MISFIT SIOUX WIN COMBAT IN A WALK

Kane-less Indians Knock Harry Krause Out of Box and Keep Up Bombardment on Brown.

GASPAR CHECKS OMAHA RALLY

After dropping an entire series of four games to the Iowa League Lincoln and thereby establishing themselves as the puniest team in the loop, Harry Gaspar's crew of misfit and misquipped rube-players brooded into Omaha yesterday and looked the spots off of Omaha in a combat that would have brought tears to the eyes of an Egyptian sphinx. The score was 7 to 3.

Mueller Is Injured. Conspicuous by his absence was the great James Kane. The tackling thug was attached to Joval Jim yesterday morning and the gang of hicacher bugs which turned out to entertain themselves at the expense of one-armed Jim was mightily disappointed. A youngster by the name of Mueller went in to play first base, but in the very first round he turned his ankle sliding into the plate and had to be carried off the field.

Krause Was Nipped for Nine Blows and Six Runs in the First Four Innings. To give Krause his due, the biggest part of the hits were miserable scratches, which tell safe because the hitters thereof were lucky rather than from any merit of the batsmen, and Harry's mates connived to let as many Sioux warriors as possible score.

Kelly Blows Up. For three innings Kelly held the Rockies helpless. But in the fourth he lost his punch and a number of smacks netted four tallies and the contest continued the ball game coming back. Earl Smith opened the round by clamping one to center and Burg walked. Marry Krug's single to center scored Smith and Burg took second. Poreythe fouled out, but Kruggy delivered a resounding two-sagger to left, counting Burg and Marry. Miller's single to right scored Krugger.

Gaspar Shows Up. Harry Gaspar, who has more different kinds of adverbs and wind-ups than a vagabond mount of uncertain ascendency has been, is a mauler, and needs a wave, commenced himself from the bullpen and went into pitch. Gaspar rolled Marshall and then walked Ray Miller because of a pronunciation that they might hammer the pill over the wall. With the runway completely congested Gaspar selected Oklahoma Pete Kilbuck as his next and got away with it, pulling a week up to Connolly.

Omaha and Sioux City will play a follow-up game today, starting at 1:15.
