

Society Notes -:- Personal Gossip -:- Entertainments -:- Club Doings

CLEF CLUB CUTS UP ON ALL FOOLS' DAY

Staid Musicians Impersonate Some of the Old Masters Whom They Revere.

MENU WAS A FALSE ALARM

By MELLIFLUA—April 3, The professional musical people who belong to the Clef club laid aside their professional dignity Saturday evening and indulged in an April first banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

dishes of soap made of scented tea and grease, glasses of bitter water, candy asparagus salad, after dinner mints flavoured with quinine, and cigars that burst. Attractive place cards with musical themes kept the guests busy guessing them, and afterward the vaudeville show was held. The orchestra, composed of Misses Emily Cleve and Luella Anderson, and Mr. Frank March and Mr. Henry Cox, played an overture and incidental music.

ranked and written by Mr. Jean Dufield and Miss Grace Hancock. A male quartet made up of Messrs. Simma, Newlan, Krutz and Carnal, assisted by Mr. Landberg, as singing comedian, put on humorous compositions by Mr. Landberg, Carnal and Mr. Krutz, respectively.

Morning Frock

BY LA BEGONTEUSE.

VOTING SPIRITED AT ART EXHIBIT

Three Paintings Are Making Close Race for the Leadership in the Contest.

"CABIN MOTHER" STILL LEADS

Spirited voting in the popularly conducted exhibit of northwestern artists, which is being held in the museum at the public library under the auspices of the Omaha Fine Arts society, is being carried on by large crowds, which are daily attending the extensive display of canvases.

OMAHA GIRL MAID OF HONOR AT CHICAGO WEDDING.

MISS GERTRUDE MCCARTHY.

A former Omaha girl, Miss Gertrude McCarthy, will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Edith Ogden Harrison, daughter of the former mayor of Chicago, Carter H. Harrison, and Cyrus Edson Manier on Easter Tuesday.

Train School News.

The Mothers' and Teachers' club of Train school held their second meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Swoboda.

Orpheum Theater Party.

The box occupants at the Orpheum this evening will be made up principally of residents of two, not parties in the parquet of the theater, held out early in the morning.

At Prairie Park Club.

The Assembly club dance was given Saturday evening at the Prairie Park club house by an unusually large number of guests.

Past Festivities.

Miss Louise Urbach was hostess at an informal party Thursday evening at her home. Those present were:

Menorah Society Meeting.

The Menorah society will hold an open meeting Tuesday evening, April 4, in their club room, at Labor Temple.

On the Calendar.

McKinley Ladies' auxiliary of the Equal Franchise is giving a dancing party in the ball room of the Hotel Rome this evening.

Credit Men to Meet in Omaha in August

Dates have been definitely set for the convention of the Retail Credit Men's National association in Omaha.

PROTEST FILED ON THE PAVING OF AMES AVENUE

In Ames avenue, from Thirty-sixth street to west of the Lincoln, a main thoroughfare within the meaning of a law passed by the last legislature?

BIGGEST IOWA FISH IS SENT HERE TO BE MOUNTED

The National Fur & Tanning company, 223 South Thirtieth street, has just completed mounting the largest fish ever caught in the state of Iowa.

UNION BANDS TO PLAY AT THE PARKS THIS YEAR

According to an action of the city council committee of the whole, there will be no interference with the plan to organ union bands in the parks this season.

FLORENCE SCHOOL PUPILS STUDY NEBRASKA PRODUCTS

The "Farm Week" is being observed in the public school at Florence this week. All the classes of the Florence school are studying the new books and a number of exhibits have been furnished by local firms to add to the interest of the students.

WELL KNOWN FIRM HAS DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP

It is announced that the partnership of the Washburn-Barnes company has been dissolved. Both partners will remain in the grain business.

Advertisement for S. H. ACKERMAN, "Omaha's Most Exclusive Ladies' Tailor". Features a "SPECIAL OFFER" on a "Handsome Sport Skirt Made To Order Free of Charge".

country home this afternoon at luncheon to meet Miss Virginia Robinson of Beatrice, who is the house guest of Miss Reed. The dining room and table were decorated with country-grown spring flowers.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Martin L. Sugarman and children left Sunday evening for New York to spend two months with Mrs. Sugarman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bondy.

Widow's Club Meetings.

Mrs. Beale C. Turpin, the organizer, announces two meetings of the Society of American Widows this week. One will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian association.

Social Gossip.

Mrs. E. J. Neville and her daughter, Florence, are registered at the St. Charles hotel, Atlantic City, N. J.

Rockford College Affair.

This afternoon by the Rockford College association in a luncheon that had as guests Rockford students home for their spring vacation or passing through Omaha, enroute to their school.

Anniversary Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Abraham were surprised at their home last evening by a party of friends, who called in honor of their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary.

Interest in Conference.

Omaha mothers' clubs are interested in the proceedings of the twentieth annual Child Welfare conference and national convention of the Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers associations.

Lenten Sewing.

The Friday Bridge-Luncheon club met last afternoon with Miss Elizabeth Davis and Miss Melton Davis at their home to sew for the hospital.

Art Exhibit Hostesses.

Mrs. George Burdick is one of the hostesses of the art exhibit of northwestern artists, now on display at the public library.

Art Exhibit Hostesses.

Mrs. George Burdick is one of the hostesses of the art exhibit of northwestern artists, now on display at the public library.

Art Exhibit Hostesses.

Mrs. George Burdick is one of the hostesses of the art exhibit of northwestern artists, now on display at the public library.

Art Exhibit Hostesses.

Mrs. George Burdick is one of the hostesses of the art exhibit of northwestern artists, now on display at the public library.

Advertisement for BRANDEIS STORES, "The New Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes". Includes "AFTER NAMES FOR ALL CITY STREETS" and "An Enormous Sign".

Advertisement for school children: "It is Vacation Time for School Children". Offers clothing and shoes.

Advertisement for shoes: "Excellent Shoes in Stylish Shapes". Lists various shoe styles and prices.

Advertisement for hats: "Wonderful Bargains in Untrimmed Hats". Shows an illustration of a hat and lists prices.

Advertisement for women's suits: "Women's Union Suits, 25c". Describes different styles of suits.

Advertisement for Taffy Day: "TAFFY DAY TUESDAY". Promotes fresh, delicious taffy.

Advertisement for dressmaking classes: "Dressmaking Classes Have Started". Announces classes by Mrs. Coates.

Advertisement for Alamito milk: "Why Buy Tomorrow's Milk Supply Today When You Can Get Today's Supply Before Breakfast From Alamito".

Large advertisement for "GOOD HOUSEGIRL" service: "Put Your 'Help Wanted' Ads in The Omaha Bee".