Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO. Feb. 10.—Renewal of export buying helped to rally the wheat market today, after a sharp break that was due to an unusual whirl of speculative stop-loss orders to sell. The close was nervous, at the same as vesterday's linish to %c down, with May at $1.27% [6]. 1.27% and July at $1.20%. Corn gained 127% and July at $1.20%. Corn gained 127% and July at $1.20%. Corn gained 127% and July at $1.20%. Contained 127% and July at $1.20%. Notwithstanding that quotations at Liverpeol showed unexpected firmness, it was not until after the market here had undergone a severe tumble that signs of fresh activity on the part of exporters began to develop. Estimates of the amount purchased for Europe put the total at only $60,000 bushels, but in view of the previous nearly complete stoppage of business with foreigners the effect was to restore in a measure the confidence of the bulls. The sudden flurry of stop-loss seiling, which for a time overwhelmed the market, came about as a result of moderate initial advance here that gave a new opportunity to discouraged holders who had been unable to unload on yesterday's decline. On the setback which ensued resting orders to sell were automatically brought into execution wholesale.

Emphasis to the foreign demands for wheat was given by an opinion from a leading authority that the world's import requirements this season would be 24,000,000 bushels in excess of the total as figured two weeks ago. Predictions were also current that shipments from Arsentina and Australia would remain light. There were forecasts, too, of continued smalliness of domestic arrivals in the northwest and of green bug danger in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri. Corn developed strength, owing to seaboard hints that export transactions were under way. A bulge in prices at Liverpool and a reduction of estimates of the Arsentine exportable surplus tended to confirm the prevailing gossip.

Oats hardened with corn. Toward the end of the day houses with seaboard connection were active bu was established in Michigan City, Indiana, in 1852.

Summary of Facts Concerning this Company and its Capital Stock: This Company, incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, has taken over the business of the Haskell & Barker Car Company which

The new Company starts business with only one class of stock, no bonds. notes or floating indebtedness of any kind and has working capital to the extent of $4,500,000. It is the belief of the Trustees from whom this business was taken over that from its inception the Company has never had an unsuccessful year with the one exception of 1893, a record believed to be unequalled by any other car company in the country Messrs. Stone & Webster report that the plant of the Company is equipped to manufacture freight cars of every description and is considered one of the most complete and up-to-date plants of its kind in the country. Its location in Michigan City, Indiana, is ideal from the standpoint of labor, source of raw material and distribution of its products. Profits for the years 1913 and 1914 amounted to $1,200,000 and $1,108,000 respectively, equivalent to 11% and 10% on the capitalization of the new Company, figuring this stock at $50.00 per share. The Company has taken over from the old concern orders for 7,844 freight cars and other materials, sufficient to keep the plant operating at full capacity for several months.

A strong and competent management is assured by the personnel of the Board of Directors, which is composed of: Edward F. Carry, Ambrose Monell, William E. Corey,
Frank A. Vanderlip,
Edwin S. Webster,
