SMITH FILES FOR OFFICE OF AUDITOR

Concludes He Will Take Another Chance After Making Quite a Long Wait.

HE ISSUES A STATEMENT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 6.—(Special.)—State Auditor Smith has concluded he will take another chance and this morning prevailed upon the secretary of state to allow him to make a filing for a second term. Mr. Smith has been waiting patiently to see if there was not some other democrat who would be willing to go up against the almost certain defeat that will meet the democratic ticket the coming election, but none has come forth with the necessary nerve, and sooner than seen the place left vacant he gets in. He files a statement in which he calls attention to the stand made by him the last time he ran, in which he said, if elected, he would run the office just the same as he used to run his print shop, and he has kept his word.

Adam McMullen of Beatrice, who served both valiantly and well in the legislatures of 1906 and 1907, the republican sessions which made most of the good laws of the state and which has enabled the democrats to get through on without bankrupting it, although they have tried to have some of them declared unconstitutional, filed this morning for the republican nomination for the state senate from the Fourteenth district, represented in the last session by Senator Spencer, also a republican, who has also filed for renomination.

W. O. Henry of Omaha has filed for the progressive nomination for the United States senate. John E. Henry of Howells files for renomination on the democratic ticket for the state senate from the Tenth district, represented by him in the last session.

Twenty Wolves Are Killed in Cass County

WEEPING WATER, Neb., March 6.—(Special.)—There probably never has been a winter when wolves were noted in such great numbers in Cass county as has been the case this year. Farmers in driving along the road during the daytime will see as many as three or four wolves within a few miles distance. Farmers in this part of the county have been active to exterminate them, however, and organized hunts are being held every few days. As many as 400 or 500 men participate in these hunts. In the last thirty days about twenty wolves have been killed by the organized hunting parties and others have been killed at other times. A big hunt was held yesterday in the woods and along the creek south of town and nine wolves were sighted, but none killed.

Roads Seek to Quash Injunction

(From a Staff Correspondent.) They allege that the order made is illegal and that the roads are in need of the raise in order to continue business at the old stand.

Cass Sunday School Dates

WEEPING WATER, Neb., March 6.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Cass county Sunday school executive committee held at Union dates for the district conventions in the county were set and are as follows: First district convention at Plattsmouth April 4, Second district convention at Weeping Water April 5, Third district convention at Wabash April 6. The dates are earlier than usual, with the idea that more enthusiasm can thus be worked up for the state convention at Falls City in June. The county convention will be held at Murdock in September.

Nebraska Twenty-Niner Gets Postcard Shower on Birthday

AURORA, Neb., March 6.—(Special.)—With but one more birthday before she reaches the age of 100 years, Mrs. George Kemper of this city is still celebrating her ninety-second birthday in the receipt of postal cards from all over the United States. Already she has received 1,700 cards and each visit of the mail man brings more. Mrs. Kemper's birthday occurred February 29, she having been born at Burdick, Westphalia, Germany, on that day in 1824. She now resides with her daughter, Mrs. William Weingarten.

Several days ago, a friend of Mrs. Kemper wrote the following message to the Kansas City Star: "My thoughts center on a lovely old lady, a widow, a slutt-in for many years, who is deaf, but retains all other faculties perfectly. February 29 will be her birthday. What a happy surprise a card shower would be to her."

This was printed in what is known of the "Chaparral Column" of the Kansas City paper and the shower came sure enough. More than a small sack of cards and other remembrances have been sent her. Among the messages sent her were flowers. One woman from South Carolina sent a large package of violets. The only complaint entered by Mrs. Kemper was the statement of the paper that she is 34 years of age. She declares that she has two good years to live before she reaches that age.

Mrs. Kemper and her daughter are at a loss how to answer all of the kind and loving messages sent by kind friends in this way. It has filled her days with happiness and she is grateful for these 1,700 messages of good cheer.

Aldrich Addresses Y. M. C. A. Meeting at Aurora Sunday

AURORA, Neb., March 6.—(Special.)—"Any time the church sentiment of this nation and that of its friends rises up and demands something, that something will be injected into American public life," declared former Governor Chester H. Aldrich in his address on "The Relation of the Church to Good Government," before the men's meeting of the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon.

The governor's address was a powerful appeal for the united front of the church people and their friends for the passage of the dry amendment this fall. He declared that the men of the church in Nebraska can without doubt wipe out the saloon this fall. Chief Justice Andrew M. Morrissey of the Nebraska supreme court will address the men's meeting next Sunday afternoon on the subject, "Law and its Administration."

LIQUOR LAWS ENFORCED IN DAKOTA, SAYS TALCOTT
