

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Cash Wheat Ranges Unchanged to Half Cent Higher, with Most Sales at the Advance.

CORN MARKET IS ACTIVE

OMAHA, March 3, 1916. All cereals were in good demand today and there was a general advance in prices.

Wheat ranged from unchanged to half higher. The receipt of this cereal was not very heavy and the bulk of the receipts were from the advance.

Corn was especially active, selling from unchanged to half higher. Most of the samples were good, rather soft, although a few cars of the poorer stuff sold at yesterday's prices.

Receipts of this cereal were very light and the demand was rather slow. Rye and barley sold at practically unchanged prices.

SCHOOL MA'AM IS LADY BOUNTIFUL

Miss Grace Hungerford Provides Shoes and Stockings for Poor Kiddies of Mason School.

THANKSGIVING FUND EXPENDED

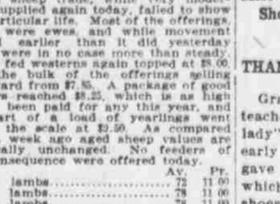

Grace Hungerford kindergarten teacher at Mason school, is the "shoe lady" of the school. During the early winter a public-spirited man gave the school a check for money which he asked should be spent for shoes and stockings for needy children.

Principal Christianity of this school keeps a box of graham crackers in her locker and frequently she dispenses them to children whose faces indicate they need something in their little "tumblers."

Prof. Peters Speaks Before German Club: Bellevue College German club enjoyed an unusually instructive meeting Thursday evening with Prof. Walter A. Peters talking to the members on "The German War Situation."
