

Elsasser Family Has Its Annual Reunion in Omaha

The annual reunion of the Elsasser family, said to be the largest in Omaha, was held Friday evening in the pavilion of Hanscom park. Seventy-five couples were on the dance floor, while the elderly and infant members watched the terpsichorean frolics of their relatives. The heads of the various branches of this extensive family are William, Jacob, Fred, Peter, Herman, Chris, Mrs. W. F. Rice and Mrs. Charles Getachmann. They have families ranging from fifteen to four children each. These reared families have grown to such an extent that it is necessary to have a reunion to get them all together.

DANISH FOLK DANCES AT WASHINGTON HALL TODAY

Old-time Danish folk dances in appropriate costumes will be features of a dance to be given Sunday evening at Washington hall by the Danish Sisterhood, an organization with a membership of 800. Mrs. C. F. Sorenson has charge of the program and will be assisted by Mesdames C. A. Derecke, Christ Jensen, Charles Hertl, J. W. Smith and Jens Larsen. Sixteen young men and women will offer the folk dances.

NATIONAL CREDIT MEN MAY HOLD MEETING HERE

Omaha may be selected for the next meeting place of the National Credit Men's association. The convention is to be held in August. E. V. Parrish of the bureau of publicity and J. W. Metralife, secretary of the Associated Retailers of Omaha, are working for Omaha as the meeting place.

FUNERAL OF MISS HARTWELL IS TO BE HELD TODAY

The funeral of Miss Milved Hartwell, 18 years old, who died of scarlet fever at her home, 225 North Eighteenth street, will be held Sunday afternoon at the Stack & Falconer undertaking chapel. Burial will be in Forest Lawn.

Miss Hartwell had been sick only eight days. She worked at the Butta Typewriter exchange since graduating from the high school last year.

Three sisters survive her, Mrs. Alcott and Miss Kate Hartwell of Omaha and Mrs. Hazel Abdell of Salt Lake City.
