Remember I am not branching out in this business, have been active in it for 15 years.

Many parties would like to buy any where from a quarter section to large tracts of unimproved western lands.

At present I have on my list sections of high yielding and unimproved grazing lands in the cattle country.

Should you desire to purchase any size tract for speculation, if you will write me.

These lands are situated in the central and northern part of Nebraska, and the eastern part of Colorado.

All correspondence will be promptly looked after and appreciated.

If you are interested in large ranches I have a complete list as far as I am making a specialty of large ranches.

I find that no matter how complete a list I have at present it seems that every day I have inquiries for propositions.

So if you really have a snap for sale, which perfect title can be given, and it should prove upon investigation.
