Women at War! We do not mean the Amazons, the dynamiters, nor the militants. But those good women so dear to our hearts who make our homes for us.

Household Helps If you rub a bit of dry soap across the new spool of silk, you will not be bothered by having the silk unwind too quickly when threaded into the machine.

Between Sports -o- Wading -o- As We Had to and as We Will -o- By Nell Brinkley

LONG ago—oh, a few weeks or so—we of the zone where the snow flies were wading waist deep in the glisteny feathery stuff, whipping around corners in a gale, with our nose pink and our finger tips numb. And we wore comforts of fur and worried about the apple-blossoms in our too precocious Spring bonnet.
