Rourke Completes Deal by Which Omaha Club Will Train in the Southern Nebraska City.

SIoux TO GO TO FAIRBURY

W. A. Rourke, owner of the Omaha club, last night made arrangements for the Rourke to train at Beatrice for three weeks starting March 26. Rourke was in Beatrice and completed the negotiations there last night. The Omaha magazine has been in communication with Beatrice for some time, but the deal was not officially consummated until yesterday. Rourke left Beatrice last night for Fairbury, where he will act as agent for Ed Hanlon of Sioux City. Hanlon wants to train at Fairbury. Rourke recently received a letter from Fairbury saying that that city would welcome the Sioux, so it is practically arranged that Omaha and Sioux City will train in nearby towns. Rourke and Hanlon figure a big advantage in training at Fairbury and Beatrice. The two towns are but an hour apart and the two teams can play a number of games at small expense. Also it will be only a short jaunt for Lincoln to visit either of these southern Nebraska cities and even Topoka and St. Joseph could drop over for a game or two.

Why Colds Are So Prevalent

It is not the cold itself but the serious diseases it so often leads to that makes a common cold by far the most dangerous of any of the minor ailments. The cold prepares your system for the reception and development of the germs of pneumonia, consumption, diphtheria and other germ diseases. The quicker you cure the cold the less the danger. To accomplish this you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most effective. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Coe College Five Wins Iowa Title From Grinnell

GRINNELL, Ia., Feb. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Coe won the Iowa conference championship here this afternoon by defeating the Grinnell college quintet, 17 to 15. Grinnell led at the end of the first half, 12 to 8, having clearly outplayed Coe throughout the twenty minutes, but a whitening attack by the Grinnell five in the second period gradually closed up the gap until the score stood 15 all four minutes before the final gun sounded. Yull of Coe dropped in the remaining basket and although Grinnell made a desperate attempt to tie the score they could not get through the superb defense of the visitors. Yull was the individual star of the Coe team, although both Rogers and Rust put up an excellent game for Grinnell. Norris, Augustine and Meacham did the best work. The lineup: GRINNELL: Yull, C. E. R. P., R. P., Somers, Rogers, Martin, G. R. G., Augustus, Rust, Augustus, G. R. G., L. G., Swan, Sublette, Lassar, for Meacham. One of Every Ten of Us Dies a Pauper

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 22.—State superintendents of public instruction, college professors, principals and business men joined in a "brief" discussion at a meeting tonight of the National Council of Education. The council is one of twenty-one bodies allied with the National Educational association which are to hold sessions in Detroit this week. R. W. Straus, a Chicago banker, who is president of the American Society for Thrift, declared that although the United States is a prosperous nation "we are not a prosperous people," and backed up his assertion with the declaration that one person out of every ten who dies in any of the large cities is buried in a pauper's field. "Statistics show that in the United States there are only 100 who save money out of every 1,000 population," he added. "This compares with 554 in Switzerland."

BREWSTER TALKS NATIONAL DEFENSE

Speaks Before the Local National Defense League at the City Council Chamber.

SECRETARY OF THE MAYORS

"The United States is a body of land surrounded by trouble. The world is on fire and there is no telling where the sparks may fall," declared William Brewster of East Orange, N. Y., addressing members of the local National Defense committee yesterday afternoon in the city council chamber. Mr. Brewster is completing a tour of cities, as secretary of a committee of mayors who have called a National Defense congress, to be held at St. Louis on March 3 and 4. Mayor Dahlgren, one of nine mayors issuing the call, appointed a local committee of fifty-four, some of whom have expressed intentions of going to St. Louis next week. Mr. Brewster told the group before him that this nation has developed its resources and industries to a high state of perfection, but has neglected its underlying security, namely, national defense. Building Navy is Slow Process. "You can't put an appropriation into a slot machine and draw out a navy," he said. "It is a slow process. Admiral Fiske has told us it will take five years, working twenty-four hours a day at feverish heat, to establish a navy which would be second among the nations. We are urging national defense, not for offense, but to insure ourselves against invasion and to maintain our national dignity and honor. This is not a war scare fostered by the munitions manufacturers. In our national life we have reached the stop-look-listen stage. This is the psychological moment to get our defenses in perfect trim. "Our foreign policies are as strong as our ability to defend them. There is no love between nations. Political expediency, toleration and respect, based upon fear, exists between nations. Four Kinds of Pacifists. "During my travels through many states I have met four classes of pacifists. The first class are merely asleep in their false sense of security. The second class are persons opposed to adequate defense because of the expense. Another class are opposed to preparedness because of religious scruples, and the fourth class are militant pacifists who would rather fight against preparedness than prepare against fighting." Mr. Brewster said that a grave injustice had been done certain foreign-born citizens, of whose loyalty he has observed ample evidence. He explained that the purpose of the St. Louis conference is to impress Congress with the necessity of acting promptly in passing legislation for national defense.

RUSS CONTINUE PURSUIT OF TURKS

Victorious Muscovites Push Forward from Center at Erzerum and on Both Flanks.

OTTOMAN FLIGHT PRECIPITATE

PETROGRAD, Feb. 22.—(Via London.)—Both on the center in the Erzerum district and on the widely extended northern and southern flanks the Russians are everywhere continuing with energy pursuit of the routed Turkish armies. The Russian advance is having the effect, not entirely of severing all connections between the now isolated Turkish army group, but of constantly strengthening communications of their own forces, from the Black Sea district to the recently occupied town of Mush on the southern Russian wing. Thus the operations of the Russians are assuming the shape of a solid and unbroken advance along the entire front. On the Black sea coast the Russians have now driven the Turks twenty miles west of Vitzueu and the occupation of Trebizond is believed to be imminent. Turkish Retreat Precipitate. The Turks, evidently impressed with the headway the Russian forces are making, appear to be inspired with the sole aim of extricating themselves from their difficult position before they are surrounded and are making no effort to hold endangered points now in their possession. With a minimum of resistance consisting chiefly of perfunctory rear-guard actions, the Turkish retreat is one of the most precipitate of the war. With Mush and Achlat in their possession, the Russian forces on the southern wing are now proceeding towards Bitlis. Once their objective is obtained, Lake Van, which has been the scene of important fighting since the beginning of the Caucasian campaign, will rest securely in Russian hands. Russ Strengthen Communications. The successful Russian operations near Knushkala, officially recorded, are of importance in respect of the strengthening of communications between the center and the right flank. According to the latest dispatches reaching Petrograd from the Caucasian front, the Turkish losses at Erzerum are estimated at 40,000 killed, wounded and prisoners.

Lansing Gives Reason for Declining to Act

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The reason Secretary of State Lansing declined the invitation of William Church Osborn, chairman of the democratic state committee of New York, to become permanent chairman of the approaching democratic state convention was that to act in this capacity might be "misconstrued and might subject the foreign policies of the government to the criticism of partisan bias." "Our foreign policies are as strong as our ability to defend them. There is no love between nations. Political expediency, toleration and respect, based upon fear, exists between nations. Four Kinds of Pacifists. "During my travels through many states I have met four classes of pacifists. The first class are merely asleep in their false sense of security. The second class are persons opposed to adequate defense because of the expense. Another class are opposed to preparedness because of religious scruples, and the fourth class are militant pacifists who would rather fight against preparedness than prepare against fighting." Mr. Brewster said that a grave injustice had been done certain foreign-born citizens, of whose loyalty he has observed ample evidence. He explained that the purpose of the St. Louis conference is to impress Congress with the necessity of acting promptly in passing legislation for national defense.

SCHREIBER STRONG FOR WORKHOUSE

Tells Woman's Club Municipal Farm is a Moral Hospital Which Works Wonders.

HEAR ANTI-SPITTING PLANS

Paul Schreiber, newly appointed superintendent of the Welfare board, outlined the plans of the board to the social science department of the Woman's club Monday afternoon. A campaign of publicity which will make a household term of the words "welfare board" is one of the things planned. To investigate social and industrial conditions in the city; to co-operate with all public and private organizations engaged in the same sort of work yet to prevent duplication; and to undertake the odds and ends not cared for through other departments—these are among the aims of the department. "The financial burden for this work should be by tax alone, not by voluntary contributions, for this is not a charitable organization even if it seems to be dealing with cases which merit charity. Prevention rather than remedy shall be our slogan," he said. Political pressure is an evil the board will avoid, according to the new superintendent. Superintendent Schreiber is an enthusiastic advocate of the municipal farm and workhouse, on which special subject he addressed the Woman's club. "A municipal farm is a moral hospital where wholesome, healthful labor will work wonders in restoring self-respect to petty and even hardened offenders. It should not be run as a proposition to make money," he declared. "In the ordinary jail, the petty offender comes out a worse man than when he was imprisoned," according to Superintendent Schreiber. Mrs. K. R. J. Edholm asked the aid of the Woman's club in promoting Mrs. H. C. Sumney's anti-spit campaign. Jacobson Goes Back. The St. Louis club has released Outfielder Jacobson to the Little Rock club of the Southern league.

BOMBARDIER WELLS KNOCKS OUT SMITH

GETS DECISION UPON POINTS

LONDON, Feb. 22.—P. O'Keefe, who knocked out Dick Smith in the third round of their bout tonight for the heavy-weight championship of England. Pat O'Keefe, middleweight champion of England, tonight defeated Jim Sullivan in a twenty-round bout on points. The fight was for the middleweight championship. Wells, who began nervously, soon regained confidence when he found that he could outbox Smith, and landed several left jabs on his opponent in the first round. In the next round, Wells fought Smith all over the ring, landing jabs and swings when he liked. Soon after the opening of the third round Wells got home a hard right uppercut which put Smith to the floor, where he remained "out" for several minutes. The Sullivan-O'Keefe fight was a give and take affair. There were several sharp exchanges in the first round. The men seemed well matched, but for three rounds Sullivan plainly had the better of it. Honors were even in the next six rounds; then O'Keefe started hurricane fighting in which he demonstrated that he was Sullivan's master in the fighting game. The tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth rounds were O'Keefe's. He sustained a severe cut over the eye in the fifteenth, however, and in the sixteenth was nearly knocked out by a vicious right swifter. The bell came to his rescue. In the seventeenth also O'Keefe was badly punished, and there was much clinching in the next two rounds. In the final round the men fought hard and the exchanges apparently favored Sullivan. There was loud disapproval of from some quarters when the referee gave the decision to O'Keefe.
