CHARLEY THORP OF TURF FAME DEAD

One-Time World's Premier Jockey Dies Practically Penniless in Omaha.

HE RODE "ON THE SQUARE"

Charley Thorp, once world's premier jockey who won fame and fortune riding winners under the wire before Europe's crowned heads, died practically penniless at 1 o'clock yesterday in his room at 106 South Twenty-fourth stree.t

He died after suffering two weeks from illness which a day or two ago developed into pneumonia. He was about 52 years old.

When but a rac, he removed to Whiting, la., with his parents from Chicago, where he was born. His place and he won the first race of a career that was destined to be a most eventfut one. His last race was in Paris where he rode the $20,000 beauty "Yo Tambian" to victory for Count De Harcourt.

Connected with Royal Stables. Previous to this race, he had been consected with the royal stables of England at an enormous retaining fee. Sporting records are replete with thrilling race statistics in which he figured.

Hois was in the day when herse racing and other famous ones came after, and used, 100 to the match. hieved by Thorp.

When increased weight forced him from the saddle, he retired permanently from the turf game, and established himmif at Geneva, Neb., where he lived with figure in sporting circles. His holdings at the time of retirement were variously extimated as being closs to a million dollars but, as the years passed, his wealth gradually dwindled.

He Tended Bar. During the last few years he had been employed as bartender in several Omaha buffet. Bert Dixon of Dixon's buffet had is services for a long time, but a month before he fell sick he was engaged by "Dec" I rue of the Exchange buffet in the South Side.
