> Rhea Mitchell, one of the latest recruits to the American studios as leading woman, received the name of "Ginger" when she was at Inceville. The reason for the pet name is not difficult to guess. Miss Rhes has "a splendid head of hair with the necessary reddish tint to allow a good natured person being dubbed "Ginger." Miss Mitchell is good natured, and as there are several of her old-time companions at the Stu dio, Anna Little, Tom Chatterton, Hal Cooley and others, she can never get away from being "Ginger" Mitchell She does not seem to mind it, however.

MUSE THEATER OPENS WITH STRONG PROGRAM

HIPP PROGRAM OFFERS THREE BIG NUMBERS

The Hipp program for the coming week offers three big numbers. Beginning to-day Robert Edeson and Eleanor Woodruft are seen in a picturization of the well remembered legitimats Al H. Woods production, "Big Jim Garrity." Edeaon is fitted for this character by a physique and rugged face and he plays the big moments for all they are worth. Eleanor Woodruff is a dainty, quick acting, appealing feminine type.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Omaha will see Mary Pickford, the idol of the screen, in a powerful human drama, "The Eternal Grind." In this play
