Resinol heals sick skin The moment that Resinol Ointment touches itching skin the itching usually stops and healing begins. That is why doctors have prescribed it so successfully for over 20 years in even the severest cases of eczema, ringworm, rashes, and many other tormenting, disfiguring skin diseases. Sold by all druggists. For a clear complexion use Resinol Soap.

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best, most soap and powdered shampoo contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

DOUGLAS COUNTY VOTE COMPLETE

Last Precinct Coming In This Morning, Election Board Counting Until After Midnight.

LITTLE CHANGE IN THE LINEUP Returns from 122 of the 124 precincts of Douglas county were received last night and tabulated.

The general result indicated by earlier figures was not disturbed. For republican district delegate in the Second district, with only four precincts to hear from, Gouid Dietz was less than 100 votes behind Loomis. Henry Clarke lost Douglas county for railway commissioner by a decided vote, the republican preference being given to Johnson.

Ben S. Baker, was nominated for the republican candidacy for congress by more votes than his two opponents received together, and the same thing was true of C. O. Lobeck, democrat. With Sarpy county missing, the figures on the Second district are: Democratic—Lobeck, 5,213; Fleharty, 2,378; Quinby, 1,580; Monahan, 957.

Republican—Baker, 6,703; Mercer, 4,952; Bigelow, 2,372.

Returns on supreme judges showed Cornish, Goss and Barnes high three. For judges of the municipal court the high three were Holt, Hassall and Lynch. Judges Foster and Reed were the two highest for police magistrate. The totals follow:

German Ambassador Sends Dispatch to Berlin Saying America Means Business. THINKS THERE WON'T BE BREAK WASHINGTON, April 20.—Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador, sent to Berlin last night a long dispatch interpreting the situation in Washington and making certain recommendations. He is understood to have advised his government that he believed the United States meant just what it said in its submarine note and that something would have to be done quickly if friendly relations were to continue.

The ambassador himself having read the address of the president and the note said: "I can make no comment either upon the address or upon the communication which has been sent to my government."

However, he was authoritatively described as having advised the Berlin foreign office in the message tonight that he believed at least some such declaration as that made regarding the conduct of submarine warfare in the Mediterranean Sea should be issued immediately to cover all submarine operations.

Mediterranean Assurances. The Mediterranean declaration was handed to Secretary Lansing by the ambassador on January 7 of this year. It contained assurances much broader in their scope than those given to cover the activity of submarines in the war zone around the British Isles, where Germany has contended from the first that it was engaged in a campaign of retaliation for the British blockade.

The assurance were to the effect that only a cruiser warfare would be conducted against enemy merchant ships and that noncombatant ships of every character, freight as well as passenger-carrying, would be accorded proper warning and safety for their passengers and crew. The assurances which have been given for the war zone around the British Isles covered only "liners."

The declaration of January 7, also proclaimed that German submarine commanders would be punished and that reparation would be made for death or injury to American citizens.

Instructions to Captains. German commanders operating in the Mediterranean, it was said in the declaration, which was issued after the submarine Perla had gone down, had particular instructions to exclude such measure of reprisal as were applied in the war zone around the British Isles. It is expected that Count von Bernstorff will confer with Secretary Lansing tomorrow. The secretary informed him today that he was ready to discuss the matter at his convenience. Since the inception of the present situation Count von Bernstorff has made attempts to discuss the situation with the secretary. On each occasion, he was informed, however, that he would be given an opportunity later. The time of the proposed conference had not been definitely fixed to date.

MEN NEEDED GUNS AWFUL FAST THEN

Omaha Blacksmith Outfitted the Settlers Moving Into Wild and Woolly West.

COUNCIL BLUFFS IN 1860 "In those days when a man needed a gun, he needed it quick," said George W. Bays, of 406 No. 29th Street, Omaha, who conducts a general blacksmith business in Omaha.

Mr. Bays, who is 74 years old, had a blacksmith shop in Council Bluffs in 1860, and helped to outfit many a party of settlers moving into the "wild and woolly west."

"Council Bluffs was an outfitting post for the immigrants moving west in those days," Mr. Bays said. "Their horses and prairie schooners needed attention, and got it while supplies were being completed for the journey into the far west."

Mr. Bays happily needs no gun now, but a little while ago he needed Tanlac, the great reconstructive tonic, and he used that quickly and with splendid results.

"Since I began taking Tanlac I am much better in every way," said Mr. Bays to the Tanlac Man at the Sherman & McConnell drug store. "I had been very much run down. My appetite was poor. I seldom got a good night's rest, and I was weak and shaky."

"I learned of Tanlac through the newspapers, and my wife went down and got a bottle for me. Since I began taking it, I am better in every way."

"My appetite has improved, I sleep through the night now, my nerves are stronger."

"I had taken many other medicines without relief. But I am now on my third bottle of Tanlac and will continue with the medicine for I feel that it will give me permanent relief."

Tanlac may be obtained in Omaha at the Sherman & McConnell Drug Company, where the Tanlac Man explains how it should be taken and the results that may be expected from its use by run-down, weak, nervous men and women.

Tanlac may be obtained in Benson of the Schiller-Beattie Drug store; Springfield, H. Plogbaum; Weeping Water, Meyer Drug Co.; Nebraska City, Henry Schwake & Co.; Auburn, P. H. Dorr; Ashland, H. H. Coss; Malmo, P. J. Fitch; Fremont, Brown-Fredrickson Drug store; Oakland, M. O. Harding & Son; Clarkson, E. H. Kosa; Columbus, Parly Drug store; Monroe, Hill's Pharmacy; Madison, E. E. Advertisement for WOMAN GIVEN TWO DAYS To Make Up Her Mind for Surgical Operation. She is cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I was operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I only took four doses before I felt a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my cure. Mrs. THOMAS MCCONNELL, 342 Hartsville Street, Phila., Pa.
