Alleged Head of Texas Revolution Is Under Arrest. BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 12.—Aniceto Pizana, alleged leader of the "Texas revolution," held responsible for border troubles and general unrest last summer and fall, was captured yesterday and brought to Matamoros, Mex., opposite here, according to an official report to Colonel A. P. Blockson, commanding the United States border patrol, today.

With Pizana were captured four other alleged Mexican bandits. All are being held incommunicado in the Matamoros jail.

The request for the arrest of Pizana and his alleged partner, Luis De La Rosa, were sent some weeks ago by Governor James E. Ferguson of Texas to Governor Luis Caballero, of the state of Tamaulipas, Mexico. A reward of $1,000 had been offered by the state of Texas for the capture of either of the alleged leaders, dead or alive.
