make a yow not to get into another one as long as the memora of the present one remains.

Other speakers confined their remark ito dairying. They were Chairman Henry Clarke of the railway commission, F Allen, dairy transportation manager of the Northwestern railway and Governor Morehead. The governor said that he "didn't know that he would need the Note of the dairymen this year."

John Imrie of Roberts, Wis., talked lupon the subject of winter dairying as the most profitable at the session of the association this morning. O. A. Severe of Palmyra talked on the milking machine and the subject was discussed by LeRoy Ball of Albien and others.

Nebraska dairy products was the subject of a talk by Food Commissioner C. E. Harman and J. R. Roberts talked on the cent of producing milk.

The afternoon ression was devoted to cleaning up business unfinished and the awarding of prizes.

Drilling for Oil Begins in Cass Co.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Jan. 21.-(Spe. cial.)-The machinery for the sinking of the well for oil, which is being drilled by Messrs, T. H. Polleck of Plattsmouth and C. H. Baken of St. Louis, Mo., began operations this morning, and the starting of what promises to be the exploitation of the interior of Cass county for oil on a grand scale and the hole started for the interior of the earth, and boring will continue until a depth of 3,500 feet is reached if oil is not found sooner. The location is just off the bank of the Missouri river, about 100 feet, and at a spot about twenty feet above high water mark. At the place the anticline of the rock strata formation is broken by an upheaval, causing a rift of some 200 feet, with the croken portion of the anti-cline of the rock gone, thus giving the workmen an advantage of 200 feet in their work. The machinery is in good order and it will be run twenty-four hours every day. L. Deitrich of the Oklahoma oil fields has charge of the work, with a corps of competent drillers. The well is on the farm of John Larch, four and a half miles northeast of Union, in which neighborhood the company has leased 13,000 acres of
