President Pioneer Junior League Has Some Depot Ideas

"If the most amiable hick-burg that ever disturbed the peace by its snore has anything to say in the way of depot ideas I'll bet a fellow could make money selling photographs of it to the funny masses."

This little impromptu speech was made in the court house by C. T. Williams, contractor and president of the Omaha Junior Pioneers' league. He was talking to Harry Pearce, registrar of deeds.

A regular 5-cent tobacco cigar was in his teeth when he started talking, but as he warmed to his subject, he got excited and commenced chewing.

"Take that Northwestern depot at Fifteenth and Webster. That's a riot. Why the bugs and vermin are so thick in that place that a monkey'd go crazy from sheer delight if he was ever turned loose in the place."

The Pioneer league, composed of citizens of twenty-five years' residence in Omaha, will take up the depot project at a big smoker and jollification to be held in Swedish auditorium on the evening of April 3.

At a meeting Monday night the league endorsed The Bee's campaign to induce the railroads to build a centralized union station.

Federal Red Tape Proves Hardship to Former Sailor Lad

Because governmental "red tape" is causing distress to an invalid who gave the best of his young life to his country, county authorities, through J. M. Leidy, administrator of charities, are making things warm in Washington.

Mrs. W. R. Adams of the Visiting Nurses' association, attracted Mr. Leidy's attention to the case of James H. Bracken, 2315 South Twenty-first street, who contracted tuberculosis while serving his second enlistment in the navy. At the federal hospital at Bremerton, Wash., navy physicians urged him to apply for discharge papers and get a pension. This was done several months ago, and Bracken came to Omaha to live with a sister-in-law. Now he is deprived of hospital care and his salary and is not getting his pension.

Mr. Leidy has written to Congressman Lobeck asking him to hasten things along, and Mr. Lobeck has already started unwinding the "tape."

NEW SUGAR BEET FACTORY TO BE BUILT AT DEADWOOD

General Agent Benjamin of the Northwestern's Black Hills line is at headquarters and asserts that the entire western part of Nebraska, as well as the Black Hills country, is entering upon an era of the greatest prosperity that ever has been experienced.

Within the last month Deadwood has secured the contract for the erection of a sugar beet factory that will be completed and in operation to handle the crop of this year. The country erecting the factory, Mr. Benjamin asserts, required contracts for the planting of 7,000 acres of beets this season. Business men of Deadwood entered the campaign and inside of two weeks secured contracts for 11,000 instead of 7,000 acres. Large areas of the country to the east of the Hills and up in the Belle Fourche country will be planted to beets.

RAILROADS TRIM OMAHA ONCE MORE

This Time it is Discriminating in Favor of Kansas City in Summer Tourist Rates.

REASON FOR SUCH IS PUZZLE

Once again has Omaha been handed the well known triple cross by the railroads. This time it is a case of discrimination in tourist passenger rates.

In the recent lineup of tourist rates by the Western Passenger association a manifest example of discrimination against Omaha in favor of Kansas City is found. During the approaching tourist season the round trip rate between Kansas City and Chicago on business east of Chicago will be $18.10. The short line between Kansas City and Chicago is a distance of 451 miles.

On the same class of business the round trip rate between Omaha and Chicago is $24.10. The short line between Omaha and Chicago is a distance of 458 miles.

Over Three Dollars More.

Thus parties going east out of Omaha on tourists' rates will pay $3.00 more on their round-trip tickets than those going east out of Kansas City, although the distance from Omaha to Chicago is only thirty-six miles greater than the distance between Kansas City and Chicago.

A similar discrimination against Omaha applies on westbound passenger business out of Chicago.

For instance from Chicago to San Francisco and return the rate is $72.50. From Omaha the round-trip rate is $60. Thus a passenger buying a round-trip ticket from Chicago pays $12.50 for that part of the journey between Chicago and Omaha and back again. From Omaha west there is no corresponding reduction.

Another discrimination against Omaha applies to southern business. Recently the railroads made a round trip rate of $31 from Kansas City to Jacksonville, Fla. On the same date the rate to Jacksonville from Omaha was $50.58, notwithstanding that the round trip rate between Omaha and Kansas City without any reduction at all is $9.52. On this occasion Kansas City had an advantage of nearly $10 over Omaha on Florida business.

No Logical Reason.

Omaha passenger officials can advance no reason whatever for this evident discrimination. It is merely the result of arbitrary rulings by the Western Passenger association which makes Kansas City a rate basing point and ignores Omaha. Rates applying to Omaha are made with Chicago as a basing point.

Why Kansas City should be a rate basing point and why Omaha is not is a mystery to the local passenger traffic men that apparently has no solution beyond the fact that it seems to be a popular pastime of the railroad men to hang the triple cross sign on Omaha in favor of Kansas City every time an opportunity presents itself.

Twelve Miles of Window Front in Stores of Omaha

A ten or twelve-mile front is some front even for a battle line in a big war.

A ten or twelve-mile front is just what the specially decorated windows of the retail stores of Omaha are to have for the "Week of Wonderful Windows," which opens the evening of March 20.

This is probably more display space than any other community in the United States possesses.

In actual fact, Omaha has 50,000 to 60,000 running feet of window display space. This does not mean square feet, but it means feet of frontage for display purposes.

MILLS CAPTURES EXPERT RAISER

Splits and Doctors Genuine Bills to Give Them Much Higher Denomination. AND HE HAS HORNY HANDS

A $50 bill and a $5 bill were converted into $100 by Mike Pittentecchio by a new and original process.

Mike was trailed and captured by Hugh Mills of Omaha, government secret service agent. The capture took place in Des Moines and Pittentecchio is now in jail under $5,000 bond.

The man did his work with an artistic finish worthy of a more honest end. He took a genuine $50 bill and split the face from the back. Then he took a genuine $5 bill and split its face from its back. Next he pasted the $5 back on the back of the $50 face. He took certain other figures and letters from certain other bills of small denomination and pasted them in proper places on the $50 bill in order to make it look like the real back of his $50 bill.

Then he took the back of the genuine $50 bill and pasted it on the back of his real $5 bill and "doctored" it up with a few figures and letters cut from other genuine bills.

By this process he made about $40 on each transaction. He passed six of the bills before Mills captured him, together with his whole outfit. He is a big-handed fellow with stubby fingers and calloused palms, says Mills, and apparently little fitted to do the wonderfully delicate work involved in splitting bills apart and fitting them together with paste.

UNI MEN WILL HOLD BIG FEED MARCH 30

Annual College Night Dinner for All College Men in Omaha is Scheduled for Uni Club.

HUSTLING COMMITTEE IS OUT

Every college man in Omaha will be listed and catalogued within the next few days, just as reserves are listed and catalogued in Germany.

Then, just like reserves, they will be called out to make a charge the evening of March 30. They will be ordered to fix forks and charge upon some scores of divisions of tenderloin of beef, mashed potatoes and June peas.

For that is the evening set for the big annual college night dinner to be held at the University club rooms.

At 6:25 the order will be given to don the helmets; and two minutes later, or at 6:30 sharp, the order to advance to the tables will be given.

Committees have been appointed from alumni of every college represented in Omaha. These committees are to vie with one another in seeking to get out the largest representation. Thus the lieutenant already in the field for the various alumni groups are John McCague, Amherst; "Chick" McLaughlin, Columbia; James Richardson, Cornell; Dr. Lou Bushman, Creighton; Harry Kelly, Dartmouth; Allen McDonald, Harvard; Dr. L. T. Hall, Iowa; E. P. Manning, Knox; R. M. Crossman, Michigan; R. A. Van Orsdale, Nebraska; C. L. Mattson, Oberlin; Harry L. Akin, Princeton; Frank M. Conlin, Wisconsin; J. M. Harding, Yale, and Irving S. Cutter, Nebraska.

Then there is a special committee of three that is to have general charge of the stunts and entertainments. It does not mean that they will furnish all the entertainment, but these three consisting of Frank Latenser, Frank Selby, and Harry Pierpont, constitute the general staff of officers with power to command the field, when once the troops get into action at the table.

SOCIAL SERVICE CIRCLE TO SING FOR THE SHUT-INS

The Social Service circle made several calls last evening to brighten the lives of the shut-ins with songs and other programs. The following institutions were visited:

County Hospital—Misses Eloise West and Madge West, violinists; Miss Gertrude Miller, soprano soloist.

Social Settlement—Children's program in charge of Miss Beulah Bird. House of Hope—Miss Elizabeth Sherlock, soprano; Miss Helen Shinnick, dancer; Mr. George West and Mr. Glen Faxon, male soloists; Miss Gertrude Miller, piano soloist; and Miss Lenora Williams, reader.

Old People's Home—Mrs. W. H. Griffith, contralto, in charge of program; Miss Joan Wellington, singer; Miss Audrey Thomas, violinist, accompanied by Miss Roseanne Hughes; Miss Luella Berry, reader; Mrs. W. C. Martin, accompanist; Riverside Home (children)—Mrs. Samuel Goldsmith, reader, and Mrs. Josephine Elliott, piano soloist. City Mission—No program on account of influenza epidemic.

COUNCIL OUTLINES WHAT FUNDS MAY BE EXPENDED

That the Recreation board may be placed on a business-like basis, the city council adopted a resolution that the recreation fund shall be limited to strictly recreation purposes, and that the park fund shall not be diverted for recreation purposes on other than public property.

It was explained that the resolution does not stand in the way of the department installing play apparatus on other play and recreation facilities in the parks and public playgrounds if the superintendent of the park department has money and inclination to do so.

The Boy is Father to the Man

Old sayings like this are fraught with a most important meaning. And what will add the expectant mother in conserving her health, her strength, her mental resources and the absence of venereal disease is a subject of deep interest to all mothers.

Applied to the nucleus it sticks in deeply to make them firm and potent, it thus lifts the strain on ligaments that produce pain, it lightens the burden on the nervous system, induces calm, restful nights of healthful sleep and makes the days sunny and happy. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" of any druggist and you will then realize why it has been considered true to its name in our best homes through three generations. It is perfectly harmless but so effective that once used it is recommended to all expectant mothers by those who went through the ordeal with surprising ease. By writing to Bradford Regulator Co., 413 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., you can have a free copy of a wonderful story book that unfolds those things which all expectant mothers delight to read.
