LIVE ISSUES CALL CITIES TOGETHER

That is the Women Folks of Omaha and Council Bluffs Are Attracted by Suffrage Battle.

SALE ACROSS RIVER SATURDAY

By MELLIPICIA—April 28. With the exception of a very few matrons particularly active in social affairs, it would seem that Omaha and Council Bluffs have drifted farther and farther apart in adverse proportion as rapid transit between the two cities improved—all quite different from ways of the pioneers.

But they seem to be coming together the last month, the women of Omaha and Council Bluffs.

The intercoursa has been so broad and freely exchanged that one might almost call it a popular movement.

The question is whether it was suffrage or anti-suffrage that brought the two towns together.

Let there be an anti-meeting in Council Bluffs—and it would seem that every feminine anti-suffragist in Omaha is there on the ground, an alert propagandist.

Then, when it was the other side, the cars crossing the big bridge would be crowded with Omaha suffragists. Just as keenly interested in the Bluffs meeting as they were in their own back in 1914.

When the big suffrage bazaar opens tomorrow morning in suffrage headquarters in Council Bluffs, Omaha women will be there in full force, dropping in and out all day. As the bazaar is especially rich in its doll display, it will be much a child's affair and many little Omaha suffragists will be in evidence.

It is easy now to be seen what is really the tie that binds.

Scottish Rite Musicales.

The Scottish Rite Woman's club will entertain all members of the Scottish Rite and their families at a reception and musical program this evening in the auditorium of the Scottish Rite cathedral. The reception committee will include Mesdames Zoro D. Clark, J. E. Simpson, Cuthbert Vincent, W. M. Berry, F. C. Patten, A. M. Smith and Miss Adella D. Stine.

The Omaha women and their daughters will remain in the east, visiting in New York, Atlantic City and other points, the Spaldings probably early in the fall, since they will spend the summer in Kentucky, their former home.

Mrs. M. A. Nagel is expecting her daughter, Mrs. Gladsten James, and baby, to visit her in about two weeks. Mrs. James was Miss Julia Nagel of this city, and before her marriage was very prominent in the theatrical world. Mr. James is known to Omahans as a moving picture star, but will be here during the summer with Mrs. James.

Bundle Day.

Among the Omaha patrons who have donated their machines for the collection of the bundles are Mrs. John A. McShane, Mrs. A. V. Klesler and Mrs. Daniel C. Stapleton.

Pi Beta Phi Event.

The Pi Beta Phi celebrate the forty-ninth anniversary of their founding this evening at a banquet at the Fontenelle. One of the features of the event will be a vaudeville sketch, a sort of burlesque on up-to-date vaudeville. It is also worthy of noting that the sorority is itself of western birth, founded by a group of girls in 1877 at Monmouth college in Monmouth, Ill.

Three brides of this spring will be prominent in the celebration, Miss Lucile Brown, Miss June Brown and Miss Luanda Scott.

The thirty-five guests will be seated at a long table in the banquet room of the Fontenelle. Mrs. Anan Raymond will give a short after dinner talk preceding the program, a profound secret as yet.

Many out-of-town guests are here for this big sorority event and will be entertained over Saturday and Sunday at the homes of local members, making the two days a sort of protracted reunion.

Mrs. Morris H. Dunham is entertaining Miss Ann Stewart and Miss Melinda Stewart of Lincoln, Miss Eula Bates of Springfield is the guest of Miss Florence Bush; the house guests of the Misses Brown are Miss Rachel Kellings of Perce, Ia., Miss Ella Schwabe of Nebraska City and Miss Jessie Killian of Lincoln; Miss Laura Pruit of Lincoln is with Miss Georgia Davis; Mrs. Clyde White has Miss Lucile Bell of York, and

The Rev. L. E. Bowen of Pearl Memorial church officiated. The young couple will make their home in Council Bluffs.

New Ak-Sar-Ben Princess.

A daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hensford, making one more member of the princesses of Ak-Sar-Ben. The little one's mother, as Miss Mary Lee McShane, was queen of Ak-Sar-Ben. The princess will be christened Kathryn in honor of her grandmother, Mrs. John A. McShane.

Country Club Opening.

The directors have fixed the opening of the Omaha Country club for May 7. There will be the usual golf and tennis events on a handicap basis, with a table d'hôte dinner served at 1.30. There will be a large orchestra for dancing in the evening. It is also proposed by the house committee to have the orchestra there as early as 6.30, so that there may be an informal reception while the members are inspecting the new conveniences in the club house.

Fort Wayne Guest Honored.

Miss Mildred Bower of Fort Wayne, Ind., who is the house guest of Miss Marjorie Howland, was entertained at tea at the Fontenelle this afternoon by Miss Helen Epener. Saturday there will be a motoring picnic and Sunday evening a buffet dinner for Miss How-

Nemo Week Beginning Monday May 1

UNUSUAL CORSET EVENT of VITAL IMPORTANCE to ALL WOMEN

THIS Nemo Week finds us doing a tremendous business under very trying conditions.

The always-growing demand for our standard models and the marvelous increase in sales of our Wonderlift Corsets have resulted in our orders being largely in excess of the capacity of our factory.

In addition, the cost of all corset-material has greatly increased (in some cases doubled), and is still going higher. Certain materials cannot be had, in sufficient quantity, at any price.

All of which means that Nemo Corsets may soon be scarce in the market, and that a substantial advance in retail Nemo prices is inevitable.

In the face of these conditions, we shall emphasize our policy and make this Nemo Week a great event by featuring, in addition to our full regular line at regular prices, a fine—

"Nemo Week Special" $3.00 Self-Reducing Corset

323 A new Self-Reducing model, for full figures, tall or of medium height. Made of our special "Steelite" batiste, a strong, thin fabric, which is now too costly to be used in corsets selling at less than $5.00. Skirt medium, bust rather low. Sizes 22 to 36—$3.00.

No Such Value Again for Some Time to Come!

Several other models in fine batiste, for summer wear, and all your old favorite Self-Reducing models, better than ever—many of them now at prices less than you will pay for your next one.

Study Nemo Wonderlift Corsets Guard Your Health and Youthful Grace

Take this occasion to study and try out the Nemo Wonderlift Corsets. In many stores you will find corsetiers who are members or graduates of the Nemo Hygienic-Fashion Institute, whose skilled assistance will be invaluable to you. From a health standpoint, Wonderlift Corsets are immeasurably superior to all others, and they are also superb STYLE corsets.

In due time nearly every woman who wears corsets will prefer to wear the "Self-Help" Wonderlift.

There is now a Wonderlift model for every figure, from the extremely lean to the very stout:

- 554 For stout figures, short or of medium height. Sizes 22 to 36 $5.00
- 555 For taller full figures, higher bust and back. Sizes 22 to 36 $5.00
- 556 For slender to medium figures, tall or of medium height. Fine white batiste; sizes 20 to 30 $5.00
- 557 For slim figures, prominent hip bones, concave abdomen; inside supporting pads—an entirely new service, much needed. Sizes 19 to 25 $5.00
- 1000 A model de luxe, for all average full figures; of lustrous white brocade; sizes 22 to 36 $10
- 998 For extremely large women with heavy, pendulous abdomen and much excess flesh. The ONLY corset made for women of this type. Strong white muslin, heavily boned; all sizes from 30 to 38, also extra sizes 40, 42 and 44 $10
