Coronet Hats

Here is a brand-new shipment of the well-known Coronet Hats, right in time for Easter. All the new models faithfully reproduced---the big, black, shiny braid Sailor, with a smart touch of color; the very popular all-black hats, with wing trimmings; the dressy hat of horsehair braid with all the flowers of the field, and a number of those smart, close fitting hats in tailored styles.

The principal colors are black, navy blue, cyclamen pink, which, by the way, bids very strong for greatest popularity for this midseason wear. The master milliners and hat artists have all turned to Nature this year, and she has bountifully supplied them with all the flowers of the field. There is a profusion of colors---bright colors---not to be denied. The cheery song of spring comes in the prismatics of the rainbow.

The genius of master designers shows unmistakably when a black hat challenges admiration with just the supplement of a little red rose.

The Straw Hat Shows Which Way the Style Goes is Lizee, or Belgian Split, as it is sometimes called. This is one of the most popular braids of the season.

The biggest and most interesting note of all from our new standpoint is this announcement:

Pastime and Country Club Hats

will make a strong bid for unqualified approval. The woman who desires millinery that is "different" should take advantage of the first opportunity to see these. This is not the time to quote prices. The procession moves. Hats, Hats, Hats, conceived in the brilliant atmosphere of the ateliers of Europe---but the influence is strictly American.

The Best You Can Buy

The FREE Sewing Machines

Any woman who plans to purchase a sewing machine should know what the Rotoscillo movement means. In the ordinary machine there is what we call a half revolution. Every time the machine is treadled this means that there is a counteraction backward, which not only makes the treadling harder, but creates a noise that is absolutely done away with in this new operation.

The Rotoscillo Movement is a complete and combination forward revolution of the mechanical part of the machine.

We Allow You $12 for Your Old Machine On the Purchase Price of a "Free" Cabinet. The Best Sewing Machine in the World.

"Wearever" Aluminum Cooking Utensils

FUTURE BELLES IN COSTUME DANCES

"The Globe Trot." Representing All the Nations on Earth to Be Presented.

AT TURPIN'S ON SATURDAY

By MELLIFLICKA---April 12.

A very pretty affair will be given Saturday afternoon at Turpin's hall, which future belles of Omaha will play prominent parts, under the direction of Miss Katherine Grable.

The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith, Grace and Eleanor, and Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith, will have leading parts in a beautifully set dancing scene in costume. Miss Grace Smith will dance as "Night," Miss Eleanor Smith as "Firefly" and Miss Eleanor Smith, "Nightingale."

A costume dance, "Coquette," will be given by Miss Eleanor Smith. Miss Dorothy Sherman will dance "The Belle."

"The Globe Trot" first given in New York a year ago last New Year's at the home of the late Mrs. Royce and "The Belle" will be presented in Omaha for the first time. This costume dance gives the steps of all nations of the earth, each by a couple in costume, none overlooked, whether of the Orient or the South Sea Isles. The young dancers in these roles are looking forward with keen interest to the event of Saturday afternoon and are inviting their little friends and the parents of their friends.

Latest Negligee

It is hard to believe that the garment illustrated is a negligee. To the casual observer it would undoubtedly seem to be a charming dance gown. The material is a pattern of figured silk that shades from a rose to a rich gold tone. The hairem hem with its wreath of dainty roses is a distinctive feature. The bouffant hip drapery, round-necked bodice and flowing chiffon drapes are particularly notable.

BEE PUZZLE MAKES RUN ON LIBRARY

Librarians Dig Up All the Volumes of Shakespeare's Works for Contestants.

MANY CHARACTERS IN PLAYS

Did you ever hear of a run on a library? The Bee's Shakespeare Tercentenary puzzle caused a run on the public library. Librarian Tobitt dusted every volume of Shakespeare, and since Monday morning the demand for these books exceeded all previous records. Many called to copy a list of the characters of Shakespeare's plays. Did you ever stop to think just how many characters there are in the plays of the man who was born 400 years ago and whose name stands immortalized before the world? And finding combinations of these names in the letters of The Bee's puzzle is more than a few hours' work, but it is interesting.

Willie started in at the puzzle after he came home from Sunday school last Sunday. He just kept at it and grew so interested that his mother had to urge him to attend his meals. He rushed home from school to get back at the puzzle. When he finished a list of all the characters he could find, he went back over his long list to make sure he had not skipped any. And, sure enough, he did find several which he had missed in the first examination. When he had his list completed he checked back to make sure he had the exact number of the letters on the sheets he expected to turn in to the puzzle editor.

Had Fun, Anyway.

"Well, if I don't get a prize, I sure did have some fun figuring out that puzzle," said Willie.

Naturally, a puzzle which has attracted such widespread interest, results in many telephone inquiries. Several boys and girls called in to ask how many characters were found by those who have already sent their puzzles in. Of course, it would not be fair to give this information until all of the answers are in and the awards have been announced.

"I would like to meet the man who made that puzzle," was an expression of an Omaha woman who sent in a solution.

Woman's Club Luncheon.

The literature department of the Omaha Woman's club celebrated its closing meeting today by giving a luncheon in the palm room at the Hotel Fontenelle. Spring flowers brightened the luncheon tables and quotations from Browning marked each place. Covers were laid for:

Mrs. A. L. Fernald was elected leader of the literature department at a meeting which preceded the luncheon. Mrs. Fernald replaces Mrs. C. H. Mullin, who has led the literature department for several years. Mrs. J. W. Gill was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Mrs. L. M. Lord was made chairman of the social committee; Mrs. W. S. Knight, library, and Mrs. Mullin of the open day program committee.

Have Dark Hair and Look Young

Don't stay gray! Nobody can tell when you darken gray, faded hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. When ever her hair look on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 30 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied---it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.---Advertisement.
