The work of making supplies for the French hospitals will be continued, especially the rolling of bandages. Contributions to the committee of which Mrs. August M. Borglum is chairman are still coming into the society and the list of Omaha foster parents to war orphans is increasing.

Guest at The Elms. Mr. J. L. Baker of Omaha is a guest at The Elms hotel, Excelsior Springs, Mo.

BENSON GIRLS HAVE ORGANIZED COOKING CLASS. The first meeting of the Benson Domestic Science club, organized by Miss Jessie Bellis, met Tuesday evening at the West side school house and had their first instruction under Miss Verda Sanborn. Those in the class are: Misses—Emma Freeman, Fern Plackard, Nora Sawyer, Anna Campbell, Mable Stenberg, Cora Jones, Jessie Bellis, Anna Christensen, Anna Nilsson, Marie Evers, Mildred Tittel, Vera Marshall, Ruby Davey, Grace Stenberg, Mrs. Lily Kroeyer.

SOCIETY GIRLS AT WORK FOR SAILORS. But They Are Leading English Maids and They Pack Vegetables for North Sea Fleet.

LETTER TO AN OMAHA GIRL. By MELLIPIC—March 2. Miss Dorothy Marie Brown, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Brown, who was at school for three years in England, has received an interesting folder from a former schoolmate telling of the "Vegetable Products Committee." The committee itself reads like a page of Burke's Peerage with a surplus and over of dukes and earls.

Fashion Hints. Black and white are always fashionable and appropriate on the woman who favors conservative color contrasts.

By LA RAconteuse. The folder brings out the curious fact that the men of the British navy must buy at their own expense all fresh fruits and vegetables they may eat.

Miss Brown's English schoolmate, Miss Joyce Hanson of Gainsborough, is at the head of a circle of girls who give all their time to the packing of fruits and vegetables collected, working as long hours as any packing house employee with long stretches of overtime. The Hanson home, "The Morton," a very gay social center before the war, has been turned into a packing and shipping establishment.

It is considered a great mark of social favor to be allowed to work for the Vegetable Products committee, and the girls so honored are determined to prove their worthiness. Dinners Preceding the Dance. The last Subscription club dance of the season will be given this evening at Turpin's hall. It will not be until the middle of next October before the club will again take up these very popular affairs which have added very much to the social life of this season.

The largest dinner of this evening will be given at the Omaha club by Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Judson. Forty guests will be seated at small tables. A profusion of all the spring flowers, tulips, daffodils, jonquils, violets, hyacinths and lilies of the valley will work out a beautiful decorative scheme. The guests of honor will be Mrs. James H. Learned of Boston, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wilson Low, and Mrs. Titian J. Coffey of Los Angeles, who will visit her sister, Mrs. Helen B. Baldwin, during Lent.

Another dinner of the evening will be given by the Charles C. George at their home to ten guests. Spring flowers will decorate the dining room and table. The out-of-town guest will be Mrs. Meredith Nicholson of Indianapolis, who is now visiting her brother, Mr. Charles Thomas Kounin.

Miss Ida Sharp gives another dinner with spring flowers in her decorative scheme. The affair will be at her home to twelve guests. The O. C. Redicks will dine informally at their home, with eight guests, preceding the dance.

Relief Corps Meets. The Kensington of the U. S. Grant Woman's Relief corps Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. R. F. Schneider, was well attended. Some interesting facts were brought to light concerning our martyred president, Lincoln.

One item of interest was that many years later the daughter of the hostess began her school life in the identical building in which the famous Almasac trial was held. Also that Mr. Andrew Traynor was firman on the engine "Volcan" that drew Lincoln's private car. Those present were: Mesdames—L. A. Talferro, B. F. Diefenbacher, G. W. Munger, A. A. Whitney, E. E. Crane, A. A. Foster, Harriet S. MacG., A. A. Foster, Murphy, G. S. Gault, Bessie Davis, Jerome Lillie, J. Court, R. B. Wilcox, A. M. Newell, Emilie Necker, Thomas Allen, R. F. Schneider, C. H. Apperson, William McMurtry, C. H. Apperson, Misses—Cora Stern, R. M. Wille, Sophie Schneider.

Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Owen McCaffrey celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary at their home Wednesday evening. The rooms were decorated in Killarney roses. Miss Helen McCaffrey, assisted by the younger members of the families, were in charge of the arrangements, which were successfully planned to be a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. McCaffrey. The affair was opened by a dinner.

How I Killed My Superfluous Hair. Hindoo Secret Banished It So It Never Returned After Electricity and Many Depilatories Had Failed. LET ME HELP YOU ABSOLUTELY FREE. Until nearly middle age I was sorely troubled by hindoo Superfluous Hair on my face and a heavy mustache on my lip and a tough beard on my chin. My hair was also heavily covered. I tried one thing after another without success. The electric depilator made the growth worse. Finally, my hair was shaved by the Hindoo Secret, which is a simple and safe method of removing hair from any part of the body except the head. I used it and in a few days my hair-growth had entirely disappeared. Today not a trace of it can be seen.
