Another Song for The Semi-Centennial Nebraska Jubilee

Mrs. Cora E. sewell of 227 South Fif teenth street, Lincoln, Neb., sends The Bee the following song, written for the semi-centennial jubilee of Nebraska, but not until after the close of the competition, and therefore not automitted for the decision of the jodges. It has a swing and a sentiment that will appeal to Nabraskans:

From plains once waste of land We drove the red man's band And set the yeoman's hand To till the fertile sod. With hearts of courage true We brought our triumph through, O'er lils that were not few. To stand at peace with God.

Then rally here with joy, crown with giories bright. Our own, our faithful treading on. for fields of pienty, cheer and home The sun's beacon o'er us of gold in its Cruss seas they may to come. Or garden spots for some, No coldness of the palm Ifas chilled their welcome here. They've found the light of hope To ward them off the slope Of drag and fret and mope, Pause not-to upward veer.

ATTORNEY GENERAL UPHOLDS DODGE COUNTY CANDIDATE

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN; April 22.-(Special.)-While the opinion comes a little late to hit the primary, Attorney General Reed, at the request of Secretary of State Pool, has given his idea of the Dodge-Washington county matter in which a candidate for the state senate from that district had his name printed on the democratic bailot without the very necessary formality of first filing his name with the secretary of state. However, as he was not elected, anyway, it cuts little fce.

The attorney gneral holds that where a district is composed of more than one county the name of a candidate must be filed with the secretary of state, according to the orders given the county clerk of Dodge county, who had the name printed on the ballots contrary to
