BOTH OMAHA FIVES EXPECT VICTORIES

Central High Anticipates Win Over Beatrice and South Confident of Defeating University Place.

GENEVA WILL MEET HEBRON

Two interscholastic victories are expected in Omaha this week when Central High and South High meet the Beatrice and University Place basketball quintets. Beatrice will be in Omaha Friday evening to battle Coach Mulligan's crew on the local Young Men's Christian association floor the same evening, while Coach Patton's quintet will meet the University Place five on the South gymnasium floor at Twenty-fourth and J streets, South Side.

Both games will be fast and interesting. The Beatrice-Omaha game should draw a considerable crowd, as this is the first time that athletic teams from these two schools have met since the breaking off of athletic relations two years ago. Beatrice has been defeated twice this year by Crest and Lincoln. University Place has been defeated by the Queen City five by a score of 24 to 22 on their own floor, so the Packers should have little difficulty in defeating them.

Geneva and Hebron are two other leading teams that will meet Friday night. Geneva is recognized as one of the strongest teams in the state, while Hebron has a lengthy list of overwhelming victories to its credit. It is possible that either Hebron or Minden, another strong five, will be chosen in the first group of eight or sixteen teams at the state tournament. Thus the outcome and details of their game with Geneva is being eagerly awaited.

John pointed De Oro out just as he was cleaning up a frame. The Frenchman gave Alf the up and down, and, seeing that the kid was clever, started to rub his chin.

"Well," piped Doyle, "is he bet on?" The Frenchman, without taking his eyes off De Oro, piped: "Certainly the bet is on, but the gentleman will have to play my rules."

MANNERS OF BALL PLAYERS NOT NICE

Dean Briggs Says Members of College Teams Have Cheap and Meager Vocabulary.

DOUBTFUL IN ITS PURPOSES

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 26.—The promotion of good feeling in intercollegiate athletics is urged in the report of last season's activities made public tonight by Dean Briggs, chairman of the committee on the regulation of athletic sports at Harvard university.

Regarding base ball the report says: "Bad manners on the base ball field and tactics that in some cases would be condemned as unsportsmanlike still are regarded by students and the general public as part of the game, and of these bad manners Harvard teams, though in general clean players, are not yet wholly free. A large part of what players say on the field results from deliberate adoption of a technical vocabulary, cheap and meager in itself and at best doubtful in its purposes."

REMEMBER OROZCO, VILLA'S MEN CRY

Bandit Chieftain Trying to Rally Followers of His Late Rival to His Standard.

SAYS MURDERED BY AMERICANS

General Orozco was Villa's most formidable foe until the latter drove him across the border into the United States after the battle of Ojinaga, nearly two years ago. Orozco was shot and killed last September in the High Lonesome mountains, on the side of the boundary, sometime after he had forfeited the bond under which he was being held as a violator of United States neutrality laws. Villa, taking advantage of the circumstances of Orozco's death, is declared to be using his name as a rallying cry for new recruits.

Western Chihuahua was the home of Orozco as well as that of Villa, and the dead leader had a large following which is said to have been highly inflamed recently when Villa informed them that Orozco had been murdered in Texas by Americans.

There was no operation, no rest, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me. Eugene M. Fuller, Carpenter, 211 S. Marshall Avenue, Maumegan, N. J.
