

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Townsend's for Sporting Goods. - Giving Pictures - Burgess-Graden. - Bond Management Kings, Ethelm.

Foot Print - Now Season Fresh. - S. Smith, lawyer, has removed to 203 Bee Building.

Afternoon Monday - The Temple Methodist held the last of the termoons at the temple Monday.

Sea-Tile Singers - Under the leadership of Miss Georgia Williams will give the "Little Rebel" at the enter-vnell Hall to Reorganize Its Course of Study

ell hall has announced that, with the 1916-1917 school year, the study will be reorganized along modern lines.

elementary school and the first of the present quarters at 133 1/2 North street. The elementary school has the privilege of using the Sunday school room of St. Barn-

More to Shoe Dobbin Hereafter

Industry of horseshoeing has gone up. Monday morning it will cost a horse shod with new shoes with old shoes. The advance in attributed to the increased cost of iron.

RAM TO BE GIVEN BY ASTIAN ENDEAVOR UNION

Omaha Christian Endeavor union program at the First Christian twenty-sixth and Harney streets, evening, the proceeds to go toward financing the Christian convention, which will be held in October.

those who will take part in the are Miss Blanch West, Miss Vi West, Miss Belle West, Miss West, Miss Elaine Dale, Miss Ruth Carlson, Miss Inva Ely,

PRESBYTERIAN HAS MOST PROSPEROUS YEAR

First Presbyterian church had a prosperous in benevolence building during the past year, according to annual reports recently made.

Douglas, prominent Arney, moves to Omaha

DOUGLAS, PROMINENT ARNEY, MOVES TO OMAHA

Douglas of Saratoga, a former of the legislature from the 33rd district and a resident of Omaha for the last thirty years, has moved here.

KING AK PLANS BIG OPENING NIGHT

Initial Ordeal at Den This Year to Be Known as Greater Omaha Night.

The opening night of the Ak-Sar-Ben show and initiation at the Den this year will be known not only as opening night, but as Greater Omaha night. The South Side fellows will be present in strong force and stage some sort of a special feature as they did on South Omaha night last year.

SOUTH SIDERS TO LOOM UP BIG

There are 1,175 members at the present time. The membership committee is hustling and bringing in new members each day.

"Torture" Instruments Ready. The contraptions for initiation are almost complete. The carpenters, blacksmiths, "dynamite monkeys" and all other craftsmen employed in getting up these "infernal machines" have about finished their tasks.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Steele Holcombe, the new president of the university Young Men's Christian association, has appointed his cabinet for the years 1915-17.

The cabinet members will be: Finance - Anton - Strandberg, Pringhas; publicity and publications, George Grimes, Omaha; Bible study, Edward Perley, Omaha; mission study, Vaughn Russom, Lincoln; personal work, Paul Conrad, Lincoln; church affiliations, LeRoy Meisinger, Lincoln; vocational, Axel Swenson, Oakland; H. F. M. Hall, Lincoln; O. B. Anderson, Lincoln; industrial service, W. P. Urbach, Lincoln; shop meetings, G. O. East, Lincoln; new students, R. H. Walker, Far- nham; Temple High school, Earl Ketcham, Omaha; social, Lawrence Finney and Cable Jackson, Lincoln; university night, Harold Holtz, Handolph; rooms, E. W. Lundeen, Kearney; gospel teams, Verne Austin, Lincoln; boys' clubs and classes, Ray Cowen, Stratton.

The fifth conference of the Middle-Western Intergovernmental association for women's self-government will be held at the university this week, when delegates from Wisconsin, Iowa, Washington, Missouri, Illinois, Nebraska, Grinnell, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, Kansas, Northwestern and South Dakota universities will discuss problems affecting the college woman. Edna Floyd of Nebraska university is the president of the association. The first meetings will be held Thursday.

SUNNY BROOK THE PURE FOOD WHISKEY The Inspector is Back Of Every Bottle Grotte Brothers Co. Omaha, Nebraska

Persistence is the cardinal virtue in advertising; no matter how good advertising may be in other respects, it must be run frequently and constantly to be really successful.

The conference will conclude with a luncheon Saturday.

The seniors of the university last week decided to ask the chancellor and the university senate to excuse them from final examination to be held in the latter part of May and the first week of June.

York College. President McLoughlin is celebrating the arrival of a fine boy at his home.

Grand Island College. The chess club gave an excellent concert at Bluff Center April 30.

Nebraska Wesleyan University. Vice-Chancellor and Mrs. Schreckengast left Thursday for Saratoga Springs, N. Y., to attend the general conference of the Methodist church.

Chancellor Avery was a speaker at the banquet of the University of Nebraska, Chicago Alumni association last Thursday evening, when 250 former students of Nebraska colleges feasted at the Hamilton club.

Mrs. Clemmons, who has been visiting in Tipton, Ind., spent the week in Louisville, Ky., with Mrs. Philip Grinstead.

Mr. Emerson, principal of the school of agriculture, State university, and Rev.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

"Tiz" For Sore, Tired Feet--Ah!

"Tiz" is grand for aching, swollen, tender, calloused feet or corns.

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.

Thursday night. The program was in the of the Season.

The annual field day contests were held yesterday afternoon on Johnson field. Races were closely contested in all events, but the high wind made unusual records impossible in the races, as the finish is southward against the wind.

Rev. Harry F. Huntington of Columbus has been secured to deliver the Phi Kappa Phi address on Monday of commencement week.

President McLoughlin is celebrating the arrival of a fine boy at his home.

The faculty base ball team defeated the college freshmen Tuesday evening. This was their second victory of the season.

Lee Anderson, scientific, 1916, was elected principal at Nemago, Neb.

Mrs. Clemmons, who has been visiting in Tipton, Ind., spent the week in Louisville, Ky., with Mrs. Philip Grinstead.

Mr. Emerson, principal of the school of agriculture, State university, and Rev.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

Harry Hastings' Big Show Pleases On Second Visit

A fusilade of mirth, maidens, music, mechanisms and monkey business, is the offering of Dan Coleman, who returns to the Gayety for the second time in the same season, with Harry Hastings' big show.

Mr. Swihart's Waterloo class, assisted by Miss Anna L. Mucky, pianist of Lincoln, Lester Somers, violinist, and Bertha Peterson, cellist, both of Fremont, will give a concert in Waterloo Friday evening, May 6.

INJURED BY FALL DOWN WINDING STAIRCASE

Charles Landalet, an aged employe of the World-Herald, fell down the circular staircase in the old World-Herald building last evening, sustaining severe bruises and cuts beside possible internal injuries.

Mr. Emerson, principal of the school of agriculture, State university, and Rev.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

R. A. White, pastor of the First Congregational church of Lincoln, called on President Clemmons Friday of last week.

Mr. Schaviano's advanced class in harmony was entertained by Mrs. L. P. Larson Thursday at a four-course dinner.

Mr. Swihart's Waterloo class, assisted by Miss Anna L. Mucky, pianist of Lincoln, Lester Somers, violinist, and Bertha Peterson, cellist, both of Fremont, will give a concert in Waterloo Friday evening, May 6.

President McLoughlin is celebrating the arrival of a fine boy at his home.

The faculty base ball team defeated the college freshmen Tuesday evening. This was their second victory of the season.

Lee Anderson, scientific, 1916, was elected principal at Nemago, Neb.

Mrs. Clemmons, who has been visiting in Tipton, Ind., spent the week in Louisville, Ky., with Mrs. Philip Grinstead.

Mr. Emerson, principal of the school of agriculture, State university, and Rev.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

MORE ROOM IS NEEDED BY THE MARINELLO SHOP

In the Valerka Suratt story Friday it was stated that the Marinello shop, Brandeis Theater building, was enlarging its quarters to make room for a department of chiropractic.

Mr. Swihart's Waterloo class, assisted by Miss Anna L. Mucky, pianist of Lincoln, Lester Somers, violinist, and Bertha Peterson, cellist, both of Fremont, will give a concert in Waterloo Friday evening, May 6.

President McLoughlin is celebrating the arrival of a fine boy at his home.

The faculty base ball team defeated the college freshmen Tuesday evening. This was their second victory of the season.

Lee Anderson, scientific, 1916, was elected principal at Nemago, Neb.

Mrs. Clemmons, who has been visiting in Tipton, Ind., spent the week in Louisville, Ky., with Mrs. Philip Grinstead.

Mr. Emerson, principal of the school of agriculture, State university, and Rev.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

The annual election of officers for the alumni resulted as follows: President, O. L. Kendall, secretary-treasurer, George Knight, historian, Carroll Simmons, trustee, G. E. Currier.

For President A Business Man - The Nation's Need. IN a business-like government there would be neither ignorance as to methods nor public graft. A business President would know...