

PHYSICIAN WRITES OF SCARLET FEVER

Chicago Expert Says Omaha Health Department Properly Taking Care of Epidemic.

HE ADVISES MORE INSPECTION

Health Commissioner Connell wrote Dr. W. A. Evans of Chicago an outline of the scarlet fever situation in Omaha, explaining what has been done by the health department. Dr. Evans is former health commissioner of Chicago and is well known throughout the country in his profession. His reply to Dr. Connell reads as follows:

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Dear Dr. Connell: I have your letter of February 7 enclosing letter to Dr. Case of February 7. I am sure the measures you are employing will control the epidemic. My few suggestions are of minor importance and should not be allowed to interfere with your program.

I think you are somewhat overdoing rather than leaving undone. If you will make your paper program a little easier you will get better observance. One nurse to three schools is scarcely enough now that your dissemination is so great in the community.

You do not mention school physicians. There should be at least a few in doubtful cases. The advisability of taking all children from infected homes out of school and keeping them out for at least eight days. It is better to register them and require them to attend school but to be inspected the first thing each morning. The slightest cold or other ailment in such a child should call for quarantine.

Spend less money on fumigation and put it in inspectors and nurses. Fumigation of cars, picture shows, etc., can be done away with. Providence and some other places do not fumigate homes. Feeling as a nurse for a long time of quarantine holds some cases too long. Throat, nose and ear conditions is a better criterion.

It strikes me you ought to have more inspectors—especially school inspectors, and nurses and contagion inspectors among your milkmen. A proper rule is one requiring appropriate treatment of the patient but to be removed when convalescent.

I feel certain, doctor, that most of these points you cover, but you failed to note them in your letter to Dr. Case.

Old South Side City Hall Burns, Driving Sleepers Into Cold

The old Riley block, 406-10-12 South Twenty-sixth, South Side, was the scene of a spectacular fire at 4:30 a. m. The place has been inhabited by seventy-five persons, most of them packing house employees. Fifteen women and their children were routed out when a gasoline stove explosion in one of the rooms started a blaze.

The building is of brick and frame construction and of an old type. When the fire department arrived the frightened dwellers of the building were hurrying downstairs with trunks and other personal effects. Men, women and children were exposed to the chilly air. Women threw blankets over the little ones and the men tried to save clothes and furniture.

After a struggle of an hour and a half the firemen had the blaze under control. The second story of the building was damaged. It was not determined just how the explosion occurred, but the theory is that an early riser was preparing his breakfast. The loss was $2,500. The building was used for city hall purposes before the new municipal building was opened. The building was the property of Judge W. A. Redick.

Pythian Knights Confer Degrees

Nebraska lodge, No. 1, Knights of Pythias, conferred the rank of Page last Monday evening, the new officers receiving much praise from visiting members for the excellent manner in which the degree was conferred. After full justice had been rendered to the suspicious report prepared by Brothers Arnold and Brown the members enjoyed an old-fashioned talk and card social. Brothers Fife and Rotholz, as usual, gaining stellar honors at cards. Brother Harrison did very well, considering. Brother Fife had occasion to assert, with much emphasis, that "no gentleman would lead from a sneak." Monday evening of this week the lodge will confer the rank of Esquire on a class of candidates, and all Knights are earnestly requested to attend. A "stag" party is promised for the near future.

The body will be taken Monday to Geneva for burial. Geneva is the former home of Thorpe, where he lived before he started his career on the turf.

FATHER OF HOLDUP VICTIM COMPLIMENTS DETECTIVES

M. Whittaker, father of Earl Whittaker, who with Roy Coe, driver for the Chicago laundry company, was held up January 11, is strong in his praise for the police department, especially Detectives Rich and Pasanowski, who in less than a week had arrested and secured a confession from the two men who accomplished the robbery. Gilbert and Arnold Dornan now await trial in the district court for this and other offenses.
