Kennard Will Urge Pawnee Land Claim

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, April 25.—(Special.)—A matter which has been before several legislatures and has never been settled came up again this week when T. P. Kennard, who was secretary of state in 1887, visited the office of the state treasurer to discover the condition of a claim he has had against the state for nearly fifty years for a share in the proceeds of the sale of certain Pawnee Indian lands.

SIX THOUSAND SEE COMBAT

(Continued from Page One.) and an Luber's punk throw to the bag. Krueger came through with his second double of the fray, giving the first sucker ample time to chase home.

Links Escape Shutout. The lowly Links escaped a shut-out in the final frame. Harry Williams, batting for Powers, who had relieved Gregory in the fifth, coaxed North out of his only walk. Carlisle whiffed, but Bill Hinckman made a two-bagger to right center and Williams raced home on the hit.

New Men Make Hit. Despite the cold it was quite an auspicious opening. The victors of the home boys cheered the boys up considerably and they went away sounding the praise of Pa's new athletes. Kilduff, who made a couple of good hits and two nice fielding plays; and Priest, who made a nifty one-handed stop of a hard grounder by Hinckman, and Miller, all won homes with the fans by their excellent playing.

Mayor Dahlen was on the job to throw the first ball. The mayor made it a good job by throwing three balls. Ward Burgess served as the mayor's battery man.

Krug Gets Horseshoe. The members of the 507 block presented Manager Marty Krug with a floral horseshoe on his first trip to the plate and Marty manifested his appreciation by immediately swatting a safety to center.

At Fairbrother's band furnished harmony and a clown band in the special Armour & Co. box added further side-show amusement. The Rourkes will battle Lincoln again today at Rourke park. Harry Krause, who was formerly with Connie Mack's Athletics, will probably be Krug's pitching choice, while Ducky Holmes probably will put Guy Hoffman, one of Omaha, against him. The game today will be started at 9:15 o'clock. The score:
