Pursued Suspect Shoots Marshal and Then Kills Himself

CHARLES CITY, In. April 14.-Deputy Sheriff Frank Hergog was shot and prob ably fatally wounded today by a tramp. Pursued for miles and finally brought to buy, the tramp exchanged a number of shots with his pursuers and then turned his weapon on himself, sending a bullet through his head.

Herzog was in search of suspects in connection with the blowing of a lumber safe at New Hampton, near here, last night. In the railroad yards he came agross the tramp and began to question him when the stranger drew a platel and and Herzog through the abdomen. Later when trapped by a posse, the fugitive billed himself.

In one of the pockets of the tramp's clothing was a book with "Goufrey, Indiana," written on one of the fly leaves.
