IT'S A LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY

But it is not very far from Alliance to Crawford. If you are going to Alliance to the land drawing, kiss your wife good-bye, or have her pack her shoes in your grip and bring her along, and come to Crawford, where you have wanted to come for so long, I know you have been reading my stuff in the eastern papers for the last few years, and I know that many a time you said: 'If I was as good a liar as that man I would have more groney.' Your wife has said: 'Yes, John, you were always too honest to ohn, you were always too honest to John, you were always too honest to be worth very much." Now you have a chance to ascertain whether you have been fooling yourself or whether Hungerford is "that great big liar" you have always thought him to be! I still claim, and still stand unsuccessfully challenged, that I have got the best "Land of Opportunity" in the United States today. You can take a quarter section here and make it pay just as many dollars as any quarter section in the east that is today selling at $150 per acre. Yet this quarter section here I will sell you at from $15 to $20 per acre, or, if you want to set right close to town, I might soak you as high as $30 per acre—but, in either instance, I will give you a good tark chocolate soil that will raise you "set anything you reced it o—aifalfa, potatoes, small grain of all kinds and from $5 to 46 bushels of corn to the acre. (We don't claim much for corn. our evenings are too cold.) our evenings are too cold.)

Now don't be a piker all your life; don't be a renter any longer; don't buy or stay tied up to that high-priced land and keep your nose to the grindstone paying interest; come here to good old northwest Nebraska, "The Land of Independence, the Garden Beyond the Sand Hills," and let me sell you a home which within a couple or three years you can absolutely call "your own," and not owe a man a dollar. I have helped many another man—let me help you. I will meet you on any reasonable terms, and if you happen to choose on any piace I own myself I will sell it to you on a small payment down and take crop payments on the balance. I know what the country will do and would just as soon sell you this way as any other.

Don't judge the country until I have taken you out. The railroad runs through the poorest part we have. Come to my office us soon as you arrive in town, and don't even whisper to yourself an opinion until after we have been driving out for some 15 to 30 minutes, then tear loose and tell me what you think about ME and MY COUNTRY. If you don't buy a place, it will be because you haven't got enough money to make a closing payment.

You owe me a visit, now be a good

Calve, the world's most famous Carmen, and Gasparri, the eminent Italian tenor, will be heard for the last two times, matines and night today. Three special features will ornament the new bill for next week, starting Sunday matinee. Lydia Barry, the dashing singing comedienne, and the classic interpretative dancer, Roshanara, will be jointly headlined, while Ralph Dunbar's Singing Bell Ringers will be presented as an extra special feature.

Brandeis: "Somewhere in France."

"Somewhere in France," the pictures taken by Bonald C. Thompson, globe-trotter and daredevil war photographer, who has snapped his camera on the bat-tlefields of Europe along every front, are now being shown at the Brandels thea-ter to large and enthusiastic audiences. Thompson's utter fearleasness, his disre-gard for personal danger, his willingness to take a chance by prying in where he was not supposed to go made it possible for him to secure better pictures than any man working among the armies.

There are twelve reels of vivid, realistic spectacles in "The Birth of a Nation," which will return to the Brandels thauter for a run of four days, beginning next Sunday afternoon. Scenes are unfolded in which fully 18,000 soldiers and 2,000 cavairy the largest theatrical army ever assembled, are active in the performance of the good and bad deeds of warfare. Matinees will be given daily during the engagement.

Fid Lee Wroth, who has been playing at the popular dayety all week, will after today's matinee say "Goodbye" to his old home town until another season. "Sliding Billy" Watson, who is with him, will slide on to Kansas City. Tonight at the Gayety another new title will be offered to lovers of musical burleaque—"The Smilling Beauties." The company is headed by Harry K. Morton. Zella Russell and Jolly June Mills, and has been giving a good account of fiself all along the circuit. The burletta, "Suffragettes" Convention in 2016," is said to be a scream.

The photopiay, "Passers By," featuring Charles Cherry, will be shown today at the Hoyd for the last time. The photoversion was taken from the book and also the drama of the same name, which an so successfully.

Heginning temorrow and for Monday he photoplay version of "Damaged loods," presented with Richard Bennett and the original cast, will be shown from 0 a. m. to 11 p. m. at reduced prices.
