Excellent Opportunity

FOR NEW GARAGE

in One of Omaha's Best Districts

The advertiser has a large lot located in the vicinity of large new building improvements, and in one of Omaha's most thickly settled residence districts, where a garage offering ample storage facilities is badly needed. Will make proposition to party experienced in garage management and operation, and having about $10,000 cash, of furnishing the capital with which to erect a high class garage building; and will so arrange the mortgage that it can be repaid by the purchaser on easy terms, out of the proceeds of the business.

The demand is so great in this neighborhood for garage facilities that good business is practically assured from the start. For further particulars, address K 1103, Bee.

Parade Dinosaur as Evidence of Defense Carried to Extreme

NEW YORK, April 5.—"Jingo," a fifteen-foot model of a dinosaur, mounted on a truck, was exhibited along Broadway today by representatives of the anti-preparedness committee as an example of the result of "too much armor." Speakers who accompanied "Jingo" said that the living land reptile weighed ten tons and carried such a weight of armor-like skin that it became extinct. Accompanying the model was a placard reading:

"This is Jingo, the armored dinosaur. All armor plate and no brains. This animal believed in huge armament. He is extinct."

From this city "Jingo" will be taken to Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Minneapolis, Des Moines, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. It will be accompanied by speakers opposed to preparedness, including Dr. Stephen S. Wise and Rev. John Haines Holmes.

"Mike the Pike" Held As a White Slaver

CHICAGO, April 5.—Michael Heitler, known to the police for years as "Mike the Pike," was arrested by federal agents today, charged with violating the Mann act.

His arrest came as the climax of a year's work by special agents of the Department of Justice.

Heitler is said to have transported many women in connection with disorderly houses in Chicago, Gary, Ind.; Indianapolis, and Burnam, Ill. Other arrests may follow, as the special agents say they have evidence to show that Heitler was the head of a ring of white slavers.

Richard Fleischner, arrested here a week ago, is alleged to have been one of Heitler's agents. He is under indictment at San Francisco, charged with transporting Maggie Sanders from Kansas City to San Francisco.
