John M. McFarland, candidate for state senator: "I am against graft and grafters. There is no excuse for fee grabbing anywhere and I will help put an end to the graft."

C. M. Rylander, candidate for state senator: "A $4,000 salary ought to be enough for any county officer. It is outrageous that the sheriff should make himself rich out of the jail feeding and it is also an outrage on the taxpayers that the district clerk should pocket any of the fees taken in at his office in addition to his $4,000 salary."

SAYS WILD HORSES RAN ALL OVER HIM

Resident of Otoe County is Suing the Ringling Circus for Injuries During Parade.

HIT AT DODGE AND SIXTEENTH

Four "wild, vicious, unruly, dangerous and unsafe" dappie gray horses are the cause of a damage suit for $25,000 against Ringling Bros., circus men, which was filed in federal court by George William Rinker, a resident of Otoe county.

He says that on August 10, 1914, he was standing on the corner of Sixteenth and Dodge streets, Omaha, watching the parade, when the four beasts in question, attached to a ponderous wagon, became unmanageable and ran into and over him.

He says he is an expert mason and has been prevented from following his trade because of the injuries sustained in the alleged accident.

Bishop Luccock of Methodist Church Dies at La Crosse

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—Bishop Naphtali Luccock of the Methodist Episcopal church died today at La Crosse, Wis., according to a telegram received here. Death was due to pneumonia.

Bishop Luccock was elected to the episcopacy four years ago and since that time has had supervision of the Methodist churches in Montana, Wyoming and Idaho. He lived in Helena, Mont. The body will be brought here for burial. The funeral will be held here next Tuesday.

Bishop Luccock was 58 years old. He became ill two weeks ago while on his way to New York, and he was taken to a hospital at La Crosse.

False Alarm Sends Troops to a Ranch West of El Paso

EL PASO, Tex., April 1.—A false alarm that Mexican raiders had crossed the Rio Grande and had attacked an American ranch house nine miles west of here sent soldiers and newspaper racing to the scene last night in automobiles. They found no trace of the alleged raiders and the people in the ranch house could give no explanation of the origin of the report.

FAR-SEEING EYE SOUGHT BY CIVICS

City Planning Committee of League Reports and Members Hold Discussion.

KIMBALL ELECTED PRESIDENT

Planning the city of Omaha came in for extended discussion last evening at the annual meeting of the Omaha Civic league. Chairman Bruce of the city planning committee of the league made a report and Chairman George Morton of the City Planning commission addressed the meeting on the present status of the work, which is just getting under way.

The object of the commission, Mr. Morton asserted, is to get ideas from as many people as possible, sift them and eventually build up a comprehensive and practical plan. This will take time and the commission is now seeking the big man with the far vision to help with expert counsel in making the plan.

Such projects as the widening of Twenty-fourth street from Cuming street to Poppleton avenue, the cutting through of Douglas from Twenty-fourth street westward and of Twenty-second street from Dodge southward are being studied.

County Commissioner Best and City Commissioner Jardine spoke. Stanley Rosewater suggested the building of a public swimming pool somewhere in the downtown district for the use of the people, especially during the hot weather.

Officers and directors for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President, Thomas R. Kimball; first vice president, Herbert M. Rogers; second vice president, Charles E. A. Johnson; third vice president, Mrs. E. M. Syfert; secretary, Stanley Rosewater, and treasurer, Harley G. Moorhead. Directors: John A. Bruce, George Kleffner, Charles A. Goss, Mrs. C. W. Hayes, Frank Best, James C. Dahlman, C. L. Shamp, F. W. Slabaugh, W. E. Reed, J. S. White, Mrs. W. F. Baxter, E. S. Jewell, Paul Kuhns, Robert Manley and Roy Towl.

SETTLEMENT PLAYERS TO GO INTO DRAMATIC WORK

Monday evening at the Catholic Turner hall the Settlement players, under the direction of Miss Mary I. Wallace, will present three one-act plays, "The Romancers," "Press Cuttings" and "Back of the Yards."

The young people have been working on the plays for some time and it is asserted that in many of the parts their work is about up to the standard of some of the best of the professionals. Those taking part are:

Mamie Sloup, Anselm Cerney, W. F. Rasmussen, Louis Barta, Ray Cooley, Thomas Craig, Anton Sadil, John Chleborad, Blanche Warrin, Marie Ostrom and W. F. Sadil.

IMMIGRATION OFFICER IS SUED FOR FALSE ARREST

That E. I. Whitefield, United States immigration officer, exceeded his authority in arresting without a warrant Jesus Ortiz-Gil Carmello Morello, is the charge brought in a $2,000 damage suit filed in district court by Attorney John Mowbray in behalf of the boy's father.

The petition relates that young Morello was on his way to his work at the smelting company's plant when Whitefield halted him and showed his badge and then took him to the city jail, where he locked him up for two hours.

PRICES OF WHEAT CORN AND OATS MAKE ADVANCE

Values of all kinds offered on the floor of the Omaha grain exchange were higher. Wheat was up a cent, with corn and oats gaining a to 1 cent.

Wheat sold at $1.01 and $1.06, with a car of No. 1 hard reaching $1.07 per bushel. Corn sold at 67 and 68 and oats at 39 and 41 cents per bushel.

Wheat receipts, 48 cars, with 12 cars ...

TRAFFIC SQUAD ORDERED TO ENFORCE PARKING LAW

Chief of Police Dunn has directed his traffic squad to resume at once enforcement of the down-town parking regulations relating to vehicles. The permitted places will be indicated by white lines, most of the spaces being in center of streets and a few at the curb. Violations will be made for parking in Farnam, Howard and Douglas streets and Capitol avenue also in Fourteenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets.
