

ANOTHER RAIDER SLIPS FROM KIEL

Two German Rovers Beat it for Open Sea Almost Under Guns of British Warships.

NINE OF THESE BOATS EQUIPPED

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Nine sea raiders of the type of the Moeve have been fitted out by the Germans and one of them, which escaped from Kiel on New Year's day with the Moeve, has since been preying on British commerce with as much success as the Appam's captor, according to a story told here tonight by Mrs. Francis Fuller, wife of the British governor general of Ashanti.

Mrs. Fuller was one of the ninety-seven passengers of the Appam who arrived here from Norfolk, on board the Old Dominion steamer Jefferson. Forty officers and members of the crews of British vessels captured by the Moeve and later taken in charge by the German prize crew, which brought the Appam to American waters, also were on the Jefferson. Equipped at Kiel.

Mrs. Fuller declared that one of the German officers who came aboard the Appam, was authorized by the statement that the Germans had equipped the nine raiders at Kiel. She said she told her husband, the other raider which escaped the British patrol, passed within a stone's throw of three British cruisers within a few hours after they left the Kiel canal. All the British officers and seamen agreed that the raider apparently was a new vessel of about 6,000 tons gross. The seal bunkers, they said, were unusually large as if built for long cruises. The Germans took every precaution they added, to shroud the four guns mounted on the raider, and the one of the fifteen centimeter type. M. C. Watson, also a passenger on the Appam, told of a plot to overcome the Germans who composed the prize crew of the Appam. Watson, who said he volunteered as third officer on the Appam, declared the plot was frustrated through treachery.

Will Make Inquiry To Fix Blame for Atlantic City Fire

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 5.—A searching investigation to fix responsibility for the fire which today caused the loss of at least three lives and razed the Overbrook hotel, a five-story brick frame structure, at Mount Vernon and Pacific avenues, was started tonight after the ruins a short time before night-fall. Three other persons are missing and are believed to have perished.

Two of the three bodies recovered were identified as those of Thomas Meit, 64, father of Richard Meit, proprietor of the Overbrook, and Mrs. Charles Kelly, 55, of New York and Atlantic City. The third body was so badly burned that identification had been impossible.

Mrs. Josephine Garsed, Philadelphia; Edward Phillipson, White Plains, N. Y.; and Paul C. Hendricks, Chambersburg, Pa., publicity agent for a hotel here are missing.

Of the injured, John McCoy, a guest of West Hoboken, N. J. is in the most seriously hurt. He is suffering from a fractured lung and general contusions and is in a critical condition. Alexander Andrews and his wife and George Benker, all of Philadelphia, were badly bruised in jumping from an upper story window into life nets. All are in the hospital and will recover.

Street Car Company Pays a Girl $500 For Kiss Conductor Gave Her

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 5.—The Metropolitan street railway company today, under a settlement reached here in the circuit court, agreed to pay Miss Evelyn Whittington, 16 years old, $500 for a kiss administered by one of the company's conductors.

Miss Whittington and her cousin were the only passengers on a car one night in January, 1915, she told the court. When her cousin left the car, Miss Whittington laughed because her relative's descent from the car steps was impeded by a tight skirt. The conductor, too, laughed. A few blocks further on the conductor kissed her, Miss Whittington declares.

WAR ORDER PLANT IN OTTAWA BURNS

Second Blaze Rages in Canadian Capital While Efforts Made to Learn Cause of First

SEVEN LIVES HAVE BEEN LOST

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—Fire of unknown origin tonight destroyed the plant of Grant, Holden & Graham Company, Ltd., which has been engaged in manufacturing clothing and haversacks for the militia department.

Eight employees were in the building when the fire started but all escaped safely. The loss on the building alone, a six-story brick structure, is fixed at $20,000. No estimate has been made of the value of the stock, but a large supply was ready for delivery.

Seven Lives Lost The list of those who lost their lives in the fire which destroyed the Canadian Parliament building, was fixed tonight at seven. Five of the bodies still lie beneath the ruins. They are those of E. B. Law, a member of Parliament; Deputy Clerk Laplante, Dominion Constable Des Jardins, Alphonse Des Jardins, a plumber, and Randolph Panning, a waiter.

While firemen spent the day pouring tons of water upon the smouldering debris, Dominion government officials were making plans to erect a new and more imposing structure upon the site of the building wrecked by last night's fire. Meantime Parliament will sit in the auditorium of the Royal Victoria museum until the new customs house can be made ready for occupancy.

Conduct Investigation. Although the police focus upon the theory that a plot was responsible for the destruction of the building or that the fire was started by a bomb, Fire Chief Graham is quoted as having said: "The fire was set," and that he heard several explosions.

Government officials assert they believe the fires were not of incendiary origin, but they, nevertheless, are conducting a rigid investigation in an effort to determine whether there is any basis for such a suspicion.

Coroner Craig of Ottawa will hold an inquest on February 17 if the deaths of Mesdames Gray and Martin, whose bodies are the only ones thus far recovered. The remains of both were taken tonight to Quebec.

A cordon of police stood guard all day around the ruins of the building and held back the thousands who visited the scene. No one was permitted to enter any part of those sections of the building which remain standing. Scores of workmen were employed in searching the debris for the bodies of the five men who lost their lives.

Anzeiger is Afraid Lansing May Force A Break by Demand

BERLIN, Feb. 5.—(Via London.)—The Lokal Anzeiger says a very grave situation has been caused by the Washington government suddenly insisting that Germany declare the sinking of the Lusitania illegal and apparently suspending the negotiation of all other unduly matters until such a declaration is given, the situation therefore now looking like "bend or break."

"If President Wilson," says the newspaper, "expects that in the Lusitania question, Germany will beat a retreat which can counter all its previous declarations, that transcends the bounds of possibility even for the warmest friends of peace. Never can a German government admit that a submarine commander did wrong in sinking in the war zone an enemy steamer laden to the guards with arms and ammunition."

"This was also perfectly well understood at the White House. If in spite of it, Secretary Lansing has put forth such a demand we can only conclude that he does not wish to reach an understanding with Germany."

Radio Messages Tell Of Fire in Ship's Hold

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 5.—A fire in the hold of the steamer Texas, about 600 miles southeast of St. John's, N. F., was reported in the two radio messages received by the Canadian marine department tonight.

The first message, which came from the British steamer Howthead, bound from Norfolk to Dublin, said merely that the Texas was on fire, while a later message sent by the steamer Siberia, New York for London, said that the fire was under control and that the Texas was proceeding with hatches battened.

TRAIN BURIED; HIT BY SNOWSLIDE

Northern Pacific Passenger Lost in Sweep of Avalanche in Cascades.

JUST STRUCK WITH THE EDGE

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 5.—While Northern Pacific train No. 42, which left Seattle, Tuesday night, was stalled in the deep snow one mile west of Stampede pass in the Cascade mountains, a huge snow slide struck the forward portion of the train, completely burying the engine, baggage car and a portion of the combination smoker and chair car, it was learned tonight.

Only an edge of the slide, which occurred late Wednesday, hit the train, but it broke through the windows of the smoker, almost completely filling it with snow. Four passengers who were playing cards were imprisoned.

Coroner A. J. Rose of Ellensburg and others rushed to their assistance, digging in through the windows. After a few minutes' work they were taken out unharmed, except for cuts and bruises. The engine crew also were hastily dug out.

Engine, baggage car and chair car were leaning over at an angle of twenty-five degrees at the edge of a ten-foot embankment.

The passengers were transferred and arrived in Ellensburg tonight.

The train that Wednesday afternoon on the Northern Pacific was partially wrecked by a snow slide near Stampede pass in the Cascade mountains in Washington, was Burlington No. 42, due to have arrived in Omaha at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. At Burlington headquarters no advices have been received as to the extent of the damage, or injuries to passengers.

Shops Damaged. "Some fifteen houses of working class people were demolished and a large number of small shops and dwelling houses were injured, some seriously but many slightly."

"The latest returns of casualties show that twenty-six men, twenty-eight women and seven children were killed, and that forty-eight men, forty-six women and seven children were injured."

"It is not proposed in future to issue detailed statements of this character, as it is inadvisable to give information to the enemy as to the results of their air attacks. On the occasion of this raid, however, in which the largest number, so far, of airships have been employed, this statement of the damage done is given in order to show how unfounded is the claim that the economic life of Great Britain or its military preparation can be appreciably affected by promiscuous bombing from airships wandering over the country in the dark."

Calls It Disappointing. In the twenty-nine raids, great and small, that have taken place over Great Britain since the war began, 133 men, of whom seventeen were soldiers, ninety women and forty-three children have been killed. But when it is remembered that in the Lusitania alone 1,136 persons were drowned, Zeppelin raids as a means of murdering innocent civilians must be comparatively disappointing to its promoters."

Doctor Says Nuxated Iron Will Increase Strength of Delicate People 200% in Ten Days

In many instances—Persons have suffered untold agony for years doctoring for nervous weakness, stomach, liver or kidney disease or some other ailment when their real trouble was lack of iron in the blood.—How to tell.

New York, N. Y.—In a recent discourse Dr. E. Sauer, Specialist, of this city said: "If you were to make an actual blood test on all people who are ill you would probably be greatly surprised at the exceedingly large number who lack iron and who are ill for no other reason than the lack of it. The moment iron is supplied all their ailments disappear." Dr. Sauer's theory is that iron is the blood at once imparts the power to change food into living tissue and therefore nothing you eat does you any good; you don't get the strength out of it. Your food merely passes through your system live once through the mill can't grind. As a result of this continuous blood and nerve starvation, people become generally weakened, nervous and all run down and frequently develop all sorts of conditions. One who is iron deficient is burdened with undesirable fat; some are so weak they can hardly walk; some think they have dyspepsia, kidney or liver trouble; some can't sleep at night, others are sleepy and tired all day; some funny and irritable; some skinny and bloodless, but all lack physical power and endurance. In such cases, it is worse than foolishness to take stimulating medicines or narcotic drugs, which only whip up your flagging vital powers for the moment, maybe at the expense of your life later on. No matter what any one tells you, if you are not strong and well you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take ten five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times a day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous run-down people who were ailing all the time double and even triple their strength and endurance and get rid of all their symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days simply by taking iron in the proper form, and this after they had in vain used every doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. You can talk as you please about all the wonders wrought by case remedies, but when you come down to hard facts there is nothing like good old iron to restore to you your health and good sound, healthy flesh on your bones. It is also a great nerve and stomach strengthener and the best blood builder in the world. The only trouble was that the old forms of iron salts from the laboratory of iron iron, iron, etc., often ruined people's teeth, upset their stomachs and were not assimilated and for those reasons were frequently did more harm than good. But with the discovery of the newer forms of nuxated iron, and this has been ascertained. Nuxated Iron, for example, is pleasant to take, does not injure the teeth and is almost immediately beneficial.

NOTE—The manufacturers of Nuxated Iron have such unbounded confidence in its potency that they guarantee it to give you the strength you will forget $100.00 on any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under sixty whose iron and blood is so low that they are unable to do their usual work, or who are over in four weeks time, provided they have no serious organic disease. They will refund your money in any case in which Nuxated Iron does not at least double your strength in ten days time. It is dispensed in bottles by Dr. Sauer & McCoslin, Drug Store and all other druggists.—Advertisement.
