

Old Judge Rumhauser

Drawn for The Bee By Tad

Judgments

ANNOUNCEMENT that Hugh Jones, former Lincoln magazine, has taken over Jimmy McGill's Denver holdings... The utter folly of spring games between clubs of the same league has been more forcibly thrust before the base ball public this year than ever before.

AMATEURS READY TO OPEN

Commercial League Starts Ball Rolling Saturday and Five Loops Follow on Sunday.

SEVERAL MEETINGS THIS WEEK

By FRANK QUIGLEY. Overcasts are now burdensome, especially the heavy ones; and, although the warm sun and balmy breezes were not much in evidence last week, the majority of the local ball shooters shed their extra wear, either getting tickets for some or locking it up until fall, and they are now ready to battle with the old pill.

WESTERN NEBRASKA CHAMPIONS—The Kimball county high school boys were declared champions of western Nebraska when they defeated the fast quintet from the Sidney high school by a score of 24 to 19.

Sioux City Soccer Team Cards Battles With Omaha Elevens

A soccer league composed of Omaha, St. Louis, St. Joseph, Yankton City, Sioux City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and perhaps Lincoln is a suggestion, Sioux City soccer players are making.

MUCH TENNIS AT THE BLUFFS

The tennis bug has acquired a firm grip on the Council Bluffs Rowing Association Tennis Enthusiasts Plan to Request State Tourney.

Here's the Story Of Sad Plight of Plain Jim Brown

Did you ever hear of an honest-to-goodness, regular Indian, who didn't possess some romantic appellation like "Rain-in-the-Face," or "Sitting Bull," or "Lone Bear," or something? Well, here's one who averts, asserts, asserts and insists no fancy and distinctive moniker was fastened on him.

WHEN TWO SCISSORS MEET

It Will Be a Case of Greek Meeting Greek When Joe Stecher and Charley Peters Lock Horns.

PROBABLY WILL BE ON JULY 15

Two Nebraska phenoms, both well versed in the application of the celebrated Nebraska scissors hold, are going to meet on the wrestling mat in this city in the very near future and when they do local wrestling fans can expect something of a treat.

GOLFERS GETTING EAGER

Early Birds Are Romping Around Links in Mid-Season Form, Despite Chill and Soft Greens.

JOHNSTON HIRES ASSISTANT

While the permanent greens are still a little too soft to play on and the temporary greens are necessarily used, the golfing fraternity of Omaha has already started to prance around the links to warm up for the rapidly approaching season.

Pete Lyck Is Now on The O. B. Blacklist

Young Pete Lyck, catcher for the Branded team of Omaha, now has a large black mark after his name in the registry of clubs in organized base ball.

GEORGE SUGGS MAY HOOK ON WITH RICHMOND CLUB

George Suggs, pitcher, formerly with Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds, and later with Baltimore Orioles, may get another chance in the game with the Richmond Internationals.

IRLAN'S INJURY NOT AS BAD AS FIRST SUPPOSED

A communication from Manager Marty Ring conveys some pleasant news for Omaha fans. Irlan's injury is not as bad as first supposed.

JOE LOTZ, OMAHA HURLER, HOOKS ON WITH MUSKOGON

Joe Lotz, the Omaha youth, who always looked like the greatest pitcher in the world until the sixth or seventh inning and then looked like the poorest, has landed a job with the Muskogon club of the Central league.

Get This, Golfers: This Person Admits Bogey Has His Goat

Harmon to this, you hounds of the links here's the only man in the world who never nursed an irritating calouse on a tender palm and yet frankly admitted that as a golfer he wasn't a world beater.

Greater Omaha League Schedule

April 10-Burgess-Nash against Lucks Holmes, Ducky Holmes park. April 11-Burgess-Nash against Lucks Holmes, Ducky Holmes park.

Greater Omaha League Schedule

Burgess-Nash, Arroyo park, Ducky Holmes against De O. Holmes park. July 2-Omaha, the company against Burgess-Nash, Holmes park.

Greater Omaha League Schedule

CLASS A. 1. Cooper, 2. Leach, 3. Leavitt, 4. Van Hook, 5. Follinger, 6. Hild, 7. Van Hook, 8. Van Hook, 9. Van Hook, 10. Van Hook.

Breezy Bits of Newsy Gossip

Bill Whalen, comedian and pugilist, who partined at short for the Bourkes the first part of last year and then went to Lincoln, is no longer a member of the Western league.

Kaw Athlete Real Victim of the Jinx

At Schweitzer, an outfielder with the Topeka ball club, claims to be the unluckiest player in the game, but holds his entry into the Western league will put an end to the "jinx" which has followed his trail.